Internal Revenue Bureau Chief To Join Private Firm

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 15 (AP)—T. Coleman Andrews, the Virginia Democrat who took over as Commissioner of internal revenue in 1953, said today he is leaving the Eisenhower administration at the end of the month.

The 56-year-old Richmonder confirmed the widespread rumors that his resignation was in the works even as Treasury Secretary Humphrey was flying to Denver to confer with President Eisenhower—presumably about Andrews' resignation, among other things.

Andrews went to Washington when the Internal Revenue Service was under charges of favoritism and laxness. In announcing his retirement from government service he said he had accomplished what he set out to do—restore the prestige of the Internal Revenue Service.

He disclosed he will return to private business as chairman of the board and chief executive officer of American Fidelity and Casualty Co., the nation's largest insurer of trucks and buses with a home office in Richmond.

"I would have preferred to wait for the President's announcement," said Andrews, "but the report has become so widespread that I am harassed and embarrassed at every turn. I have been pulled off planes, my phone keeps ringing—and with some reluctance I must confirm the reports."

Andrews, former Virginia state auditor, has operated his own accounting firm here for many years. He served with the Marines and the State Department during World War II and later did some reorganization work for the U.S. General Accounting Office and the first Hoover Commission.

President Eisenhower picked him for the top tax collector job in February 1953. Andrews had the strong support of Sen. Byrd (D-Va) with whom he has been politically associated for years. Byrd reportedly had been approached for a cabinet-rank post in the GOP administration after Virginia went for Eisenhower in the 1952 landslide. Andrews was in the ranks of the Democrats for Eisenhower.

Andrews' job with the casualty firm will be a full time position.

'Absentia' Trial Set For Peron In Military Court

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 15 (AP)—A military court of honor was appointed today to try Juan D. Peron in absentia. The court will review his conduct as a three-star general during his dictatorial regime as Argentina's president.

The new government's investigators already have uncovered evidence of luxurious living, great accumulated wealth and romances with young girls. The court may hear some of this evidence and charges of corruption in the armed forces in passing judgment on Peron's conduct.

Army Minister Gen. Leon Bengoa, one of the heros of the revolt which toppled the strongman and sent him into exile in Paraguay, announced that the five-man court will judge Peron only on grounds of military honor, "without prejudice to another tribunal judging him for civil offenses or crimes."

Under the terms of the asylum granted the ex-president as a political refugee, it appeared unlikely any effort would be made to return him here for trial on criminal charges. But any evidence developed at the military court proceedings could be used as a club to keep him out of Argentina for a long time to come.

President Coty Warns:

France's Chronic Instability Poses Threat To Nation

PARIS, Oct. 15—UP—President Rene Coty warned Saturday that chronic political instability in France may cost the country its position as a world power.

In a speech at Dunkerque the president said French democracy must be streamlined to meet "the requirements of our era" if it is to survive.

As Coty spoke, Premier Edgar Faure in Paris faced a confidence vote, scheduled Tuesday, which could plunge France into its 21st cabinet crisis since World War II.

Political observers predicted Faure would lose if the vote were taken Saturday, but sources close to the premier said he is "optimistic" about his government's chances of survival.

Faure may dissolve the national assembly if it votes down his Algerian program and call a general election—seven months ahead of schedule—for a new parliament.

Coty, who is on a weekend tour of war-battered northern France, will return to Paris Monday to be on hand in case he has to start looking for a new premier.

He spoke today at a banquet held in a huge hangar overlooking the wind-swept beach from which the British Navy rescued some 300,000 troops thrown back to the sea by Germany's blitzkrieg in the spring of 1940.

"France must put up a severe fight to retain her rank as a world power and to become...the home of achievements," he said. "Parliamentary democracy in France will be unable to defend itself unless it adapts itself to the requirements of our era."

Gesturing at the wind-lashed waters of the English Channel, the president urged France to look to Britain for a "beautiful example" of political stability which this country would do well to emulate.

He said Britain's tradition of self-government "extends to the most distant oceans, and is loved and admired wherever there are men who think."

By contrast, he said, French democracy can show only a record of "40 years of non-accomplishment" because of a system which denies able leaders the "confidence and authority" they need to do a job.

"Day after day, our leaders are harried and harassed until even the most talented and robust of them ends up exhausted, both morally and physically," he said.

Coty added, however, that democracy still is the type of government France needs.

"To blow out fuses is better

Gore Campaigns Among Democrats For Road Measure

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said today he had urged top House Democratic leaders to take up and pass the Senate's highway construction bill early in the 1956 session.

Gore, who sponsored the measure which passed the Senate earlier this year, told reporters he had written Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) and talked to Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass) about quick action.

"I can report that I received no particular discouragement from either," the senator said.

Gore said he had advanced the view that it was "a political necessity" for the Democrats, as the controlling party in Congress, to provide legislation for a vast program of highways improvement.

The senator, who spent the summer visiting and speaking in his home state, said he had found widespread interest in and demand for such a program.

On the question of financing the program, Gore said he thought that should be taken up in separate legislation. He said a tax bill is bound to come up in the 1956 session and will involve funds derived from highway use.

The present federal excise tax on gasoline, as well as the levies

Fair Continues Throughout Today In West Monroe

The Ouachita Valley Fair will be in full swing this afternoon and evening in West Monroe with the carnival operating, and exhibits buildings remaining open for inspection.

The carnival will start operation around 1 p.m., and reduced children's day prices will be offered on rides. Regular admission price will continue at the gates.

Visitors to the fair will have an opportunity to look a large assortment of agricultural and commercial exhibits, in addition to taking part in amusements along the carnival midway.

Sunday will be the final day of the exposition.

House Committee Raps Payments To Butter Industry

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP) — A House committee said today the government has paid out $279,949 to butter dealers in price support transactions on butter which never left dealer warehouses.

Rep. Fountain (D-NC), chairman of a Government Opertaions subcommtitee, likened the butter "purchases-resale" deals to cheese transactions which cost the government $2,087,494 and were ruled "unauthorized and improper" by the comptroller general.

Fountain wrote Secretary of Agriculture Benson that the committee came across the butter transactions in its investigation of cheese payments.

He told Benson that the comptroller general's finding in the case of cheese did not specifically mention butter, but that he regarded it as covering all similar payments.

Fair And Warmer Forecast Locally

Fair skies and slowly rising temperatures are in prospect for the Twin Cities area today and Monday, according to the federal weatherman.

The high reading at the CAA's Selman Field Station yesterday was 77 degrees. The low was 41.

Fair and slowly rising temperatures are also forecast for the Arkansas area Sunday and Monday.

Connecticut Heavily Hit; Death Toll 19

Many Rivers Out Of Banks In Same Area Hit By Diane

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)—The East Coast's near-hurricane moved off into Canada today. Its legacy was 19 dead, wide flood and wind damage and nervous fear of renewed havoc in devastated Connecticut.

The storm's influence cast a gray pall over the entire northeast. High winds and rain swept parts of New England through the morning.

The rain again sent rivers toward overflowing. In town after town of Connecticut, so terribly mauled by Hurricane Diane's flood waters less than two months ago, anxious residents watched and waited.

The Naugatuck River threatened towns all along its course. Torrington, at the head of the Naugatuck Valley, reported 5.33 inches of rain up to 8 a.m. It had 14.25 inches during the August floods.

At Waterbury the river wiped out two bridges, one opened only three days ago and threatened a third.

Far to the north, waters of Lake Sadawga rose to within a foot of the top of a dike and inhabitants of tiny Whitingham, Vt., prepared for an emergency.

The Nashua River spilled over

Preaus Promises Parish And City Aid For Industry

NATCHITOCHES, La., Oct. 15 (AP)—Fred Preaus, of Farmerville, opening his campaign for governor, promised today to work for state aid for cities, towns and parishes "to promote greater municipal and industrial development."

Preaus and the candidtae for lieutenant governor on his ticket, New Orleans city councilman A. Brown Moore, said they will not promise anything during the campaign they cannot personally carry out.

Both pledged not to saddle themselves with political debts.

Preaus and Moore, making the first speeches of their campaigns, spoke earlier today at DeRidder, Leesville and Many. They also were scheduled to speak at Colfax.

Preaus, former chairman of the State Highway Board, said he will work for long range highway, water conservation and reforestation programs.

He said he favored extending the state's welfare laws to cover widows in need of assistance.

Preaus, an automobile dealer making his first bid for the governor's post, pledged also to work toward justification of welfare rolls.

He said he would like to see the

KILLED IN BUS CRASH—Shown above is the wreckage of a two-decker Greyhound bus which rammed the rear of a stalled truck on four-lane U. S. Highway 20, six miles east of Michigan City, Ind. Six Die, 21 Hurt As Greyhound Bus Rams Into Truck

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Oct. 15 (AP)—A big, two-deck Chicago-to-New York Greyhound bus, hugging the side of a four-lane highway, ripped into a stalled semi-trailer truck in the dark early today, killing six persons and injuring 21.

The truck, owned by the Gateway Transportation Co. of Chicago and driven by Harry Williams, 43, of Oak Lawn, Ill., had been pulled over partly onto the shoulder of U. S. Route 20 about five miles east of Michigan City when Williams felt the air pressure ebb from his brake tubes.

Slightly injured in the ensuing crash, he related that he had set out four bomb-type kerosene flare signals, repaired the brake line leak, and was picking up the last flare when he saw the bus approaching. He told Indiana state trooper Charley Miller he waved the flare in his hand, and jumped aside just before the tearing impact.

The side of the bus was sheared away for the length of its first deck. The six dead were riding in the lower level seats.

All survivors of the 26 persons aboard the bus, including the driver, Thomas R. Locke, 40, of Effingham, were injured.

Many of the passengers were dozing. One of them, George Fredericks, 21, of Youngstown, Ohio, related later, "I was asleep. A terrific crash woke me up. I didn't know at first what had happened.

In his report, trooper Miller noted that Williams, his truck loaded with mixed freight, had driven only partly onto the road shoulder because of the condition of his brakes and his load. Thirty-three inches of the trailer's rear facing was directly over the edge of the pavement, Miller reported.

One of the dead remained unidentified after having been listed for several hours as another woman found later to have taken another bus. The unidentified woman, LeBlanc Indicates State May Go To Court To Get Maneuver Rights For U. S.

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 15 (AP)—Attorney General Fred LaBlanc said today he believed the state could go to court to force two large landowners to open their property in western Louisiana to Army maneuvers.

LeBlanc said he met last night with the governor, the adjutant general and a representative of the Army to discuss the refusal of William T. Burton, Lake Charles oil and timber man, and the Lutcher-Moore Lumber Company to permit training exercises on their land near Camp Polk.

The Army contends it is "essential" to have the two large tracts for the exercise sagebrush maneuvers, first step in reopening Camp Polk as the hub of a vast maneuver area.

"I think there is sufficient law there for expropriation for the purpose of the servitude (maneuver permits)," LeBlanc said.

But he said the Army representatives must confer with top officials in Washington before any action could be taken.

Burton was unavailable for comment, but earlier this week he charged the Army in the past had

Morrison Raps Personal Attacks By Rival Speakers

ABBEVILLE, Oct. 15—(Special)—Chep Morrison listened to two rival speakers attack him personally here today and when his turn to talk came he rose and said:

"I'm tickled to death they've taken time to critize me because it proves clearly that we are winning. The people who try to kick you are always behind you—never in front.

"What we should do is stop the back-biting and criticism and get together behind an administration that can go to work and create a new Louisiana."

The attacks had been made by James M. McLemore, candidate for governor from Alexandria, and from City Judge Edmond Reggie of Crowley, who spoke for former Gov. Earl K. Long who was unable to attend.

McLemore had sought to imply that the City Administration of New Orleans was responsible for the death there of two children whose parents were guilty of neglect. He criticized the welfare department — an agency supported by state funds— and said that an efficient welfare agency would prevent such occurrences.

Neville To Host Louisiana Student Council Meeting

Neville High School will host the seventh annual convention of the Louisiana Association of Student Councils here Monday and Tuesday, with hundreds of delegates attending from all over the state, Sidney Seegers, sponsor of the Neville group, said yesterday.

Most of the state's larger high schools will be represented at the two-day meeting, which will be presided over by Bobby Guzzetta, president of the Morgan City High School student council. Billie Ann Ruple, of Neville, is the state secretary of the group.

Delegates to the convention will be housed in the homes of Neville students, Seegers said.

Three principal speakers will make addresses during the two-day meet, which will consist of group meetings, discussions, and general assemblies. The three peakers for the larger meetings are Donald Wood, San Antonio, Tex., a member of the executive board of the National Association of Student Councils; former Judge V. M. Mouser, of Columbia, and Dr. B. R. Oliphant, of Monroe.

A banquet and dance will be held at the Virginia Hotel for the delegates, Seegers said.

Daily Checks On Ike's Heart Discontinued

President May Be Out Of Hospital In Three Weeks

DENVER, Oct. 15 (AP) — Presidest Eisenhower was well enough today—starting a fourth week in the hospital—for his physicians to stop the daily cardiograms and release one of the specialists on his heart case.

Definitely encouraging developments in Eisenhower's condition showed up in the bedside bulletins from the doctors for the second consecutive day.

They sparked talk that continued progress toward recovery at the present rate may enable the President to check out of the hospital in another three weeks rather than four.

Showing "no signs of fatigue from his birthday activities of yesterday," the chief executive had another outing on a sun-splashed terrace outside his eighth-floor hospital room, then had lunch and a 15-or-20-minute business conference with Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Humphrey, who disclaimed any interest in the Republican presidential nomination in the event Eisenhower does not run again, told a news conference that he:

1. Repeated to the chief executive that he is "still very hopeful we're going to balance the budget this year"—the fiscal year ending next June 30. Humphrey said prospects for a tax cut then would be more favorable, and he hopes for one in the following year. But the budget must be balanced first, he said, and the money must be in sight to make up for any tax reduction.

2. He did not discuss with the President "either today or any other day" the question of a second term for Eisenhower. Nobody can tell yet what the prospects are, Humphrey said.

3. He has "just one candidate for President of the United States and that man is the President of the United States." That was in response to a question as to whether he would be receptive to what a reporter termed "a sort of Humphrey for president boom." The secretary said Eisenhower "is the only candidate I have any interest

Frenchmen Fear Best Ally Losing Control Of Tribes

RABAT, French Morocco, Oct. 15 (AP)—The French already engaged with Riff warriors along the northern frontier near the Spanish Moroccan border, today had a new worry: is one of their closest Moroccan allies, the redoubtable old Pasha of Marrakech, losing his control on Berber tribesmen of the south?

The teaming city of Marrakech, where Pasha Thami el Glaoui has long held a firm grip on Arab quarters with his own police, erupted last night in an orgy of rioting and fire.

Groups of young Moroccans dashed through the native quarter starting nearly a score of fires and pillaging tobacco shops. The sale of tobacco, a French monopoly, long has been a favorite of Nationalist extremists.

Report On Federal Probe Of Louisiana Employment Offices Reported Near

By JAMES MCLEAN

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 15 (AP) — Federal agents investigating the Louisiana Employment Security Division from top to bottom will draft their first report next week.

Administrator Richard Walker of the state agency said he hopes he will be able to make public "the findings of the federal investigation."

The probe began silently two weeks ago and is continuing.

As Walker originally reported, Washington and Dallas agents of the U. S. Bureau of Employment Security are investigating:

1. The "outside activities" of certain division staff members.

2. Record size of some payroll tax refunds granted Louisiana employers in the last three years.

3. Why some employers have been delinquent in their payroll taxes as long as nine years.

4. The general fiscal operations of the state agency.

The investigation was not made public until Walker was asked for comment about reports the federal men were here.

He told of the probe two weeks ago and gave an outline of its purpose. But the federal agents refused comment.

Walker said while some phases of the investigation could be termed routine, it nevertheless is "quite extensive and you couldn't label some of it routine."

The state administrator explained he could not elaborate on nature of the examination, saying the federal agents have not made known their findings to him.

"Some time next week they will make a report of the investigation and their recommendations," Walker said.

And he said he expects Larry Rickard, of the Washington office, to return here from Dallas where Rickard has been conferring with Ed McDonald, regional director of the U. S. Bureau of Employment Security. Rickard headed the federal checkup here.

The State Employment Security Agency, a federal aid unit linked with federal finances, collects and supervises payroll taxes, unemployment benefits and public employment offices.

Walker was appointed administrator by Gov. Robert Kennon in June, succeeding J. Hadley Heard, who resigned to enter private business.

Since the investigators appeared on the scene, Walker said, "I have not asked any questions, nor have I been informed about the progress of the investigation."

When the federal team arrived two weeks ago, Walker began a state checkup of employers delinquent in their payroll taxes, with the first effort centered in New Orleans.

That work is continuing, Walker explained, and "we already have realized several thousasd dollars by bringing about settlement of delinquent accounts."

Trenton Teacher Clinic Scheduled For This Month

The Trenton Baptist Association has announced a teacher's clinic scheduled for October 17-20 at the Claiborne Baptist Church. According to Melvn A. Bradley, Sunday School superintendent, the clinic is designed especially for the more than 300 new teachers in the association who began work in October. All teachers from the 21 churches are urged to participate, however.

Bradley points out that an experienced faulty has been engaged that will be of immeasurable influence on the associational Sunday schools and all pastors are urged to encourage their teachers to attend. Beginning at 7:15 each evening, Monday through Thrusday, the school will close at 9 o'clock. The faculty and their departments are: Adult, Rev. H .K Stringer, Winnsboro; Young people, Mrs. J. A. Ford; Intermediate, Miss Dorothy Holt, Junior, Mrs. A. R. KeLand; Primary, Mrs. Otto Cash; Beginner, Mrs. George Camp; Nursery, Mrs. Ed Williams; Cradle Roll, Mrs. Harold Butler; and Extension, G. D. Walker. Melvin A. Bradley is director of the school.

Public Defender Issue, Video Topic

"Should We Have A Public Defender" will be the topic for discussion on today's session of the Jaycee Roundtable, a weekly television program sponsored by the Monroe-West Monroe Junior Chamber of Commerce, Dr. T. A. Brulte, Jr., moderator, announced yesterday.

Today's panel will include Judge Jesse S. Heard, Fourth Judicial District judge; Albin P. Lassiter, district attorney, Fourth Judicial District; Judge Jasper Jones, City of West Monroe, and Woodrow Wilson, state representative from Morehouse Parsih, city attorney for the City of Bastrop, and president of the Fourth District Bar Association.

Man Is Treated For Burns After Mishap At School

WINNSBORO, Oct. 15 (Special)—John Quinn, Negro, about 50, is in Rogers clinic here with second degree burns on the head, face, arms and legs after a fire at the Waverly Negro High School in Ward 4 Saturday morning.

Doctors said Quinn's condition was satisfactory Saturday night.

Quinn was in the process of installing an electric switch in the home economics room of the new $10,000 brick building at the high school. A gas pipe was loosened from which butane gas escaped and caught fire from an undetermined origin. It was possible that a wrench could have made a spark by which the fire started.

Delhi and Winnsboro fire departments were called. The Delhi fire truck arrived first and got the blaze under control and just as it ran out of water the Winnsboro arrived and finished the job.

The unofficial estimates of damage was approximately $5,000.

Franklin Grand Jury Preparing For Fall Session

WINNSBORO, Oct. 15 (Special)—The Franklin parish grand jury will meet Monday morning for the beginning of the fall term of criminal court.

According to records in the sheriff's office there are 68 cases on the docket to be investigated. Most of these are minor but one of them is a murder charge.

Jess Ezell, a 50, Gilbert, farmer, is charged with murder in connection with the May 15, 1955, shooting of Calvin Spears, Negro farmer on Ezell's farm. According to the coroner's jury, Spears died of gunshot wounds inflicted by Ezell.

Curtis Spears, brother of Calvin and an eyewitness to the shooting, swore out the warrant against Ezell. Ezell has been free on a $5,000 bond.

The shooting was the climax of an argument between Spears and Ezell.

Architects Are Named For School Buildings

The Monroe City School Board in a special meeting Friday employed the architects for two new junior high schools and a new Negro elementary school to be built within the near future.

Named as architect for the new northside junior high school was Herbert Land, Jr., while the firm of Rivers and Huers was employed as architects for the new southside junior high school. King Stubbs was named architect for the new Negro elementary school.

Neville Students To Participate In All-State Chorus

Two Neville high school students, Marilyn Crowley and Linda Bickham, have been named to participate in the All - State Chorus, and invited to attend a music clinic at Natchitoches Nov. 19-23, Paul Neal, principal, reports.

Selection of the two girls for the All - State Chorus was announced originally by Helen Baker, chairman of the vocal division, Louisiana Music Educators Association, the organization which sponsors the statewide band and chorus clinics.

Top vocalists are named from the various state high schools. Both of the Neville girls have been designated for soprano parts.

The clinic will be held at Northwestern State College.

facts which differentiate the butter payments from the cheese payments," he wrote, "I would appreciate it if you would bring these facts to my attention."

The Agriculture Department last month referred the cheese transactions to the Justice Department to determine whether legal action should be taken to recover the money.

Fountain listed 47 firms which received government payments on butter transactions with the Commodity Credit Corporation. Eleven of the firms also received payments on cheese.

The committee's listing showed payments ranged in amount from $44,245 paid the Challenge Cream & Butter Assn. of San Francisco, to $862 paid the Fort Worth (Texas) Poultry & Egg Co.

In the case of cheese, the CCC made the payments under the price support program for dairy products.

When Secreatry Benson lowered cheese price supports from 90 to 70 per cent of parity on April 1, 1954, cheese firms hurried to unload their stocks at the higher support rate.

Under the "purchase - resale" transactions — in which the cheese stayed in the dealer's warehouse — the government paid distributors 37 cents a pound at 90 per cent of parity and sold it back to them at 34½ cents a pound without ever taking actual possession.

Louisiana Crop Forecast Shows Six Per Cent Hike

ALEXANDRIA, La. Oct. 15 — UP—Favorable conditions resulted in an estimated six per cent increase in the total expected volume of production of the principal field crops in Louisiana in September, the Louisiana Crop Reporting Service said Saturday.

There were important to moderate increases in production appraisals over Sept. 1 for cotton, rice, corn, soybeans and hay, the service said, while the outlook for sugarcane, sweet potatoes and some minor crops remained the same as a month earlier.

Based on conditions as of Oct. 1, the service said, the total volume of production this year is expected to be just slightly more than in 1954, and eight per cent more than the 1944-53 average.

Louisiana cotton production for 1955 is forecast at 575,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight on the basis of reported conditions as of Oct. 1 and ginnings prior to that date as reported by the Bureau of the Census. The forecast is 75,000 bales, or 15 per cent, above the Sept. 1 production appraisal. The current prospective crop is 3,000 bales greater than 1954 production but is 16,000 bales, or three per cent, below the 1944-53 average.

The service said that corn production is now estimated at 17.5 million bushels, an increase of 605,000 bushels over expectations a month ago. This is 35 per cent above last year's crop and 15 per cent above average.

Production of rice in Louisiana is estimated at 12.5 million equivalent 100-pound bags, two per cent more than the Sept. 1 forecast. The crop is expected to be 16 per cent less than 1954.

Prospects for sugar cane production remain unchanged from a month ago. The indicated production of 5,865,000 tons for sugar and seed is five per cent below last year, but eight per cent above the 1944-53 average.

Indicated production of sweet potatoes remained unchanged during the last month. The indicated crop of 9.8 million bushels is 11 per cent above last year, and five per cent above 1944-53 average.

Grandfather At Orleans To Bury Two Dead Boys

NEW ORLEANS — UP—Funeral services planned by their sorrowing, middle-aged grandfather were scheduled here Saturday for the two Baughman boys who died Thursday, apparently poisoned while scaveninging in garbage cans for food.

Boyd Baughman, 50, of Arcadia, Tex., arrived here Friday night to take charge of arrangements for his dead grandsons, Lawrence, 7, and William, 6, and to try to see what he could do for his five granddaughters who have been placed in children's homes.

"It's a terrible, terrible thing," he said. "It's just awful."

Coroner Nicholas J. Chetta was scheduled to release the bodies this afternoon after almost two days of exhaustive tests.

"Our report will read that these children were well-developed and well-nourished," he said. "Maybe they were hungry."

He said there was definite evidence of phosphorus in the bodies of both boys indicating they ate some kind of household pest poison. Phosphorus is used in almost all of them.

Meanwhile, Mr. and Mrs. William Baughman were still in jail on charges of criminal neglect and contributing to the delinquency of juveniles. It was expected that they would not be released to attend their sons' funeral.

The grandfather said about his son, "I know the boy and he wouldn't hurt anybody. There must be something wrong." He expressed the hope he would be able to visit him in jail.

He also said he hoped to be able to take at least two of his granddaughters back to Texas with him. The girls, ranging from an infant up to nine years of age, have been placed in welfare homes here.

The case first came to light Thursday when neighbors summoned police because the children were apparently starving and foraging for food. Officers found the two boys ill and took them to Charity hospital where they died only hours later.

Future Teachers Hear Of Role In Child Guidance

Teachers do damage when they fail to accomplish good for the child, John J. Barnes of the Northeast State faculty told the group attending Friday night's banquet of the college's Future Teachers of America.

The speaker underscored the responsibility which teachers should assume in working with both pupils and parents.

Glenn Tidwell, president of T. O. Brown Chapter, FTA, presented Barnes, a specialist in hearing difficulties, who is one of four members of the Special Education Clinic personnel at Northeast.

The newcomer to the faculty stressed the value which teachers can give their schools through working with members of the clinic. "It is one thing for clinic specialists to check children's difficulties," he said. "It is the teacher's job to do something about the problem of the retarded child after the trouble has been diagnosed."

Examination of pupils is followed by a conference with the teacher who is told about the defects which may be found in the classroom by the clinic specialist. Explanation of difficulties is essential if the instructor hopes to do any remedial work.

Barnes emphasized the duty of teachers assuming a professional attitude toward their positions. Each one should ask two questions: Is the child improving? Is what I am doing contributing to the child's improvement?

Some children improve without any asistance of the teacher, the speaker said. This situation should not be accepted casually by the instructor. It does not release him from his duty.

President Tidwell announced that Northeast's FTA chapter will assist in sponsoring the FTA organization at West Monroe High School. He presented two representatives from the school, Mrs. Daisy Bergeron of the faculty and Miss Ina Faye Owens, a student.

President Lewis C. Slater commended the Northeast Future Teachers Association for its tremendous growth. "The chapter has become a valuable asset to the college," he said.

The organization, which became active under Dean William M. Smith's sponsorship, has strengthened in both membership and participation in projects, considered worthwhile for future teachers and the entire student body.

Beaten In Fight

TAIPEI, Formosa, Oct. 15—UP—Chinese Nationalist Sabrejets shot down a Communist MIG in a dogfight Saturday off the Red China coast, the Nationalist air force announced.

Air force headquarters said four Nationalist Sabres engaged four Chinese Red MIG fighters Saturday afternoon some 30 miles north of the offshore island of Matsu.

Business System Is Described In Picture Feature

"It's Everybody's Business," an animated motion picture in technicolor, was viewed by members of Northeast State Social Science Club at Friday's meeting. The film explained how our business system has given America the highest standard of living in the world, and pointed out the importance of preserving the freedoms on which such a system must be founded.

New members were welcomed to the organization by President Dwight Grubbs, social studies major of West Monroe.

Faculty sponsors of the club are Dr. J. R. Brown and William A. Walker, Jr.

Club projects scheduled this year include: field trips to salt mines at Winnfield and Bastrop paper mills; lectures by authorities on such varied topics as banking and juveni. delinquency; a float for the homecoming parade; and the annual banquet. Mrs. Majorie Guillot heads the committee to make arrangements for this social event.

More Facts In The Till Case

The Pulitzer Prize in journalism has never been awarded to a newspaperman defending the vast American heritage of the past, the established institutions on which all of our moral and cultural values rest.

Invariably, this prize—which is valued for unknown and dim reasons as a badge of distinction, has gone to somebody who cried havoc against the past, and against the status quo and the established institutions.

Some of the Pulitzer Prize winners, in fact have won this honor by being Judases and Benedict Arnolds, in a way of speaking, against their kith and kin and their near neighbors, and their communities that nurtured and reared them; and it is notoriously true in the newspaper world that no writer of conservative leanings has an outside ghost of a chance even to be considered for the Pulitzer Prize.

Somebody in all likelihood would have received this shiny emblem by reason of inflammatory reporting in the Till case—that curious Mississippi case involving a Chicago Negro youth, who, according to testimony, pawed and mauled a beautiful young white matron who was tending store during her husband's absence on a business trip, and allegedly was murdered as a result.

Life Magazine, a curious hybrid publication that has talent amounting to genius for spreading misinformation and tincturing the big lie with a thin tincture of truth, so that the unsuspecting citizen might swallow it as a hungry bass swallows a plastic lure loaded with hooks, dipped its oar into the Till case.

It dug up a picture of the Till youth's father, in appropriate uniform, and it said that "the soldier-father . . . was killed in France fighting for American proposition that all men are equal . . ."

The Jackson Daily News, in a copyrighted dispatch, revealed Friday night that Till's father was hanged by the United States Army in Italy as a rapist and murderer, after due trial and conviction.

Such penalties by the Army are rare, and are carried out only in cases of monstrous brutality—and this case was just such a one.

Should the Pulitzer Prize be awarded to Life Magazine for its false and slanderous handling of the Till case?

Or should it be awarded to the Jackson Daily News, which ferrets the truth out of old files, as Life Magazine easily could have done, and prints the truth?

Editorially, The Morning World has commented, as all of its readers know, that there is more in the Till case than meets the eye.

Let us hope that the truth, in its bright and undimmed authority, comes out—every bit of it—all of the facts.

No honest person of moral convictions could blame the Till youth for the horrible misdeeds of his father, a rapist-murderer, who was hanged in Italy by the United States Army.

But when this father is held up by Life Magazine and other South-baiting publications as a shining crusader for "the American proposition that all men are equal," isn't it time to let the facts be known?

Life Magazine, more than any other American publication, has official ties in Italy and means of learning what went on there.

Did it exercise even ordinary vigilance to verify its scandalous, bitterly anti-Southern spreads in the Till case?

Outrage In A Federal Jury Room

The people have been shocked by disclosure that a University of Chicago group of researchers planted microphones and recording instruments in a federal court jury room at Wichita, Kans., and clandestinely taped down the jury's deliberations in five or six cases.

According to evidence unearthed by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee headed by Sen. Eastland of Mississippi, this snooping and indefensible invasion of the jury's privacy was accomplished with the full knowledge and connivance of at least two federal judges.

Sen. Eastland yesterday hinted that impeachment proceedings may be sought against one or more persons in connection with this case.

The House of Representatives must originate impeachment, and the Senate sits as a court to judge such trials.

Whether any law can be found to punish the arrogant University of Chicago group responsible for this outrage is doubtful. But the American people are entitled to ask, how low in the scale of values can a university get, how far down in the muck and mire can so-called research wallow?

No more odiferous and filthy episode ever happened in American jurisprudence. We are left to wonder what slimy motives impelled these so-called educators in their eavesdropping upon a jury.

Is it now to be undermined through such filthy means, brazen and scoundrelly?

Market Adjustment

After a long term of almost uninterrupted bullishness —General Motors stock, as an example, was selling for seven times the 1948 figure—the New York stock market was due for a correction.

The Wall Street readjustment, which formerly might have brought panic and severe business depression, occurred while most economists agree that the end of prosperity is not in sight. But many holders of securities decided to reduce their portfolios merely in the interest of caution.

While jittery investors or speculators occasionally succumb to nerves, wiser ones know the government has wide powers over money and credit, that it can ease credit as well as tighten it, and that a depression is a ticket to certain defeat for any administration.

A British orator refers to pot-bellied Americans. We are generous feeders for a fact. So were the British when they had it.

Fines For Killing Robins

Lafayette, La.

Editor, Morning World:

The heavy fines by Federal Judge Ben C. Dawkins, on two Monroe men for killing robins recently, I think was fair and just.

The robin is one of our most beloved feathered friends in Louisiana. Their songs are among the sweetest ever heard—each morning when I am about to get up I have one sing next to my door—it sort of cheers me up for the whole day.

Our wildlife, and especially our birds like the robins and the mocking birds, should be protected at all times from the cruel hunters who kill for the lust of slaughter, and boys who are out to destroy these beautiful birds. They mean so much to tourists, hunters and sportsmen that visit our state each year.

So, more power to judges like Mr. Dawkins.

ERNEST L. CASTEL.

Right To Work Law

Bastrop, La.

Editor, Morning World:

The time has again arrived when duty devolves upon every citizen to look forward to the preparation of another four years of economy for the State. Again a remodeling of ways and means must be made. All State and local offices must be replenished. Perhaps many new faces will appear in some of the most important offices, and it is the duty of us all to select men with stamina and fortitude, who are able to keep abreast with the vicissitudes of an evolutionary economy, and meet the demands of a growing economy with judicious resplendence.

There are several laws in Louisiana that about seventy-five per cent of the citizens would like to see thrown into the waste basket; especially one: the so - called "Right to work" law, which was aimed at destroying the economic efficiency of the "labor Unions". The labor unions are holding an unprecedented reserve and determination to maintain the economic efficiency of the relations between labor and industry, and the rights of both to bargain and contract with each other. In '53, the legislature by a narrow margin, attempted to sever these relations, and all the members who voted for this bill, may as well hang up their hats and arrange to stay home.

Of course it is the privilege of everyone to vote as they please, but for the past two years, most citizens have had their minds firmly fixed for next election, and solicitation will be time and effort wasted.

Lights Over Broadway

The fiery beauty of Broadway's conflagration is occasionally enhanced by an explosive radiance—the emergence of a star. This dazzling phenomenon — as personified by Susan Strasberg in "The Diary of Anne Frank" — has intense emotional consequences. The experience, quite understandably, has Susie riding the clouds. She has breathlessly confessed to interviewers that she is excited and bewildered as well as joyous and numb. . . . Scaling the starry heights even overpowered Ethel Merman, famed for her tranquility during openings. She reached the Broadway heavens by whamming across one song ("I Got Rhythm") in "Girl Crazy." Ethel has recorded the event in her memoirs: "It's very hard for me to stand back and take a cold, calm look at that first night. It's still thunder in the back of my head. I didn't know what was happening to me. . . . When I finished that song a star had been born. Me. I still didn't get the meaning of what happened. I knew people were beating their hands together and I had to sing encore after encore, but all the noise and excitement made me sluggy."

At intermission, George Gershwin came backstage and counseled: "Don't ever let anybody give you a singing lesson. It'll ruin you."

The radiant incidents are not without fascinating touches of irony. In Philadelphia (many years ago) an actress who was scorned by reviewers. One grumbled: "If the young lady who plays Madame Tretoni had possessed beauty, charm or talent, this play might have been a success." New York critics were not impressed with the play, titled "Captain Jinks." However, they were enthralled by the actress who was lashed in Philly. Her regal beauty, creamy voice and acting magic enchanted One and All. Several weeks later, the producer surprised the actress by putting her name in lights. When she approached the theatre that evening and noticed the glowing symbol of stardom — Ethel Barrymore wept.

Success in any field of endeavor is allied with hard work, of course. Ethel Barrymore once prevailed upon producer Charles Frohman to cast brother Lionel for the part of an Italian organgrinder in a drama titled "The Mummy." Lionel's preparation for the role was intense and resourceful. Prior to rehearsals he devoted weeks to learning the correct Sicilian accent Then became acquainted with an organ-grinder to gain an understanding of the role and learned to play the hand-organ. Lionel's pretending in "The Mummy" was his springboard to stardom.

Most performers are endowed with overpowering determination. The ego, naturally, is a compelling force. Nevertheless, they are also haunted by a pitiless terror—a profound sense of insecurity. Strangely, it remains a melancholy companion after the pinnacle has been gained. As Marlon Brando recently confessed: "Finally, I got a call from Kazan to try out for 'Streetar.' I got the part and from then on have been doing pretty well. In reminiscing, it all seems so simple, but I remember being plagued by doubts, fears, loneliness and all the other horrors that haunt everyone who is trying to develop a talent that he is unsure of. I was just thinking that even after having a certain measure of success, such as I have had, it's still hard to be sure."

Intensive training and prodigious toil are generally the primary requirements in the evolution of a star. But there are exceptions, folks . . . Several years ago, a novelist visited a movie set in France. She was impressed with a young actress — playing a minor role — and impulsively urged her to accept the starring chore in a proposed dramatization of her novel. The frightened young actress refused — contending she lacked ability and experience. Nevertheless, Cinderella was finally convinced and the yarn had the customary happy consequence. Audrey Hepburn became a star in "Gigi."

Fate, the great sculptor of life, is not motivated by any perceptible rules. It moves mysteriously and relentlessly, shaping lives in the image of joy and despair . . . Tom Ewell became a star after the opening of "The Seven Year Itch." The journey from obscurity to stardom required 14 long years and encompassed numerous frustrations. It took Shirley Booth a quarter - century to reach the summit.

Tallulah Bankhead, the flamboyant one, created a career out of stardust and roman candles. Her electric personality and acting skill made stardom inevitable. Destiny, however, required a motivating force. It came in the form of a whim. Talu won her first important role in "39 East." She got the job, incredibly, because the director was impressed with the way Talu put on her gloves.

THERE is no greater blessing for . . . A child upon this sod . . . Than just to learn the story true . . . Of our almighty God . . . To know that he or she is here . . . Because God granted life . . . And He will help each soul to meet . . . The struggle and the strife . . . And there is no one worse on earth . . . Than someone who denies . . . The truth as it is known to us . . . And tells the children lies . . . It may be out of ignorance . . . Of hatred or of fear . . . But it is cruel and unjust . . . To all our children dear . . . Each boy and girl belongs to God . . . And each should know its worth . . . That only by the grace of God . . . Is he or she on earth.

Timmons In Washington

Non-Political Possibilities

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Any red-blooded American boy theoretically can become president, but the American political system places limitations upon that possibility which restricts it to at least one in a million.

Big names stand for little in an open contest for the presidency, meaning one in which both parties have sharp fights for their nominations. That describes the year 1956, in which well known men without political experience who have not held elective office, are once again being mentioned as possible candidates.

Does the U. S. have a political system by which its presidents are drawn from among its best men? That has been a debatable question for a hundred years, or since the beginning of a succession of undistinguished presidents after the Civil War. The lack of distinction has persisted, in some instances, into the present century.

The last outsider to break the select circle of those who, by political training, have a preferred position in the race, was Wendell Willkie, a utility executive who made a surprisingly successful race for the Republican nomination in 1940. General Eisenhower cannot be put in that class because he was a world figure and therefore a logical choice for a presidential nomination.

The nation is now confronted by a situation in which lack of enthusiasm for some of those presidential possibilities best qualified by their political backgrounds offers a shinning opportunity for some business executive or professional man, not previously identified with public office. Understandably such a surprise starter would appeal more to the Republicans, losing President Eisenhower, who looms so large against the political skyline that he has left other GOP hopefuls in the shade.

Non - political possibilities talked of here, but not too seriously, include the president's brother, Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State College; General Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme allied commander in Europe, generally regarded as one of the really brilliant men of his day; and Paul G. Hoffman, board-chairman of Studebaker - Packard, and an original Eisenhower booster. They are three top men of the type that many Americans have urged should be considered for the presidency. Like President Eisenhower, they would enter the White House free of any political connection, also of any political experience.

State governors have high preference rating as presidential candidates. In the last 100 years, eight former governors have sat in the White House for a total of 52 years. And in that period one college president, two generals and one business man have served as chief executive. But the present crop of governors thus far has produced no Republican possibility of note. Most of the 20 state executives who aided Eisenhower prodigiously in 1952 have had their wings clipped by defeat.

Gruenther, Milton Eisenhower or Paul Hoffman would probably make a good president, might continue the "progressive moderate" philosophy of the present administration better than any of those who have risen through political office. But the intricate methods by which American presidential candidates are nominated constitute a big handicap for them.

The Democrats could show an equally distinguished group of non-political possibilities, though not as nationally known. But Democrate party leaders haven't discussed the possibility of such a nominee, and his chances in 1956 would scarcely be worth considering discussing.

Congressional Quarterly

Congress Awaits Guidance In Three Contempt Cases

WASHINGTON — Congressional investigators, ever ready to assert their power to compel testimony, again lie becalmed in a legal sea.

For once, Republicans and Democratic Congressmen find themselves in the same boat as they await the court's response to the latest questions raised by the clash between assertions of legislative power and claims of individual rights.

Crux of the problem remans the power to punish for contempt of Congress. When may a witness properly refuse to answer the questions of Congressional investigators? On what grounds may he base his refusal? Can a witness be forced to testify if he is granted immunity from prosecution?

Courts have answered these and other questions in the past, but never with such finality as to foreclose further controversy. Now the investigators are marking time pending the outcome of several test cases.

In 1955, Congressional Quarterly found, the Senate cited four persons for contempt, the House only one. In 1954, by contrast, 36 were cited, 29 of them on the initiative of the House un-American Activities Committee.

The pendulum has been swinging for several years, guided by the judicial climate as well as the prevailng winds of investigation. The biggest year since World War II was 1950, when 63 persons were cited (59 by the Un-American Activities group) after clarification of the law by key Supreme Court rulings. All 45 citations in 1951 stemmed from the crime probe by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D., Tenn.). But the number dropped to eight in 1952, to three in 1953.

Is Law Legal?

Three of the pending court cases are being watched with special interest by Capitol Hill and the legal profession.

One case tests constitutionality of the witness-immunity law enacted in 1954. The law was designed to permit Congress and the courts to compel testimony from witnesses in matters involving the national security, even if they claim protection of the Fifth Amendment's "self-incrimination" cause. The Amendment permits a witness to refuse to testify against himself. Under the 1954 law, U. S. District Courts may issue grants of immunity, in effect barring any punishment for crimes revealed in the course of testimony. The theory is that compulsory testimony would not be self-incriminatory if punishment were barred.

Congress has not yet used the new law, but the Department of Justice twice has obtained grants of immunity. In both cases, the witnesses stood by their refusal to testify before grand juries, and were convicted of contempt of court.

Both convictions were appealed, and that of William Ludwig Ullman is on the Supreme Court fall docket. As a matter of practice, the Court rules last on constitutional questions, so the case may be decided on lesser points of law. But contempt conscious Congressmen are awaiting guidance before attempting to enforce the 1954 law in the case of recalcitrant committee witnesses.

McCarthy Cases

The second case of exceptional concern to Congress also revolves around use of the Fifth Amendment to withhold testimony. The question: Can a witness, for example, deny that he has ever engaged in espionage or subversive activities, then refuse to answer specific questions on the same subject on the grounds of "self-incrmination?"

Such a question is involved in the case of Diantha D. Hoag, one of the five persons cited for contempt in 1955. The case will go to trial in December.

Miss Hoag was cited by the Senate Feb. 4 for refusing to answer questions before the Government Operations Permanent Investigations Subcommittee in 1954, during a probe of Communist infiltration of defense plants. Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R., Wis.), former committee chairman, called it a "very important test case" and said that some 25 other witnesses had used the Fifth Amendment in the same manner.

The third case attracting special attention tests a basic issue: Does the First Amendment and its guarantee of free speech provide safe grounds for a witness' refusal to testify?

When the issue was presented in the contempt trial of Corliss Lamont, an author, in July, the court ignored it and dismissed the indictment on technical points. Now the issue has been raised in the trial of Harvey O'Connor before Federal District Judge Joseph R. McGarraghy in Washington. A decision awaits the filing of briefs.

O'Connor is an author who was cited for contempt in 1953, when he refused to answer questions of the McCarthy Subcommittee in a probe of the State Department's overseas library program. O'Connor, whose books were used in the program, pleaded protection of the First Amendment, saying "my writings, books and my political opinions are of no legitimate concern to the Subcommittee."

Our Example Misleads

A prime objective of the sudden Soviet eagerness to exchange visitors is being overlooked by our eager-to-be friendly Americans.

Greeks fighting Turks ofer Sardinia. This they dared not do as long as fear of Russia "bunched them.' '

France is diverting half her entire Army to Morocco while slapping at Germany over administration of the Saar. Egypt is trading cotton and oil to Moscow. Britain is slashing her draft.

Even staunch anti - Red West Germans are now more interested in unification than in arming themselves.

This intramural squabbling and relaxation of vigilance, this scattering and dissipation of resistance, these gaping holes in the once solid western front, all this results from the recent Soviet smile.

And we, United States of Americans, have authenticated the Russian "new look" and so have aided and abetted their diplomatic offensive.

Would you, if you were a hard-taxed Western European, vote more austerity for yourself for defense against a tame, harmless, domesticated red bear?

And, you reason, it must surely be tame now, for it is allowed to roam the residential streets of the United States loose, unmuzzled, unfingerprinted.

Russian "officials" visiting the U. S. may acquire a little information on American production methods which would otherwise be less readily available to them, but that's not their principal purpose in the visitor swap.

It is the resultant "peace propaganda" which has already scattered NATO forces, inflamed the Middle East, and lowered resistance to communism from Islam to the District of Columbia.

Our A. F. L. refused to be a party to the big swap, saying the U. S. S. R. must genuinely change her attitude about a lot of things, particularly her disrespect for the working man, before our labor unionists would dignify her with a social call.

In Evansville, Ind., the major veterans' organizations protested the visit by Russian housing "officials" saying the Soviets should mend their manners, wash their bloody hands and practice civilized behavoir before being welcomed into our homes.

The world, watching the company we keep, is beginning now to wonder, "What's the difference"

NO COMMENT

By JAMES W. DOUTHAT

WASHINGTON — If you were picking out the things that make a politician's heart leap with joy you would place high on the list a tax cut for the voters. This is especially true just before an important election which could be decided by a close vote.

Needless to say, the presidential and congressional elections next November are all-important. And many of the contests could be very, very close. Under these circumstances, the Republicans (and Democrats) are hopeful that they can support tax-cutting legislation during the next session of Congress.

Whether or not President Eisenhower is a candidate for another four years, the Republicans concede that, to recapture control of the Senate and the House, they need to persuade a substantial number of voters to shift their political allegiance to the GOP.

One of the best ways to appeal to voters is to cut their taxes . . . to permit them to spend or save or invest their own money . . . instead of letting the Government spend it for them.

Of course, some politicians would slash taxes even if it meant plunging the nation farther into debt and bringing on more inflation and cheapening the value of the dollar.

During the 1955 session of Congress the Democrats (with some notable exceptions) sought to give every taxpayer and every dependent a $20 tax cut . . . even though a $2,400,000,000 deficit was in prospect and the tax cut would have reduced the Government's income by $2,300,000,000 a year.

Republicans fought the Democratic proposal, which was passed by the House but rejected by the Senate. Republicans contended that, to protect the nation's fiscal solvency, any tax reduction must be postponed until the federal budget was balanced . . . or a balanced budget was definitely in sight.

A balanced budget, the Republicans explained, could be achieved only by (1) trimming Government spending, principally by the defense department, without impairing national security, and (2) an increase in tax revenue from higher personal and business incomes resulting from the "Eisenhower prosperity."

The Republicans fervently hoped that the budget could be brought into balance this fiscal year (ending next June 30) and that tax-cutting legislation could be recommended to the 1956 Congress.

Now, this program is running into difficulties. It has been hoped that defense department spending could be cut to $33,000,000,000 this fiscal year. But Secretary of Defense Wilson says because of increased costs, it now looks as if the spending total will be $34,500,000,000.

Admittedly, this is a serious situation for those who insist on having a balanced budget in sight before considering tax reduction. And the November elections are not far off.

However, Republicans explain that the fiscal picture is not all clouds and shadows. They cite these factors:

1. Tax revenue is increasing and this could provide enough money to bring a balanced budget within sight. The more people and corporations earn the more taxes they pay . . . and the more products they buy the more excise taxes the Government gets.

2. The effort to economize is continuing not only in defense but throughout the Government. Officials are being urged in every way possible to eliminate waste, extravagance and duplication.

3. Some members of congress contend that there should be a substantial reduction in financial aid furnished other nations by the United States. These legislators say they will urge the next Congress to trim foreign aid in order to help balance the budget.

Just what will be accomplished along these lines in the next few months is not known definitely now

But it is a safe prediction that in an election year, Republicans and Democrats will do everything possible to woo the voters by lightening their tax burdens.

U. S. Problems 'Complicated'

Ellender, Brooks Return From World Travels; See Dangers, Opportunities

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (Special) —Two Louisiana lawmakers—Sen. Allen J. Ellender and Rep. Overton Brooks — returned to Washington Saturday from extensive travels abroad and each agree that America's problems overseas are many and complicated.

Ellender spent two months visiting 24 countries and Brook's 30-day junket took him to many parts of Europe and North Africa. Both men visited Russia.

Two Louisianians returned to the United States with these key impressions:

Ellender—now that the iron curtain is lifted in Russia the United States has an opportunity to educate Soviet citizens to a better way of life.

Brooks—American troops will be drawn actively in the Civil War in Morocco if the French fail to solve their internal problems there soon.

Both lawmakers went abroad on official congressional business. The senator traveled in the capacity of chairman of the senate appropriations subcommittee studying the use of State Department funds abroad and Brooks investigated servicemen's housing as chairman of a house armed services subcommittee.

Ellender, stopping at Moscow and Kiev, said he found the people of Russia "hungry to learn about other parts of the world."

"Since the iron curtain has been lifted to some extent it is my belief we shouldn't lose any opportunity to visit Russia and permit them to visit us," the senator said.

"Our visits should be done objectively—we shouldn't go with the idea of finding fault. It would be easy to educate them to a better way of life."

Ellender advocated visits by Russians to this country but with restrictions.

"I think we should be very careful to see that all entering are carefully screened so they could not sabotage us. But I would let them see anything but our arms."

The senator said the time has come for the United States to cut off economic and military aid to western Europe. These nations, he said, "should be helping the United States."

Ellender told reporters conditions are such that American aid can also be either eliminated or reduced in other areas of the world.

On domestic matters the senator said he doesn't favor rigid price supports for farmers along the same line as they were before flexible supports were instituted.

Ellender, chairman of the senate agriculture committee, said instead he favors premiums to farmers who grow commodities that are usable and salable.

The senator predicted a farm support bill will be passed by the senate shortly after congress re-convenes in January.

Such legislation, he said, would be non-political—a bill that is constructive and designed to save the farmer from economic strangulation.

Something will have to be done, according to Ellender, to keep the farmer in business.

"When we get down to as little as 14 per cent of our population farmers, in contrast to 65 per cent 50 years ago something should be done. To put the lifeblood of our country in the hands of so few people is dangerous. The small farmer is the backbone of our country."

Speaking briefly on the present political picture Ellender said he hoped Gov. Averell Harriman of New York will not be the Democratic nominee for president.

"He is the type that would give away all we have, even the Indian on top of the capitol dome," the senator added.

Brooks said he was seriously concerned over the situation in Morocco as it involves American troops stationed there.

"It is serious from our view point," the congressman reported. "If France gets involved further in Civil War its going to involve our people."

Brooks said he found the French using military equipment in Morocco that the United States sent to Europe for use by NATO nations.

Nearly 8,000 Americans now live in Lebanon, according to figures released by the Surete-General in Beirut.

Millions Of Well-Wishers Await News On Princess

By EDDY GILMORE

With millions of Britons expecting their engagement announcement soon, the pretty 25-year-old princess and the 40-year-old hero of the Battle of Britain hid themselves away at a secluded mansion from the eyes of hundreds of photographers, reporters and just plain curious.

The princess talked by telephone with her sister, Queen Elizabeth, during the day but no word of what was said became public. The Queen is at Balmoral, Scotland, and is due in London Tuesday.

Margaret and Townsend arrived at 20-roomed Allanbay Lodge last night as the weekend guests of Mrs. John Lycett Wills, cousin of the princess and one of the couple's most intimate friends.

And if the princess' god-daughter, 7-year-old Marilyn Wills, has her facts straight the princess hardly moved outside since she got there.

"She has been sitting in front of the fire," said blonde Marilyn, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Wills. "Sometimes she rushes upstairs.

"She hasn't gone outside," Marilyn, confided through a picket fence. "But she looks happy all the same."

Townsend, a horse lover, ventured into the autumn outdoors early this morning to take a short ride on a racehorse named Juliet Jones. He looked happy, too, but told reporters:

"I still can't tell you anything about my future plans."

Early this evening the guarded gateh of the mansion swung open. A royal car sped through. Inside was Capt. Oliver Dawnay, equerry to the Queen Mother. Twenty minutes later Dawnay raced out again and headed toward Windsor Castle, where Queen Mother Elizabeth was staying. No one knew the purpose of his visit.

Tuesday, Queen Elizabeth is due to confer with Prime Minister Eden. Wednesday Princess Margaret and the rest of the immediate royal family dine with the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Eden has called two Cabinet meetings — one Tuesday and one Thursday — plus a round of all-party talks to discuss the implications of a Margaret-Townsend wedding.

Some usually well-informed people believe that before an engagement could be announced Margaret would have to renounce her rights of succession to the throne. That would require parliamentary action when Parliament reconvenes Oct. 25.

The archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, is spiritual leader of the Church of England. His public utterances have made it certain that Margaret and Townsend could not have a full scale royal wedding in an Anglican church.

Only this week the archbishop spoke of the church's attitude toward women who marry divorced men whose former wives are living. Townsend divorced his wife in 1952 on grounds of adultery. He was awarded custody of his two sons. His former wife has remarried.

"They take upon themselves certain obligations," he told a meeting of Anglican bishops. I see no reason why they should escape the consequences of their act. Our primary duty is to defend the status of marriage. We must not diminish the sancity of the spoken word."

The archbishop's attitude has led many people to believe Margaret may be married in the Presbyterian Church of Scotland, which is less stringent in its position toward remarriage.

The ancient Romans made alloys of tin and lead and used them for soldering, much as they are used today.

Midnight Curfew Imposed By Guard In Indiana Town

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Oct. 15 (AP)—A midnight curfew was ordered today for all of Henry County as National Guard troops tightened martial law control around the Perfect Circle Corp. foundry riot scene.

The curfew order, effective immediately, will require all youths under 19 to be off streets and roads by 10:30 p.m. EST every night.

Older persons must be indoors by midnight except for travel to and from work and in emergencies such as illness. Traffic passing through the county will be excepted.

Maj. Robert Wilson, public information officer at the military headquarters in New Castle's City Hall, said Col. Howard S. Wilcox, commander of the 1,000 guard troops enforcing martial law, ordered the curfew chiefly because of "too much unnecessary movement at night by teen-agers." He said there had been no rowdyism, but that the curfew was intended to prevent any.

Martial law, but not the curfew, is also in effect in nearby Hagerstown, headquarters of Perfect Circle, and around the piston ring firm's two struck plants at the northwest end of Richmond, in neighboring Wayne County. Liquor sales are banned in both New Castle and Hagerstown.

CIO United Auto Workers have been on strike against Perfect Circle since July 25 in a demand for a 21-cent hourly pay raise, a union shop and a layoff pay plan. Present wage scales run from $1.21 to over $2 and the company has offered an 11-cent raise.

Eight persons were shot and wounded in a demonstration at the struck New Castle foundry 10 days ago that resulted in establishment of martial law.

Dorothy Etta Goff of Ruston, a secretarial science major at Tech, was "Miss Dixie Gem II," Peach Queen in 1952.

These eight queens do not include a few hundred other girls who hold a queenly rating in the eyes of boy friends on the Tech campus, it was pointed out.

Here's one that Ripley probably overlooked. That ambitious little town of Farmerville likes to recite that it has furnished the state with two governors, Governor Heard and Governor Ruffin Pleasant. Now the town is out to get a third man from their little city in the governor's chair. He is Fred Preaus.

Another still unusual fact lies in that all of the three governors and governor aspirant live in the same block in Farmerville.

This is really something quite unusual, states Dr. D. Rabun Smith, Monroe dentist.

Under the heading "A College for Alaska," "The Louisiana Methodist" current issue, tells of progress on financing the college planned for Anchorage — to be the first four year college in that vast and fast developing territory. The goal set is to raise five million dollars and already money is coming in fairly good.

Amazed Methodists who have gone to this far north, the article states, are amazed at progress there. They report that cities in Alaska grow today twice as fast as in the rest of the United States.

Here is how they picture the metropolis:

"Take Anchorage, site of the college, for example. It boasts that it is the fastest growing city under the American flag. It has population of 58,000 exclusive of more than 50,000 of military personnel. Its population increases yearly by as much as 25 per cent.

"Its banks have deposits of 65 million dollars. In the public schools are six thousand pupils. Its three airports cost a total of $13 million dollars.

"One high school cost five million dollars, there is a seven million dollar hospital and a $450,000 civic auditorium, and a public library that cost $350,000.

"There are two television stations, three radio stations and two daily newspapers. It is now spending eight million dollars on the port of Anchorage. Last year the three airports had 255 thousand operations, a record that few cities of the world can equal.

"Last year 30,000 automobiles were registered in Anchorage. In the matter of churches there are two Methodist churches and forty-four other denominations."

welfare program include some who are not now able to qualify although they are in need.

On the welfare program, Moore added:

"We're going to tell you right now that you can expect a small increase in welfare checks, but it will not be because of politics. It's just that money has accumulated that will make a hike in payments possible."

Preaus said he wants the state to provide more recreational facilities. This, he said, would help in the fight against juvenile delinquency and would bring fathers and sons closer together.

He said he favored enforcement of all laws, but believed enforcement should first come on the local level. He promised to cooperate with all local officials and exhaust all local remedies before infringing on local jurisdiction.

Preaus told a Colfax gathering about his plans "to create a climate favorable to industry so that more people could be more gainfully employed."

"The happiest people in the world," he said, "are those who are gainfully employed."

Preaus and Moore spoke about highways, institutions, forestry and education. Regarding education, Moore said it should be "fair, equal and separate."

Moore said that the present problem with the welfare program "is that it doesn't reach many it ought to reach" including those left without any income or any ability to support themselves.

Preaus said he and his ticket also would bring the state "a fresh water conservation program" that would make it possible for every father to take his boy fishing. He did not elaborate on the program.

at Fitchburg, Mass., at a point where a million dollars worth of frozen food is stored in a warehouse.

From all over New England there were reports of flooded roads ruined bridges, washouts and disrupted railroad operations.

Said a New Haven railroad official:

"Well, we're in trouble again."

The storm took lives from New Jersey into Canada, mostly in highway accidents. Electrocutions from falling wires and drownings accounted for the others. The death list was:

New York, 7; Pennsylvania, 4; Connecticut, 2; New Jersey, 1; Maine, 1; Massachusetts, 1, and Canada, 2

Receding waters today lifted the threat of disastrous floods in parts of New York State, but the village of Ellenville, hit in August, went about the grim business of preparing for another emergency.

Three creeks that converge on the Ulster County resort loosed two feet of water onto a part of the main street. Their rush also threatened communities father downstream.

The storm, which contained wind gusts of 70 miles an hour at its peak, blew in from the ocean yesterday off Cape Hatteras, N. C., and swept up the hurricane trail. It hit on the eve of the anniversary of last year's devastating Hurricane Hazel.

High tides pounded the coastline. Hundreds of shorefront residents were evacuated as the storm moved north. As streams began spreading over lowlands persons living in those regions had to flee, too.

more, Morrison took note of the criticism and said:

"You have heard from the hatchet men and you all know that the hatchet man always finished last in a political race."

Morrison, following the personal attacks, pledged himself to "run on my own merits and not the demerits of others."

The New Orleans mayor said that instead of personal attacks and villifications, he wanted to "speak about by ambition for a better Louisiana."

"Some of the candidates — one has been governor — talk about what they want to do for you after they have already had a chance. Yet today Louisiana is in the lower one-third of the states economically. They talk about what they want to do for the poor man and the money in the poor man's pocket. But we should be just as prosperous as the people of New Jersey or Pennsylvania or any other place."

The candidate called South Louisiana a "neglected area" and added:

"Maybe one reason we've been neglected is that we haven't had a governor from South Louisiana for 12 years. Your lifeline, for example — highway 90 — is dangerous and 20 years out of date.

"If these people who say they want to do so much for the poor man were sincere they would have tried to lift the standards and the income of our state."

Something has been done during his 10 years as Mayor to improve New Orleans, Morrison declared, saying, "The people of my city make twice as much as they did 10 years ago."

For example, he continued, "the New Orleans delegation to the legislature in 1952 voted unanimously for a program of black-top roads and we didn't get one penny of it for our city."

Morrison said that his success in helping build New Orleans recommended him to do a similar job for the people of the entire state.

In Paris, Faure and his chief aides worked against time to get his Moroccan program in effect, hoping that a show of achievement in the strategic protectorate would improve his chances of winning assembly approval for his reform program in neighboring Algeria.

Informed sources said Faure hopes to have the regency council which is the key to his Moroccan policies ready to assume nominal authority over the protectorate Sunday. The council will replace Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa, who was ousted and exiled two weeks ago.

Ex-Pasha Si Bekkai, who is expected to be the key man on the new council, left for Morocco Saturday after conferring with officials in Paris.

The land he mentioned is the present Camp Polk firing range.

All but about 700,000 of the seven million acres sought by the Army have been obtained, either by maneuver permits or land already owned by the federal and state governments.

But the Army insists it must have Burton's land, adjoining the sprawling Army post, and the Lutcher-Moore property north of the camp.

Under the terms of the maneuver permits, the Army will pay for damages to the property during the training exercises.

At Lake Charles, Burton said he intends to issue a complete statement on the situation and its background early next week.

"I have already made my stand perfectly clear in the matter," Burton said, "and I see nothing in this development that calls for any further comment from me at this time."

Record Year For Nation's Business Showing Signs Of Quickening Its Pace

By WALTER BREEDE JR.

NEW York, Oct. 15 (AP)—The nation's fast-moving economy picked up a little more speed this week. All signs pointed to a whirlwind finish for 1955, biggest business year on record.

There were fresh symptoms of nervousness in Wall Street and a new round of credit restraints. But industry still packed plenty of punch.

Pittsburgh and Detroit supplied most of the power.

Production in the nation's steel mills was scheduled at 2,350,000 tons—highest for any week in history. Steel producers, wondering how long the overtaxed mills could keep going at better than 97 per cent of capacity, mapped new expansion plans. Some toyed with the idea of boosting prices.

Fast and furious production was scheduled too by U. S. automakers heading into a ding-dong yearend battle of output and sales. Chevrolet, the No. 1 producer, returned to the wars after a brief shutdown for model change-over; the appearance of the first 1956 Chevvies was expected to goad competitors into greater effort's. Ford was shooting for a weekly production rate of 47,500 cars; Plymouth aimed at its biggest production week since April.

For dealers who had just completed a major cleanup job unloading 1955 models, the outlook was for another competitive free-for-all which could last right through to 1957.

Sharpening competition was indicated in the skies as well as on the highways. Pan American World Airways announced it had placed contracts totaling 269 million dollars for 45 jet-propelled luxury transport planes capable of cutting global air travel time nearly in half. The jet liners will rocket from San Francisco to Honolulu in 4½ hours, New York to Paris in 6½. Expected result of Pan American's move: a scramble among other airlines for jet-powered transports.

Things were looking up for the railroads this week. Passenger travel is declining, an industry spokesman said, but freight tonnage — which brings in more money — is up a good 10 per cent over last year. President W. T. Faricy of the American Assn. of Railroads summed up the industry's No. 1 problem in a talk to the Shippers Advisory Boards. To give adequate service, he said, the railroads will have to spend six billion dollars on capital improvements in the next five years—and they'll need a 21 per cent boost in net income.

A record year for crops and livestock — that was the word this week from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Crop production alone may equal or surpass the record volume of 1948; total volume of farm production will be the largest in U. S. history. Government forecasts of bumper harvests coincided with a Dun & Bradstreet report showing wholesale food costs at their lowest point in nearly three years. The outlook: more than enough food for all, plus a whopping addition to Uncle Sam's seven-billion-dollar stockpile of surplus farm products.

Retail merchants had cause for satisfaction this week; business continued to show impressive gains over last year's levels. Shoppers spent freely on home furnishings, television sets and fall and winter apparel. The prospect of price increases worried some merchants who wondered how customers would react. Items destined for higher prices by next spring: men's women's and children's shoes; men's headgear.

Money for lending — tight today —may soon get tighter. Leading banks this week jacked up their "prime rate" to 3½ per cent. That's the interest they charge on loans to borrowers with top credit ratings, and it sets the pattern for lending policies all down the line. The old prime rate was 3¼ per cent.

Top bankers, industrialists and merchants of the Midwest gathered at Chicago this week for the annual meeting oft he Illinois State Chamber of Commerce—and the keynote was one of unmistakable optimism. They agreed that the outlook for 1956 is good — that profits and sales in many cases should exceed current levels.

Beavers Is Given Three-Year Term In Penitentiary

Judge David I. Garrett sentenced R. C. Beavers to three years in the Louisiana State penitentiary at Angola, Friday in Fourth District Court when he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of simple burglary.

A number of misdemeanors including reckless driving and disturbing the peace filled up the criminal docket during the morning, with the more serious offenses being delegated to the afternoon session.

Reckless drivers were assessed heavy penalties and Judge Garrett remarked to one offender that "This speeding in trucks has got to stop.

Richard Beard, Negro, pleaded not guilty to reckless driving, trial set for October 21 and fined $25 and costs or 30 days for driving without a license; William Oscar Burgess, guilty, $100 costs or 30 days; Donald M. Spillers, 18, guilty, $50 costs or 30 days and suspended from driving on highway for 30 days; Emmitt Williams, Negro, $75 and costs or 30 days.

Robert T. Jones, Negro, pleaded not guilty to a charge of aggravated assault and trial was set for October 28.

Others included:

Bobby Ray Norris, guilty to disturbing the peace, $25 costs or 25 days; Johnny L. Byrd, drunk driving, $300 and costs or 60 days; Joe D. Hines, charging with drunk driving, pleaded not guilty, trial set for October 28; Charles Kramer, pleaded not guilty to disturbing the peace and trial set for October 21; Oscar M. Pace, $300 costs or 60 days when pleading guilty to drunk driving, and Charles H. Wall, not guilty to charge of reckless driving, trial set for November 18.

Joe Messina, through his attorney, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of gambling and did not appear.

Other cases included that of Donlee Jordan and Samuel R. Patrick, who pleaded guilty to attempting to take squirrels out of season and were fined $25 and costs or 10 days. Samuel R. Patrick was also fined $25 and costs or 10 days on a similar charge.

Albert K. Dixon was given 30 days in jail for disturbing the peace by being drunk in a public place. Judge Garrett read a long history of fines for drunkenness on the offender that dated back to 1942.

NSC To Perform Popular Comedy 'Born Yesterday'

The Northwestern State College theater's version of "Born Yesterday," one of Broadway's most hilarious comedies, will be performed Thursday and Friday at the Fine Arts auditorium, Dr. Edna West, director, has announced.

Garson Kanin's three-act play features action between Billie Dawn a dizzy blonde; Harry Brock, a political king; and Paul Verral, an intellectural and romantic young man. In the play Verral causes a triangle situation when Billie falls for him.

Featured in the lead roles are Mazie Dranguet of Natchitoches, as Billie; Don Lyons of Saline as Brock and Dencil Taylor of Newellton as Verral.

Summerfield Asks GOP Supporters 'Lend Ike A Hand'

TULSA, Oct. 15 —UP— Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield told eastern Oklahoma Republicans Saturday night that during President Eisenhower's convalescence they can help make the GOP an "unmistakable expression of the Eisenhower philosophy."

Summerfield addressed the second successive $100-per-plate fund-raising dinner in Oklahoma. The first was held Friday night in Oklahoma City, where 500 persons paid $50,000 into Republican campaign coffers.

The postmaster general said that prior to Mr. Eisenhower's heart attack "there were too many whose attitude was: Let Ike do it."

"From now on, the slogan of everyone of us should be: Let's help Ike do it," he said.

Summerfield said that "this is no time for partisanship, for political maneuvering to promote a personal interest or a favorite issue."

Noting that the President had asked for a 15 per cent increase in the GOP vote next year, Summerfield said, "in my book, that means 35 million Republican votes in 1956.

"And you can write it down as a political fact that there are many more than 35 million Americans who tonight would say: If the Republican party is good enough for Ike Eisenhower, it is good enough for me," he said.

In Oklahoma City Friday, Summerfield said the President's cabinet "doesn't even think about" a possible successor to President Eisenhower, in case he doesn't run for re-election.

"We don't even think about discussing it," he said. "We have a responsibility to carry on in his absence."

Another District Co-Chairman For Team Is Selected

OAK RIDGE, Oct. 15 (Special) —The Morrison - Barham ticket for governor and lieutenant governor this week gained another active co-chairman for the Fifth congressional district when local business men and farmers chose Earl M. (Niney) Barham for that post, Wade Pearson, previously named co-chairman, announced today.

Barham, a lifelong resident of Oak Ridge, is the third person to be appointed locally for organizing the Morrison campaign in the fifth district. He will be working with Wade Pearson, of West Monroe, and James C. (Jake) Ussery, of Monroe.

The new co-chairman is a farmer and member of one of the earliest and largest families to settle in this area. He is married and the father of three boys.

His civic affairs participation is impressive: he is a member of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church; member of Oak Ridge Lions club; member of the Louisiana Delta Council; member of the board of trustees for Public Affairs Research; member of the Morehouse Wildlife Federation; member of the state parks and recreation commission; member of the Wildlife Society; and a member of the Boy Scouts Pack commission of Oak Ridge.

Import, Export Proposal On Gas Faces Opposition

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—Several coal, rail and labor groups have joined in opposing natural gas import and temporary export proposals of Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. and an affiliate, Midwestern Gas Transmission Co.

Midwestern asked the Federal Power Commission Oct. 10 for authority to import up to 200 million cubic feet of gas daily from Canada.

This would be used along with other gas purchased in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, North Dakota, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Under the plan, the gas would be purchased in Canadian producing fields by Trans Canada Pipelines, Ltd. It would be transported by it through proposed facilities to a point on the boundary near Emerson, Manitoba, for delivery to Midwestern.

Tennessee Gas Transmission seeks authority to sell gas temporarily from fields in the Gulf Coast area, traversed by its pipeline, to Trans Canada at a connection at Niagara Falls to help supply requirements of Montreal, Quebec and vicinity. It was estimated the quantity of such gas would be about 13 billion cubic feet a year in the third year of operation.

The company stated, the FPC said, that an agreement between Tennessee Gas Transmission and Trans Canada contemplates sale of the U.S. gas until expiration of three years or until proposed Trans Canada facilities are constructed from western Canada to connect with existing lines near Toronto, whichever occurs first.

The National Coal Assn. said the following organizations have stated they would oppose the gas import and export proposals:

The National Coal Assn., American Coal Sales Assn., the Anthracite Institute, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Fuel Research Council, Inc.

Tom Pickett, executive vice president of the National Coal Assn., said in a statement it was his organization's view that the proposal to furnish American gas on a temporary basis to Canadian Eastern provinces was "merely another attempt to have Americans subsidize the building of the all-Canadian natural gas-pipeline."

The coal industry, he said, is "amazed at the repeated and persistent efforts to seek FPC authorizations to export Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi natural gas into Canada when the figures of the American Gas Assn. show that the life index of the reserves of natural gas fell to below 22½ years supply in 1954."

HIRAM B. WALLER

Franklin Sheriff Seeks Reelection To Third Term

WINNSBORO, Oct. 15 (Special)—Hiram B. Waller, 37, has announced his candidacy for re-election as sheriff and ex-officio tax collector of Franklin parish subject to action of the voters in the January 17, 1956 democratic primary.

The former salesman was first elected sheriff in 1948 after staging a campaign through all sections of the parish with his five - piece hillbilly band.

In his announcement this week Sheriff Waller stated:

"I ran strictly as an independent candidate, supported by no one in particular. I intend to do the same thing in this race, as I did in 1948 and 1952. The sheriff's office belongs to the public — all of the people — and to no man or political faction. I have, and will continue to work with the duly elected officials, from the governor on down, regardless of their political affiliations or whether they supported me or not.

"This is not a political statement, but a fact. I try to serve all the people, big and little, impartially, honestly, and to the best of my ability."

Sheriff Waller said no sheriff's office in the state is better equipped than that of Franklin parish today. The improvements have been paid for out of the department's operating fund and the taxpayers did not have to spend an extra dime for them.

"I consider this a pretty good accomplishment in light of the fact that it costs so much more to operate the office today than it did eight years ago — for example, cars for the department cost almost twice as much as they did eight years ago."

A deputy sheriff is on duty at the sheriff's office seven days a week — 24 hours a day. This new service has been given to Franklin parish citizens within the past four years.

A two - way communication system linking the office with all department cars and other parish and state police officials; a base radio station proper insignias for all cars, and warning signals.

All of this was done at no extra cost to the taxpayers.

The sheriff said that his office has provided escort for funerals of any family who requested this service and has cooperated with school officials to give police protection and regulate traffic at games or any other large type of public assembly.

"While I am not commanded by law to do these things, I think the sheriff's department should be a service institution, as well as a police and tax collecting agency. I shall always view it in such a manner and will continue to cooperate with parish governmental, civic, social, and church organizations which serve the public need to the public's advantage.

"Of course, we have made some mistakes — who hasn't? — but we have profited by them. After having served you for eight years, I believe the invaluable experience will enable me to serve the people even better in the future. I will continue in the future as in the past to keep the sheriff's office abreast of the times."

Grains Suffer Sharp Decline

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 (AP) — Grains suffered their sharpest break since the Labor Day holiday this week as soybean and corn harvesting expanded in the Midwest.

Biggest decline came in soybean down 12 to 13½ cents. Rye was not far behind, off 7⅜ to 10½ cents. Most of the rye loss was recorded after mid-week.

Corn also was very weak, ending down 4½ to 5⅛ cents. Wheat eased 1¾ to 3¼ cents in sympathy with the rest of the market while oats were off 1⅛ to 2 cents.

Oil Progress Week

Rich Texas Oil Regions Pay Homage To Industry

By MAC ROY RASOR

AUSTIN, Oct. 15 (AP) —Many a Texas town owes its growth to oil.

And a large part of the oil industry's growth has been centered in Texas.

The industry and the oil towns—often it's difficulty to tell them apart — took full advantage of national Oil Progress Week this week to reflect, celebrate, and generally shout their accomplishments.

Special editions rolled from presses.

"West Texas Empire of Oil Unequalled for Production" said a Midland Reporter-Telegram headline. The story cited 360 million barrels produced in 1954, more than in any other region in the nation, more than in any other state except Texas.

New pay formations and new fields in the region promise to maintain the region's reserve at almost 20 per cent of that of the entire U.S., the paper said. Total oil reserves in Texas are estimated to be half those of the U. S.

Borger, which rose from the West Texas prairies in a 1926 boom, put on a "Magic Plains Oil Exposition," complete with everything from a horseshoe pitching tournament to fireworks.

"Boom towns come and go, but Borger has defied its critics who once said it would go with the wind after the excitement of its oil riches had died down," said the Borger News-Herald.

"Only its color has changed. "Instead of the rowdy, gun-toting days of the city in the late '20s that made hot copy almost daily for the nation's press, Borger has taken on a new look, settled down and acquired a hopeful look for the future."

There was an exposition, too, in San Angelo, where the Standard Times special oil edition editor Grady Hill estimated one in every three people in non-farm work in 35 nearby West Texas counties is directly working in oil and gas production.

Tyler took Oil Progress Week in stride. A special edition of the Tyler Courier-Times - Telegraph reminisced over the discovery of the world's biggest oil field.

The big East Texas pool, 45 miles long and five miles wide underlying five East Texas counties, began with Dad Joiner's discovery in 1930. The field has produced more than three billion barrels of oil.

In the fiscal year just ended, production tax on crude oil and on natural and casinghead gas amounted to $168,427,000, an all-time high and about 20 per cent of the year's receipts from all sources. Motor fuel taxes brought in another $121,000,000 net.

Cotton Futures Stage Recovery In Heavy Trading

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)—The cotton futures market staged a strong recovery over last week's losses. The nearby months showed the best improvement.

Net gains for the week on the New York Cotton Exchange extended from 65 cents to $4.65 a bale. This compared with net losses of 55 cents to $9.45 a bale the week before when the market was subjected to heavy selling.

Technical considerations were the main factor in the upturn, market specialists said. At the start of the week, prices were depressed by a bigger-than-expected government forecast of the 1955 crop. The market soon rallied, however, as low prices attracted bargain-hunting buyers. One factor in the recovery was the prospect of heavier entries into the government loan. Continued uncertainty over export prices and the 1956 loan level restricted demand for the more distant contracts.

After the close of trading Friday, Secretary of Agriculture Benson announced that the national acreage allotment on the 1956 cotton crop had been set at 17,391,000 acres—a decline of 4 per cent from this year's quota of 18,113,000. Farmers will vote to accept or reject the quota in a referendum Dec. 13. A vote of two-thirds is required for approval.

On the basis of the government's October crop report, the new York Cotton Exchange Service Bureau estimated the total domestic supply of all cotton at a new record high of 25,100,000 bales. This compares with 23,500,000 a year ago, 22,100,000 two years ago and with the previous record of 24,600,000 in 1939-40.

Consumption of cotton by U.S. mills in the five-week period from Aug. 28 to Oct. 1 was estimated by the Exchange at 876,000 bales vs. 817,000 a year ago.

Stock Market Activity Varies Widely In Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)—The stock market had a taste of everything this week—violent falls, vigorous recoveries, dull days—and in the end it was lower for the third week since the President's heart attack.

Investor confidence was severely shaken three weeks ago, and brokers still are searching for signs that a base for a sustained rally is being formed.

Three weeks ago today the market stood at a record high level. That represented an estimated gain of $29,995,000,000 in the value of securities on the New York Stock Exchange since Jan. 1. In three weeks an estimated $17,996,000,000 has been subtracted from that total.

Monday's stock market was hit with some of the widest price declines in 25 years. That fall continued Tuesday. The market shot ahead Wednesday in one of the better advances of the year, regaining half the Monday loss.

Thereafter the market halted in its tracks and backed and filled on low volume the last two days of the week. The Associated Press average lost $3.20 on the week and closed at $165.70.

The five most actve issues this week were U.S. Steel off 2 at 54⅛, General Motors off 2, Glenn Martin up ½, Chrysler off 2 and Pennsylvania Railroad off ⅛.

Audit Report Shows:

Negro Schools Receiving More Than 'Fair Share' Of Miss. Education Funds

JACKSON, Miss., Oct9 15 (AP) — State auditor W. D. Neal said today Mississippi's Negro public schools are receiving more than a fair share of school money.

The statement was based upon a statewide audit of white and Negro public schools to determine the accuracy of superintendents' reports on the number of pupils in average daily attendance (ADA)

Negro schools are reporting more pupils in ADA than Neal's five examiners counted. Under Mississippi law, school funds are allocated on the basis of the number of pupils reported in ADA.

According to the audit, the state's 1,544 county Negro schools reported 16,631 more pupils in ADA than the examiners counted and the 81 separate district Negro schools reported 3,835 more pupils in ADA than the examiners counted.

The state's 634 county white schools reported 6,095 more pupils in ADA than the examiners counted and the 86 separate district white schools reported 438 more pupils in ADA than the examiners counted.

The audit showed the number of pupils reported in ADA during 1954-55 was 17,716 less than the number reported during the previous two years.

That means, Neal said, schools required $2,268,828 less than if the number of pupils reported in ADA had remained at the same figure as reported the previous two years.

This two million dollars did not go back into the state treasury. Instead, superintendents used it to raise salaries of teachers nearer the amount called for under the education equalization program.

Because the Legislature did not appropriate enough money to operate schools on a 100 per cent basis, teachers had to accept lower salaries during the present school year.

Neal declined to make any predictions about ADA reports based upon the audit.

But he pointed to the drops in ADA reports since his department began taking the audit. The first audit was made last year.

For white schools, the ADA report for 1953-54 was 1,650 less than the ADA report for 1952-53 and the report for 1954-55 was 545 less than the 1953-54 figure.

For Negro schools, the ADA report for 1953-54 was 9,421 less than the ADA for 1952-53 and the report for 1954-55 was 8,295 less than the 1953-54 figure.

State law provides a penalty for padding attendance figures but a state official said proof would be difficult to obtain.

Neal declined to state whether rolls are being padded, but said one day's count of pupils in one particular school "might not accurately reflect the ADA for the entire year.

"But in any large group of schools, it does appear that the examiners' count can be relied on to give a fairly accurate picture of average attendance.

"It would appear, therefore, that if the examiners' count is approximately the same as reported attendance in the separate district white schools, that the count is not far from being an accurate indication of average attendance in all other schools combined."

Search Renewed For Missing Youth Sought In Killing

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15 (AP)—Jefferson Parish authorities renewed the search today for Gerald Robichaux, missing since the death of a companion some eight months ago.

The 23-year-old Robichaux disappeared last March after the body of a companion, Ronald Campbell, 18, was found in an automobile on the Mississippi River bridge with a bullet wound in the head.

A police spokesman said the search was centered in the Slidell area He said parish authorities had received information within the past few days indicating "that this boy is alive and in the city."

Robichaux was the object of a widespread search after discovery of Campbell's body.

At the time, chief criminal deputy John Stewart said he believed Robichaux took his own life in a leap from the bridge. He said he based his opinion on a reported death pact between Campbell and Robichaux.

A friend of the two told authorities about the alleged death pact after the body was found.

He quoted Robichaux as saying before the two went on a fishing trip earlier: "You may never see us again. We may flip a coin—heads we jump off the bridge, tails we blow our brains out."

A search of the river for a body proved fruitless.

The police spokesman, who asked that he not be identified, said eight Jefferson Parish officers were "checking just about everything" in the Slidell area. He declined to answer further questions on the new developments.

Coroner's Jury Withholds Ruling In Man's Death

JACKSON, La., Oct. 15—UP— A coroner's jury Saturday withheld a final ruling pending further investigation after a pretty bride of one month testified her husband begged her to shoot him and then shot himself to death.

Sheriff N. L. Palmer of East Feliciana parish said Mrs. Louise Dunaway told a coroner's jury that her 23-year-old husband, A. J. Dunaway, earlier Friday complained of a headache.

"My husband complained of a headache," Mrs. Dunaway said. "He asked me to help him and I told him I would. But he picked up that rifle and asked me to shoot him

"I screamed and said no, no, no. Then before I could move, he shot himself right there in our room."

Dr. Clovis S. Toler, coroner, said a coroner's jury ruled that death was caused by a head wound. They did not rule it a suicide pending further investigation.

Projects that he is now actively engaged in besides Citizenship are: Farm and Home Electric, handicraft, health improvement, home improvement, Junior leadership and safety.

Air Force Places Orders For Many Fast Jet Planes

By CHARLES CORDDRY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 —UP — The Air Force has quietly placed orders in recent days for more than $1 billion worth of planes including jet fighters able to fly almost twice the speed of sound.

Some of the orders followed the policy of stepping up production of supersonic jets because of Russia's impressive display of long-range bombers and other combat planes last spring. Some were for high-speed turboprop transports, urgently wanted for fast movement of ground troops and military cargo.

The Air Force has made no formal announcements of the big orders, but a compilation of data from manufacturers showed that the total value passed the billion-mark Friday when Lockheed Aircraft Corp. disclosed a new contract for F-104A "air superiority" fighters. When questioned, Air Force officials verified the total order figure.

The F-104A, designed for daytime air battles like those that were fought eight miles above the Yalu River in Korea, can fly an estimated 1,200 miles an hour, almost twice as fast as the F - 86 Sabre of Korea fame. Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff has called it the "fastest, highest-flying fighter in the air anywhere."

Lockheed's new contract for the plane, first ordered into production last year, amounts to more than $100 million. The Air Force has given no indication when it will be ready for service.

McDonnell Aircraft Corp., meanwhile, has received an order for more than $330 million for three versions of its F-101 Voodoo fighter, which was earmarked along with the F-104 for a speedup after the Russian exhibitions.

A contract for about $390 million has gone to Convair division of General Dynamics Corp. for a large number of F-102B delta-wing (triangular wing) interceptors. The 800-mile an hour planes feature the "Marilyn Monroe" fuselage shape and will be powered by the big, new Pratt and Whitney J-75 jet engine. Like the Voodoos, they are all-weather planes, ready to fight invading bombers at night or in any weather conditions.

Sigler Discounts Gambling Report At State Prison

ANGOLA, La., Oct. 15 — UP — Warden Maurice Sigler Saturday discounted charges of alleged gambling at the state prison as nothing more than minor side bets.

Sigler ordered an investigation after Sheriff Bryan Clemmons of East Baton Rouge parish said Friday that a card picked up in Baton Rouge had originated at the prison.

The sheriff advised Sigler the card had been found. It was picked up in a bar.

A heading on the card bore the inscription: "Red Courtney and Ben Loften, Camp E football parlay." Loften was employed two weeks ago by the prison.

Sigler said Loften admitted running a minor pool, but denied it had any connection with persons outside the prison. The warden pointed out the betting uncovered at the institution was private and limited.

He died Friday at the Crossett Health Center, where he had been a polio patient for the past six years. Funeral and burial was Saturday at Crossett. (Picture by Rhodes Studio, Crossett).

Caldwell Parish Man Is Injured In Mishap Here

A Caldwell parish man was taken to the St. Francis hospital early Saturday morning after receiving a deep cut on the forehead when his car swerved and struck a sign at the intersection of Jonesboro Road and Regan street in West Monroe.

Herschel McHenry, 23, whose address was gieven as "between Columbia and Clarks in Caldwell parish,' 'was reported last night to be "doing well." A relative said McHenry probably would be released from the hospital "very soon."

An investigating officer said the accident occurred about 1 a.m. Saturday. He said the McHenry car traveled 315 feet alongside the Trinity Baptist Church and stopped in a ditch, after stricking the sign.

Investigating officers were Lt. David Johnson and Officer Tommy Coleman, of the West Monroe police department.

McHenry is an employee of Negley Bag Company, in West Monroe.

Quick, Quick, Quicker Starting

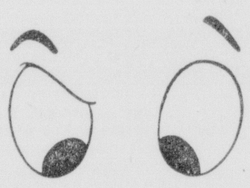
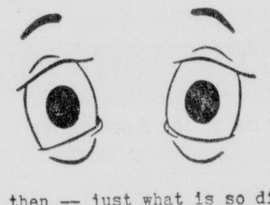
Low, Low, Lower Oil Consumption



"Brother, I'm confused! Fact is, all those claims for so-called 'new' motor oils...

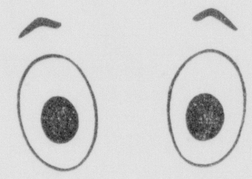
...are making me a wee bit skeptical!"

(Can't say we blame you, friend. But, we sincerely believe a few simple facts about Skelly Supreme Motor Oil just might change your viewpoint.)



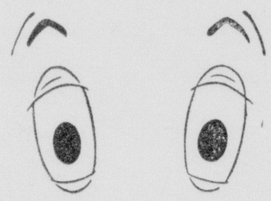
"Okay, then — just what is so different about your motor oil? What can Skelly Supreme do for me that other motor oils can't do?"

(Well, for one thing — Skelly Supreme gives your car quicker starts and faster engine warm-up in cold weather.)



"Oh? How's that possible?"

(Very simple. Skelly Research — by using a special combination of new additives — has found a way to reduce greatly the old bugaboo of "oil friction.")



"'Oil friction?' What on earth is that?"

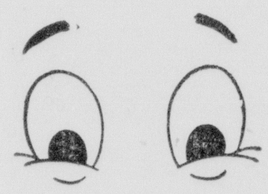
(It's oil "dragging" against oil — caused by two oil-coated engine parts rubbing together when you start your car. And like we said, Skelly Supreme Motor Oil greatly reduces "oil friction.")

"So Skelly Supreme gets my car's engine started quicker on cold days, eh?"

(You bet! On real cold days — because Skelly Supreme has instant flow, with less "oil friction," even at 40° below!)

"All right! But how about this low, low, lower oil consumption? You mean I'll use less oil if I switch to Skelly Supreme?"

(Absolutely. Skelly Supreme has the lowest rate of consumption of any motor oil you can buy. Comparison tests prove it!)

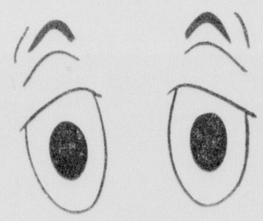


"Say, that could save me some money, couldn't it?"

(It sure can. Skelly Supreme's lower consumption rate means you'll add less oil — if any at all — between changes! And one more thing...

...Skelly Supreme Motor Oil also gives you

More, More, More Gasoline Mileage, too:



"An oil that increases gasoline mileage?"

"Golly, I've got friends that should be switching to Skelly Supreme, too!"

(Why certainly! This superior motor oil is just about the world's best reason for any motorist to drive into any Skelly Service Station today!)

5 Drowned, 28 Missing In Storm

TOKYO, Oct. 15 —UP— Five persons were drowned and 28 others were missing Saturday in the sinking of three Japanese fighting boats in a heavy storm off the northern island of Hokkaido.

Reports from the island said that more than 700 homes were inundated and some 1,700 persons left homeless by the storm which lashed the island and the surrounding seas Friday night.

Paul Martin Looks 'Em Over

The Cotton States League is holding its annual fall meeting today at Greenville, Miss., to decide its organizational setup for the 1956 season, and, despite weak-attendance clubs that kept the league in a shaky status most of the past season, there seems to be strong indications that Judge Emmett Harty's Class C circuit, with possibly some new entries, will be ready for a strong start next spring.

The Twin Cities Baseball Corporation, which operates the league's Monroe-West Monroe entry, is definitely ready to go and was the strongest link in Judge Harty's chain last season. Manager Ed Head and club directors Saul Adler and R. D. Farr Jr. will represent the Twin Cities Sports at today's meeting.

Already, the Sports are assured of a renewal of their working agreement with the New York Yankees for 1956, and only catcher Don Saatzer is left on the club roster from the recent pennant and playoff-winning Sports.

Those other lads who gave the Twin Cities what is considered their finest team are slated for new locations next spring.

Second baseman Bob Maness, outfielder Richie Windle and pitcher Mickey Madden are being sent to Birmingham of the Class A Eastern League; Ed Rippili, the classy third baseman, is joining Birmingham of the double-A Southern Association; the outfield Mantle twins, Roy and Ray, along with shortstop Rod Kanehl, outfielder Connie Gravitte, and pitcher Gerald Coleman have been recalled by Winston-Salem of the Class C Carolina League; pitchers Jim Bronstad and Ed Dick have been recalled by Denver of the triple-A American Association; pitchers Bob Shipman and Bill Dietrich and first baseman Marshall Gilbert have been recalled by Binghampton; and pitcher Bill Drummond has been recalled by Birmingham.

Meanwhile, the Sports are lining up players from the Yankee system and already have 24 athletes on Manager Head's roster for spring training. Skipper Head has revealed his current roster includes five rookies and the remainder coming up from Class D leagues.

Some back on the Sports' roster are already well known to the fans here. There's pitcher Olden Hoover, a lefthander who started the '55 season here but was optioned to Owensboro, Ky.; Dick Lindsey, the strong armed third baseman the first part of last season who was shipped to McAlester, Okla., where he was converted into a crackerjack outfielder; and lefty Pete Rogers, plagued with injuries here last spring and finishing a strong season on the mound for the Bristol, Va.-Tenn., Twins of the Appalachian League.

Northeast Trounces Western Kentucky

Indians Powell, Ground Defense Spark 21-9 Win

A hard-blocking, sharp-tackling band of Northeast State Indians, with fullback Mack Powell providing the offensive spark on touchdown jaunts of ten and 68 yards, defeated the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers last night at Brown Stadium, 21-9.

The visitors were only able to gain a net of 55 yards rushing as compared to the Tribe's 264, but most of their yardage and their lone touchdown came via the aerial route, with quarterback Carroll VanHooser on the pitching end to his favorite target, end Mike Moriarity.

Northeast's first TD came in the first period after Hilltopper tackle Ted Revac had downed a Northeast runner in the end zone for an early two-pointer. The Indians drove from their own 35 after the safety kickoff, with Aubrey Wade, Powell and Danny Hoak ripping off large chunks of yardage, to the Western Kentucky nine, from where Wade skirted end to paydirt.

In the second quarter, a 50-yard run by Wade after a 16-yarder by Hoak brought the ball to the enemy ten. Powell went off-tackle for the tally, and Wade kicked his second conversion to give the Indians a 14-2 halftime lead.

Powell broke loose for a 68-yard sideline run in the third quarter for a third touchdown, and Wade again converted.

Duke Overcomes Ohio State Lead To Win, 20 to 14

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 15 (AP)—Duke's Blue Devils spotted Ohio State a 14-point lead today, then got it back with some to spare in a late surge of power and passing to defeat the national champion Buckeyes 20-14.

A crowd of 82,254 watched the intersectional struggle, first between the two gridiron powerhouses.

It looked like an easy victory for Ohio State as substitute halfback Jim Roseboro swept end for a 44-yard touchdown in the first quarter and his All-America running mate, Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, returned a punt 38 yards in the second session. Fred Kriss converted both times for Ohio's 14-0 lead.

Right there the undefeated Dukes took charge and the Buckeyes never reached Confederate territory the rest of the way. Duke scored with only one second to play in the first half on a 5-yard pass from halfback Bob Pascal to halfback Bernie Blaney.

The Blue Devils tied it at the start of the third session, marching 43 yards in 11 plays with Pascal plunging 1 yard for the score. The Southerners clinched it with an 82-yard drive which started late in the third session and ended in the fourth with quarterback Sonny Jurgensen sneaking a yard on the 17h play for the winning touchdown.

Score by quarters:

Duke	0	7	7	6	—20
Ohio State	7	7	0	0	—14

Speedy Halfback Leads Vols to 20-0 Win Over Tiders

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 15 (AP)—Swift halfback John Majors led Tennessee to a 20-0 victory over Alabama today in a Southeastern Conference game between two once mighty teams now battling to keep out of the league cellar.

It was Alabama's seventh consecutive defeat, for a new school record, and was Tennessee's first SEC win since the opening game a year ago.

Majors pitched a fourth down pass to Roger Urbano for 9 yards and a first touchdown early in the second quarter. That toss climaxed a 33-yard march following recovery of a 'Bama fumble.

Majors also was the star in a 51-yard drive on which he scored from the 2 on the first play of the final period. Majors ran with the ball on nearly every play in the march.

Rebel, Lion Boosters Attend Same Session

The West Monroe Quarterback Club will be joined by the Dads' Club of Ouachita Parish High School at its regular meeting tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in the West Monroe gymnasium, it was announced last night.

Coach Howard Barker of the W. M. Rebs last night said the meeting will include "scout reports" on Ouachita, a film of the Rebel game with Bastrop, and visiting Coach Jim Hodgins of Ouachita and a trio of his players in addition to his supporting Dads' Club.

Michigan State Shatters Notre Dame Bubble, 21-7

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 15 (AP)—Fullback Gerry Planutis waited exactly 364 days but exacted satisfying revenge today by piling across for the winning touchdown, setting up another and kicking all three extra points as Michigan State wrecked Notre Dame's perfect record 21-7 before 52,007 roaring fans in Macklin Stadium.

A hard driving senior from Hazelton, Pa., Planutis broke up a 7-7 tie by crashing across from the 1 in the third quarter, then set up the clincher by recovering an Irish fumble deep in Notre Dame territory in the fourth quarter.

It was a pulsating team victory for Michigan State, a 7-point underdog which gave a savage hard-hitting show before a national television audience to end Notre Dame's 11-game winning streak under Coach Terry Brennan.

It was the first time Notre Dame was scored upon this season.

It was a personal victory for the blond haired Planutis, who wore the goat horns by missing two vital extra points in last season's frustrating 20-19 loss to Notre Dame. The date of that defeat was Oct. 16.

Planutis, not only scored the game's deciding touchdown midway in the third quarter today, but was the big runner in moving the ball into scoring territory. He carried four times for 38 yards—the last carry one he probably never will forget.

He dove directly into the center of the line and just made it by inches, his fourth touchdown this season from the 1.

With Notre Dame shut off in its own territory early in the fourth quarter, Planutis fell on Don Schaefer's fumble at the 16. Earl Morrall eventually went over from inches out on a quarterback sneak.

It was State's third triumph in four starts while the loss for Notre Dame followed shutout victories over Southern Methodist, Indiana and Miami.

Notre Dame	0	7	0	0	— 7
Michigan State	0	7	7	7	—21

S. M. U. Upsets Rice For 20 To 0 Victory

DALLAS, Oct. 15 (AP)—Lanky John Roach raced 72 yards for one touchdown, passed for another and piloted Southern Methodist on a 54-yard drive for a third tonight in soundly threshing Rice 20-0 in a conference football upset.

Score by quarters:

Welsh Engineers Midshipmen Over Penn State, 34-14

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa., Oct. 15 (AP) — George Welsh, a 22-year-old midshipman who calls plays with the daring of a pirate, personally engineered Navy's fourth victory of the football season today as the midshipmen crushed Penn State, 34-14.

It was all Welsh's show, although he received a lot of help from all - America end Ronnie Beagle. Welsh's passes and his cool direction of plays shattered a Penn State defense that was thought enough to contain Navy's runners and ruined a Penn State team that was the first to cross Navy's goal this season.

The cool youngster from Coaldale, Pa., set a naval academy record when he completed 15 of 20 passes for 285 yards. It wasn't his best day for completions, but no one ever had made as much yardage through the air.

Beagle was his best receiver, especially on the important plays when yards were needed, but he didn't score. Instead it was fullback Dick Guest who made two touchdowns, one of a 26 - yard screen pass play from Welsh: Chet Burchett made one on a 67 - yard pass play and the quarterback made one himself. The other went to sophomore halfback Ned Oldham.

For Penn State, Billy Kane made the season's first score against Navy — a touchdown which temporarily put the Nittany Lions ahead. Emil Caprara made the other late in the game.

Navy	6	14	7	7	—34
Penn State	7	0	0	7	—14

Penn St. scoring—Touchdowns: Oldham (4, run) ; Welsh (1, sneak) Guest 2 (26, pass - run from Welsh 1 plunge; Burchett (67, pass - run from Welsh). Conversions: Oldham, 4.

Penn State scoring — Touchdown: Kane (9, run) (Caprada 6, run) Conversions: Valentine.

Syracuse Upsets Army Eleven, 13-0

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 15 (AP) —A brilliant pitchout and forward pass despite a downpour of rain, with Don Althouse scoring on a 22-yard play, started Syracuse on a surprising 13 to 0 victory over Army today.

The aggressive underdogs clinched the victory with a steady touchdown march in the final quarter, climaxed when Jim Ridlon, who passed to Althouse in the third period for the first touchdown, scored on a sweep from the 7.

Army's big football team, smarting under last week's 26-2 defeat by Michigan, was favored to win by three touchdowns. Although Michie Stadium, which seats 27,000, was virtually sold out, only about 12,500 braved the heavy rain to see the muddy, soggy game.

Syracuse kept the play in Army's back yard all the time, but it looked as if the two might settle for a scoreless tie when, late in the third period, Pat Uebel fumbled and Charles Strid, Syracuse guard, recovered on the Cadet 23.

Terps Shell Tar Heels For 10th Straight, 25-7

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 15—UP—Versatile Eddie Vereb scored three touchdowns and passed for another Saturday to lead the scarlet scourge of Maryland to its 10th straight triumph, a 25 to 7 victory over Coach Jim Tatum's alma mater, North Carolina.

Vereb a line-bolting halfback from Pittsburgh who co - captains Tatum's Terrors, had a hand in all Maryland touchdowns but it was from a one-man show for the 30,00 dismayed Carolina partisans.

Quarterback Frank Tamburello engineered scoring marches of 75 and 90 yards and completed a 51-yard pass play to end Russ Dennis to set up another Vereb touchdown.

The tough Maryland line, led by center Bob Pellegrini and tackle Mike Sandusky, effectively smothered the Tar Heel passing and running game. Carolina's only score, the first it has achieved against a Tatum-coached Maryland team, was a freak play.

The only lapse in the Maryland defense came in the third when Tamburello, fading to pass, had the ball stolen off his fingertips by Tar Heel center Jim Jones. Jones, a sophomore from Greensboro, N. C., whirled 30 yards to score. Ken Keller converted.

Score by periods:

North Carolina	0	0	0	0	— 7

Desperation Pass Enables Maroons To Down Wildcats

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 15 (AP)—A desperation pass covering 83 yards from quarterback Bill Stanton to halfback William Earl Morgan brought Mississippi State from apparent defeat to a 20-14 football victory over Kentucky tonight.

Kentucky, trailing since the second period, had driven 64 yards in 11 plays to take a 14-13 lead with five minutes left when Stanton pitched the victory pass the first play following the kickoff.

Morgan, out on the left sideline, took the pass near midfield and outdistanced two Kentucky defenders.

Score by quarters:

Mississippi State	0	13	0	7	—20
Kentucky	7	0	0	7	—14

Mississippi State scoring: Touchdowns—A. Davis (13, run); Hollingshead (3, pass from Stanton); Morgan (83, pass-run from Stanton). Conversions—Morgan 2.

Hasseyampa Cops Hawthorne Event To Return $50.40

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 (AP)—Hasseyampa, a 4-year-old colt who had won only one of 11 starts this year, scored a smashing triumph over three powerful eastern contenders to capture the $94,050 Gold Cup race which closed the Hawthorne racing season today.

Hasseyampa, ridden by Billy Fisk, ran a strong race over the 1¼ mile route to win by a neck over Mister Black, Hasty House farm contender whose stablemate Sea O Erin placed third.

With Social Outcast finishing fourth and the two co-favorites, Traffic Judge and Jet Action, placing seventh and eighth, respectively, in a nine-horse field, Hasseyampa returned $50.40, $18.60 and $10.40.

The Hasty House entry returned $6.80 to place and $8. to show.

On a fast track, Sea O Erin set the pace most of the way with Hasseyampa running no poorer than third.

Fifth place went to Wise Margin, while Happy Go Lucky, another rack outsider, was sixth.

In taking seventh, Traffic Judge, who barely was beaten by Swaps and Nashua in feature races here this summer made a poor start and ran last until the mile mark.

Purdue Ties Iowa, 20 To 20 On Final Play Of Big 10 Tilt

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Oct. 15 — (AP)—Purdue shocked 52,137 homecoming fans today by deadlocking Iowa 20-20 in a wild and spectacular Big Ten football game with Len Dawson's 14-yard touchdown pass and his conversion on the final play of the contest.

The excited homecomers, getting ready for an uproarious celebration after Iowa had taken a 20-13 lead with slightly less than six minutes left, were stunned by Dawson's sharpshooting that carried the Boilermakers from their 22 to the tying points.

Score by quarters:

Iowa	0	13	0	7	—20
Purdue	7	0	6	7	—20

Conversions: Dawson 2.

Nashua Cops Rich Jockey Club Gold Cup By 4 Lengths

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)— The Belair stud's Nashua pulled away on the final turn today to capture the $79,950 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park by some four lengths from the Christiana stable's Thinking Cap. The Grandview stable's Mark's Puzzle finished third in the two mile race run over a sloppy track.

The victory was worth $52,850 to the 3-year-old champion, who was making this his final appearance of the season. It shot his earnings to $945,415, making Nashua the second leading money winning horse in the world. Stymie now is third with $918,485, and when Nashua returns to racing in the winter at Hialeah Park, he'll shoot for Citation, racing's only millionaire, with $1,085,760.

Nashua's victory this bleak, rainly afternoon did break a Citation record. In 1948 Citation earned $709,470 as he swept the triple crown and other rich races as a 3-year-old, but Nashua by winning this 36th Gold Cup jacked his one-year total to $752,350.

ATLANTA, Oct. 15—UP—Quarterback Howell Tubbs flashed unsuspected passing skll to lead a fourth period touchdown march when Auburn's ground attack faltered Saturday and the Plainsmen beat Georgia Tech 14-12 for the first time in 15 lean years.

It was Tech's first defeat after eight wins, stretching back to last mid-season and also Auburn's 10th straight without defeat. Kentucky tied the Plainsmen last week.

Actually, fullback Joe Childress' two extra points provided the victory margin but Auburn had to drive from behind a 12-7 deficit to win. And when Childress and his halfback sidekick, Fob James Jr., could not get going Tubbs took over.

A capacity crowd of 40,000 fans watched Tubbs connect on four passes good for 72 yards as he drove the Tigers 80 yards for the winning score.

The victory made Auburn a strong contender for its first Southeastern Conference crown.

Tubbs, a 190-pound junior from Birmingham and a questionable starter, personally scored on a one-foot sneak after his perfect 20-yard pitch to end Jimmy Phillips put Auburn on the Tech seven and Childress plunged to the one.

Auburn scored first in the battle of the unbeatens on a bruising 61-yard lead march, but Tech matched the touchdown with a 66-yard advance on its own. Auburn remained in front as quarterback Wade Mitchell missed his extra attempt, but halfback George Volkert put the Engineers ahead early in the third period when he dodged off tackle and raced 50 yards for a score.

Tubbs' passing was as dramatic as it was unexpected. Tech has one of the most feared pass defenses in Dixie, but the daring Auburn quarterback completed seven of 10 passes good for 118 yards.

Score by periods:

Georgia Tech	0	6	6	0	—12
Auburn	7	0	0	7	—14

Georgia Tech scoring — Touchdowns, Mitchell (1, plunge), Volkert (50, run).

HANDY BASS CATCH

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Ten-year-old Doug Warner, while motorboating with a neighbor at nearby Big Silver Lake, spotted a big fish, swimming laggardly. He quickly reached into the water and came up with a 4½ pound large-mouth bass. A fisherman at the lake said the bass could have been stunned earlier by a powerboat.

Al Kaline, Duke Snider Selected As Ace Players

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15 (AP)—Duke Snider of the World Champion Brooklyn Dodgers and Al Kaline, youthful outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, today were named the outstanding players in the National and American Leagues in an annual poll by the Sporting News.

The national baseball weekly reported Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies and Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees were selected as the outstanding pitchers in the two leagues.

In 1954, all four selections came from the league champions with the naming of Bobby Avila and Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians and Willie Mays and Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants.

The poll is based on votes of managers, players, umpires and correspondents of the baseball weekly.

Roberts, who turned in his sixth 20-victory season, was the only player to win by a wide margin as he rolled up 119 votes to 46 for Don Newcombe of the Dodgers. Snider, who tied a Brooklyn record with 42 homers, won over teammate Roy Campanella, 51 votes to 39.

Kaline, who paced both leagues with a .340 batting average, had only a 10-vote advantage over the Boston Red Sox' Ted Williams while Ford compiled a 51-39 margin over Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox.

FIRST VICTORY

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 15 (AP) — Stocky Frank Sarno, a marine veteran who at 25 was the oldest Washington State to its first football victory of the season today, a 9-0 decision over Idaho.

Northeast Aims For Gala Homecoming Saturday

Northeast State will celebrate its 23rd annual homecoming next Saturday afternoon when Coach Devoe Payne's Indians meet the Cowboys of McNeese State College at Brown Stadium. Game time is scheduled at 2:30 o'clock.

The football battle will highlight a full day's activities planned for students, alumni and friends of the college.

Mrs. Nelda Reppond Smothers, Monroe, who will reign as Northeast's homecoming queen, will be crowned in special pre-game ceremonies. Mrs. Smothers, junior home economics major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reppond.

H. H. Brinsmade, member of the Monroe News-Star staff and author of the column, "Jes' Ramblin,' " will place the crown on Queen Nelda's head.

The homecoming court will be escorted by members of the Indian Quarterback Club.

Mrs. Smothers, who has participated in numerous campus affairs, is an inactive member of Gamma Zeta, social sorority, and in 1953 she was signally honored in being selected as military sponsor and Sigma Alpha Chi fraternity sponsor.

Elected maid of honor was Barbara Ann Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Bradley, Monroe. Last year, Miss Bradley was a cheerleader, and she is active now in affairs of Gamma Zeta sorority.

Other members of the court are Ann McClure, Betty LaBorde, Sonya Franks and Mary Ann Pitarro. These coeds were selected by the football team to serve as attendants to Her Majesty.

Miss McClure, freshman elementary education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. McClure, Tallulah. Miss LaBorde, junior elementary education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. LaBorde, Winnsboro.

Miss Pitarro, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pitarro, Monroe, is a senior in elementary education. She holds membership in Gamma Zeta sorority and the Newman Club and is head cheerleader.

Escorting Queen Nelda to the throne in pre-game ceremnoies will be Dr. W. L. Bendel, Northeast's Quarterback Club president. Vice president, Sam Rubin, will walk with Miss Bradley, maid of honor.

Maids and their escorts are Miss Pitarro and Jerry Sugar; Miss McClure and Curtis Nichols; Miss Franks and Tony Renfro; and Miss LaBorde and Mose Loftin.

Gators Take 1st Win Over Tigers In Long Rivalry

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Oct. 15 (AP)—Florida's long - distance touchdown specialists, Jackie Simpson and Jim Rountree, went 62 and 60 yards for a pair today and the Gators fought off a late Louisiana State rally for an 18-14 Southeastern Conference football victory.

It was the first time in history Florida beat LSU.

Simpson thrilled the 30,000 fans with a 62-yard punt runback in the third quarter that looked like more frosting on the cake since it put Florida ahead 18-0.

But that wasn't reckoning with LSU's comeback in the final 15 minutes.

For three quarters the Tigers had moved the ball freely until the goal was in sight but the attack blunted. Vince Gonzalez Gonzalez changed the picture with a four-yard scoring march, and within two minutes Paul Ziegler, a guard, scooted 55 yards with a blocked punt for another.

Florida took charge in the final nine minutes to protect its 18-14 lead and score its second SEC victory against two defeats. For LSU it was the second conference defeat against one victory.

Richard Allen, Florida's junior quarterback, had another in-and-out day. He tossed a 12-yard touchdown pass to Don Chandler; but it was his kick that was blocked for the second LSU touchdown, and he missed two conversion attempts.

Durwood Graham booted both LSU conversions.

But the supposedly strong LSU passing attack failed in the clutch. While running up 294 yards on the ground, 112 by Gonzalez and 102 by Ferguson, the Tigers got only 36 in the air. M. C. Reynolds, soph quarterback who has been going great for four weeks, connected on only three of ten tosses and Matt Burns had two intercepted without a completion.

Florida's defense had a busy day. It blocked LSU once just a foot short of the goal and stopped the Tigers six other times after they drove into the Gators' territory.

Rountree ran 60 yards for his touchdown on the first play after he entered the game late in the opening quarter. He carried the ball only one other time — for five yards. Simpson led Florida's attack with 73 yards in six runs, improving his average of 9.8.

Mangum, Love In Finals Of Louisiana Golf Event

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 15 (AP)—Sammy Love and Jim Mangum, both of Shreveport, today won their way into the finals of the Louisiana State Amateur Golf Tournament.

The 36-hole finals will be played tomorrow at the Lake Charles Country Club.

Love eliminated three opponents during the day, including seven-time champion Jimmy McGonagill, also of Shreveport. His first task was to get into the quarterfinals by beating Jack Herbert of Opelousas, 1 up on the 25th. Their Friday match was halted by darkness after 21 holes.

Love defeated R. E. Jones of Bogalusa, 3 and 2 in the quarterfinals and then beat McGonagill 2 and 1 in the semifinals.

Meanwhile, Mangum, a member of the Louisiana State University golf team, beat Clyde Nash of Monroe 3 and 2 in the quarterfinals and eliminated Oran Whittengton of Shreveport 1 up on the 19th in the semifinals.

Quarterfinal results:

Sammy Love, Shreveport, beat R. E. Jones, Bogalusa, 3 and 2.

Semifinal results:

Love beat McGonagill, 2 and 1.

Nasrina Scores Victory In Rich Gardenia Event

CAMDEN, N.J., Oct. 15 (AP) — Howell E. Jackson's Nasrina drove up from the three-quarter pole today to snare the $130,300 Gardenia Stakes at Garden State Park, beating favored Cosmah, with Willie Hartack up, by two and a half lengths.

The winner paid $9, $3.60 and $3.20, with $3 and $2.80 going to the backers of Cosmah, and Manihiki paying $7.20 for show. Will Boland was the pay off jockey. The nation's leading rider, Willie Hartack, rode Cosmah. The net value to the winning owner was $87,575.

Razorbacks Hand Longhorns Upset To Tune Of 27-20

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 15 (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks used a smooth, tricky ground game to build up a big lead and then held off a late Texas passing assault to upset the Longhorns 27-20 before a capacity crowd of 36,000 here today.

Led by fullbacks Gerald Nesbitt and Henry Moore, Arksansas, controlled the ball most of the game and produced three long scoring drives. Another score was set up on a pass interception by Nesbitt.

Arkansas ran up 203 yards—all by rushing—in the first half to gain a 21-6 lead at the rest period.

A long run figured heavily in each of the three Arkansas drives. Moore and Nesbitt each made 47-yard sprints and halfback Preston Carpenter got away on a 35-yard dash.

Halfback Ronnie Underwood scored two touchdowns on runs of three and 14 yards on tricky pitchout plays. Quarterbacks George Walker and Don Christian each got a touchdown on sneaks into the line.

Texas	0	6	0	14	—20
Arkansas	14	7	6	0	—27

Texas scoring: Touchdowns — Clements (4, run), Simcik (6, pass from Brewer), Kelly (16, pass from Brewer); Conversions — Youngblood 2.

Baylor Surprises Coast's Leaders With 13-7 Defeat

SEATTLE, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Bears of Baylor sifted like flickering phantoms through Washington's previously airtight defense today and whipped the Pacific Coast Conference leaders 13-7 in their intersectional football clash.

Outweighed 10 pounds per man, the Bears relied on brilliant deception and lightning fast backs to chew out two long touchdown thrusts.

Washington counted first and looked so strong in its 43-yard drive to the tally that the crowd of 42,000 thought the Huskies were on their way to an easy decision.

The icebreaker came in the second period after Baylor had checked one Washington challenge inches from the goalline when end Tony DeGrazier captured a Washington fumble.

Washington	0	7	0	0	— 7

Oklahoma Landslide Hits Kansas In 44-6 Decision

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 15—UP—Oklahoma hesitated long enough for 42,000 spectators to get settled comfortably Saturday before gobbling up Kansas, 44-6, for its 23rd straight victory.

Practically every player on the Oklahoma bench joined in the touchdown feast which started shortly after Kansas had gained a six-point edge in the first four minutes. Fifty-one Oklahomans saw action.

The menu for the hungry Sooners included scoring bites by six different players.

The result was squarely in line with pre-season predictions that Oklahoma, now rated third in the nation, will chew up all Big Seven competition for the eighth straight season. This was Oklahoma's 48th consecutive conference game without defeat.

Oklahoma's two first teams worked unsteadily during much of the first half, earning an 18-6 halftime advantage in spite of five fumbles which three times lost them the ball.

Halfback Tom McDonald scampered to two touchdowns, his first coming from the nine-yard line only three minutes after the Kansas scoring appetizer. Kansas fullback Dick Reich tallied from seven yards out to cap a Kansas drive from the first kickoff.

McDonald's second touchdown—and 11th of the season—resulted from a 46-yard streak the first time Oklahoma got the ball in the second half.

Other scorers for Oklahoma were halfbacks Carl Dodd, Clendon Thomas and Robert Derrick, quarterback Jim Harris, and fullback Dennis Morris. Third string quarterback Bill Sturm kicked one of Oklahoma's two extra points, and Harris kicked the other.

Score by periods:

Oklahoma	12	6	19	7	—44
Kansas	6	0	0	0	— 6

Oklahoma scoring — Touchdowns, McDonald (9, run) 46, run Dodd 4, run); Harris (1, plunge); Morris 19, (pass interception); Thomas (3, plunge); Derrick (36, pass from Sturm). Conversions — Harris, Sturm.

Kansas scoring — Touchdowns, Reich (7, run).

Title-Starved Texas Ags Overpower Frogs, 19-16

FORT WORTH, Oct. 15 (AP)—The lean and title-hungry Texas Aggies smashed powerful Texas Christian 19-16 in a major upset in the Southwest conference today.

The giant busters ripped the mighty Texas Christian line to shreds and soundly beat the seventh-ranked team in the nation. The Aggies were ranked 19th in last week's Associated Press poll.

But it took a junior in the almost all-sophomore A&M team to whip the Horned Frogs. He was Don Watson, junior half back, who scored two of the Aggie touchdowns and shredded the TCU defenses all afternoon.

Watson took a 20-yard pass from Jimmy Wright in the end zone in the second quarter to put the Aggies ahead. In the final period, he staged the run that brought the crowd to its feet screaming as he raced 51 yards to another touchdown.

In the third period, Bill Dendy, sophomore halfback, raced 21 yards for the other Aggie score. The Aggies' Lloyd Taylor converted after Watson's last score.

The Horned Frogs, behind 6-3 at the half, looked like they might push the Aggies off the field—but only for a quarter. They scored twice and converted once in this third period.

Charles Curtis, TCU halfback, pitched 7 yards to Bryan Engram, for a touchdown in that third period, then James Swink, the elusive halfback, appeared out of nowhere in a jam of players to race 6 yards for the other score. Swink converted.

Texas Christian looked like it might have found another soft touch as the game opened. It drove easily downfield, but the Aggies held on the 16 and Harold Pollard kicked a field goal to draw first blood.

Amazing part of the game was the way the fired-up Aggie linemen tore the TCU line apart. Before this game, it had been touted as possibly "the greatest line" in TCU history.

The Aggies haven't won a Southwest Conference title in 15 years, and no one expected them to win four straight games this year. Besides Texas Christian, they have defeated Louisiana State, University of Houston and Nebraska. Texas Christian had won four straight and looked like it couldn't be stopped.

The Aggies lost their first game—to powerful UCLA 21-0, but even the West Coast team couldn't win over the A&M sophs.

Texas A—M	0	6	6	7	—19
TCU	3	0	13	0	—16

Texas A&M scoring—Touchdowns: Watson 2 (20, pass from Wright; 51, run); Dendy (21, run). Conversion: Taylor.

Sub Back Steers Ole Miss Past Tulane

Carroll Battles From Behind To Trounce Merrill

The once defeated Carroll High Bulldogs, still a leading contender for the northeast Louisiana district championship, handed Merrill High of Pine Bluff, Ark., its first defeat of the season Friday night, 18 - 7.

Aided by the return to action of ace fullback Willie Robinson, with his timely blocks and smashing drives, who laid the groundwork for Carroll's first touchdown, quarterback Floyd Gray went over for the first Bulldog score and a 6-0 lead at the half.

Merrill charged back to send Percy Woods to paydirt and a good conversion gave the Pine Bluff club a 7-6 edge, but Carroll gathered steam in the last quarter to match the victory.

Navy has beaten William and Mary 18 times in 21 games of football. The Indians won two and played a tie with the Middies whom they last defeated in 1942 by 3-0.

Blalack Ramrods Rebels' 27 to 13 Conquest Of Wave

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15 (AP) — Substitute quarterback John Blalack looped two long touchdown passes over a sleeping Tulane defense today, then scored on an 11-yard run in leading Mississippi to a 27-13 Southeastern Conference victory.

After Tulane scored late in the first period Blalack took charge and injected new life into a stumbling Mississippi offense. It took him only 10 minutes of playing time to put his team out front for good.

Three minutes after Tulane scored, he threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to end Buddy Harbin, who was 15 yards behind the nearest Tulane defender.

With less than seven minutes gone in the second period, Blalack tossed a pass 43 yards to halfback Billy Lott, and Mississippi was in command the rest of the way.

Blalack killed the last Tulane hopes in the third quarter when he reeled off his 11-yard touchdown run through a ragged hole in the Tulane line.

Tulane scored its last touchdown midway in the final period on an explosive 20-yard run by fullback Paige Cothren, who converted after the final three Mississippi scores.

Tulane scored in the first and final periods. Halfback Otis Gilmor dashed 25 yards for the first touchdown and with less than two minutes to play, sub quarterback John Caruso sneaked one foot for the second, which he set up with a pass play to halfback Willie Hof covering 76 yards.

Blalack's fine defensive play cut off two possible Tulane touchdowns —both early enough to have put the Greenies back in the game.

Shortly after halftime, he intercepted a pass by Tulane quarterback Gene Newton on the Mississippi 16. The next save came after Tulane had pushed to the Mississippi 12. Blalack intercepted another Newton pass on the five and returned it to the 18.

Blalack took over for starter Eagle Day in the first period after Mississippi had failed to make a first down on two series of plays.

Trailing 7-0, Mississippi responded to Blalack's deft signal calling and marched to its first touchdown on an 84-yard drive in seven plays.

Day and Blalack alternated in the second drive, which covered nine plays and 64 yards, but it was Blalack's long pass that did the damage.

A punt by Tulane's Ronny Quillian, partially blocked by guard Buddy Alliston, was caught by Mississippi center Gene Dubuisson on the Tulane 43 to set up the third Mississippi touchdown.

A 15-yard run by halfback Earl Blair wsa the biggest gain of the drive.

Blalack had a fourth period touchdown pass of 21 yards to end Don Williams wiped out by a 15-yard holding penalty.

Gilmore led Tulane on the ground with 57 yards in eight plays, while Quillian had 40 on 12.

Newton completed three of nine passes for 28 yards, and Caruso one of two for 76.

Double-Main Wrestling Program Tuesday Night

A double-main event wrestling program is slated for Tuesday night at Gus Kallio's Arena, when Charley Laye and Johnny Silvers fight a return match in one half; and George Curtis goes against newcomer Piere Dugas in the other.

Both matches will require the best-of-three falls to win, and both are 75-minute time limit bouts. The program will be refereed by Bill Barney, West Monroe garage operator.

Silvers won by disqualification over Laye in last Tuesday's feature. With the former earning the crowd's displeasure by his frequent hair-pulling and fouling, the two mad men went into the deciding heat tied at one fall apiece. Silvers kicked the prone Laye out of the ring, and slugged him back to the floor each time he attempted to reenter. Charley, finally tired of this treatment, on top of the previous illegal tactics, and hauled a chair into the ring, smashing Silvers to the canvas. Referee Baby Blimp, instead of disqualifying Silvers for refusing to let Laye come into the ring, awarded the verdict to Silvers, disqualifying Laye for the chair procedure.

Dugas, a Canadian import, is 26 years of age, and is touted to be strong and aggressive. A veteran of many years of experience in the wrestling ring, he should give Curtis a rugged battle all the way. Nothing is known of his style, or pet holds, but it is a cinch that anytime he goes against a Curtis, the fans will be against him.

Plan Basketball Officials Meeting Here Wednesday

A meeting of prospective basketball officials for this section of the state has been called by the Northeast Louisiana Basketball Officials Association for Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at Brown Hall on the campus of Northeast Louisiana State College here.

All men who have been officiating high school games in the past and expect to continue doing so, as well as any prospective new officials, must be registered in the Louisiana High School Basketball Officials Association in order to be eligible to work high school tournaments this season, it was announced yesterday.

The district officials association is being organized to meet the requirements of the Louisiana High School Athletic Association. Member officials will be charged a fee of $2 which will cover expenses of rule books, case books, and officials patches.

David McKenzie, a district official, has been assured by T. H. "Muddy" Waters, commissioner of high school athletics, that as soon as a sufficient number of district officials have been assured that an officials clinic will be conducted here before the basketball season gets into full swing.

Prospective officials, who may desire more information proposed Wednesday meeting, are invited to contact McKenzie at Lockhart Sports Shop here.

LEXINGTON
QUALITY PLUS! A wonderful northside location and it boasts unbeatable features . . . so many that it's impossible to list them all here. For instance, it's on a 100x171 corner lot and among the 2,500 square feet of living area of this buff brick (6 months old) home you'll find features such as these: the 14x21 living room has a most attractive fireplace; separate dining room; a "magazine" 12x24 kitchen; three wonderfully big bedrooms (2 bedrooms have 3 double sliding door closets, and the other has 2 double sliding door closets); a 14x18 pine paneled den; double carport; central heating, and 5 tons of air conditioning; expensive wall-to-wall carpeting throughout; drapes; patio — and more and more. By appointment only, please!

COLLEGE
IF THIS house could talk — here's about what it would say! "Buy me, because I've got features galore! Fer' instance—I've got a nice size living room (cork tile floor); a nice big den; 2 bedrooms with double sliding door closets; a carport; utility room, and a 36" attic fan and wall heater! I'm not too hard to buy —why not call now and find out more about me! It only takes $1,500 (FHA) plus closing costs to buy me."

LAKESHORE
(On The Bayou)
DOWNRIGHT deelightful!! Boy, you can say that again, because — first of all it's on a beautiful bayou lot (and who doesn't like bayou livin'!) This red brick home (1,704 sq. ft. of living area) is only a year old; has a large kitchen; three bedrooms (one has red wall-to-wall carpeting and one is pine paneled); a 11x13 enclosed porch (could easily be fourth bedroom or den or playroom); living room with fireplace and dining area; carport with storage; 42" attic fan and central heating. Now, there are many other features not listed here — please call for more info!

SOUTH 5TH
SPLENDID buy for a working guy! This 'un's moderately priced, $8,473.00 and loan can easily be assumed! This gray asbestos siding home has a living room; separate dining room (could easily be used for den); 2 nice size bedrooms with good sized closets; nice bath; hardwood floors; attic fan and floor furnace. Can be assumed for $1,500 and monthly payments of $58! Full details on request.

RICHMOND
F'R INSTANCE let's consider the fact that it has a 10x28 pine paneled den! Then the fact that it's on a 126x150 lot (wonderful yard with trees), it's got two bedrooms (one is 16x21 with 2 double sliding door closets) and an enclosed garage. And then, there's an attic fan, two floor furnaces and it's close to school. By the way, there's a barbecue pit in the back yard. It's selling for $11,900—in case you'd like to consider! Down payment FHA is $1,850 (including everything) and a 10 per cent down G.I. loan, too!!

EDGEWATER
(On The Bayou)
HERE'S A real family home—it's really spacious (1,500 sq. ft. living area and 552 sq. ft. of screened porch). Mother'll like the spacious rooms — there's the 15x28 living room; 15x18 kitchen (and it has a dishwasher); three nice size bedrooms; and there's the double carport. Nice hardwood floors; floor furnace and there are 3 ceiling fans. It's vacant and for your information, we've the key!

GRANT
FIRST TIME on the market — and only $925 (including closing costs) buys this two bedroom home located on a 60x200 lot (and just ½ block from the bayou)!! Nice size living room (air conditioner in wall goes with the house); separate dining room; good closet space; central heating; and asphalt tile floors. Will show at your convenience.

McGUIRE
HERE'S A rent beater!! Pay only $850 down (including everything) and approximately $47.35 a month and move right in (it's vacant) this two bedroom home. Conveniently located in the college area . . . and it's got: 11x15 living room; well-arranged kitchen; hardwood floors; floor furnace and pecan tree in the back yard. Call now and we'll show you!

HARRISON
IT'S JUST been painted on the outside—and it's as neat as a pin on the inside! It's located on a 75x150 lot (in the college area) and boasts the following features: separate dining room; enclosed garage; two nice size bedrooms; kitchen with formica cabinet top and washer plumbing; nice hardwood floors; floor furnace; only 2 blocks to Sherrouse Grammar. $1,050 plus closing costs (FHA) turns the key — and it's vacant.

SOUTH 5TH
QUIT worrying! You can look out the window of this home and watch your children go to school! It's right across from the new Plum St. School — and it's so easy to buy! Pay $1,568 down and assume monthly payments of only $43.76 and you've bought yourself a nice 2 bedroom home (with an extra nice yard and fenced in back yard). It's also got: floor furnace; hardwood floors and it's just 3 years old! Call now!

SOUTH 3RD
EASY AS pie to buy! GI's — only $450 (including EVERYTHING) buys this neat 2 bedroom home! And it'll FHA, too, and only $850 (including EVERYTHING) down buys it! It's got a nice kitchen, carport, hardwood floors, attic fan and it's just been painted on the inside. A wonderful yard (with barbecue pit in back) and all of the above can be yours (it's vacant) by calling us!

AVANT
AN ACRE? Is that what you're looking for? And a two bedroom home with nice sized living room, kitchen (most attractive); enclosed garage? Yes, it has hardwood floors; attic fan and two wall furnaces—and, it's outside the city limits of West Monroe. If this is it—how about letting us know! Down payment only $1,500 plus closing costs!

WHAT MORE could you want? Here's a most attractive home (with a yard literally covered with huge camellia bushes, azaleas, etc.) that has just been remodeled on the inside! 13x17 living room (and drapes); separate dining room; 2 big bedrooms; front screened porch; attic fan and central heating; and Mrs. Housewife, wait'll you see the pine paneled kitchen (11x20) . . . it's loaded with cabinets, huge pantry, formica cabinet top and bar, washer plumbing . . . and all the other features you want in a kitchen! We have an FHA loan of $9,150 that can easily be handled! By the way, it's selling for $10,750. Call for an appointment.
PARKWOOD
CUSTOM BUILT! Right down to the most minute detail! We can't begin to tell you everything about this home, and the following is only an attempt! First of all, it's buff brick and only a year old—the living room is 13x28 (with a wall divider to enclose a den); 2 bedrooms with big double sliding door closets; all tile bath (green fixtures, dressing table); 11x11 screened breezeway, there's a double garage (with overhead door and 2 storerooms); select oak narrow strips floors; attic fan and central heating; draw drapes go with house. So many, many more features—and it's selling for the VA appraised value of $15,850.00!!
CEDAR
WHY WAIT . . . get settled in a home of your own! And, here's one you'll be extremely proud of! Why? Because it's one of the most attractive homes in West Monroe with one of the most attractive yards (back yard is fenced in). The living room and 2 bedrooms and hall are carpeted; a well arranged kitchen with "butler's pantry"; and wait'll you see the 13x17 den with divider (and breakfast room, too); carport with storage; attic fan and central heating. We'd sure like to show you this home today and show you the other many features. It's selling for less than appraised value, too! And, just in case you'd like to know, $2,600 is all it takes (no more).
BELMONT
WHY LIVE IN a busy hot city? Especially when you have a yen to get away from it all! Here's real livin' in this buff brick home that's practically brand new, for it has three big bedrooms; a pine paneled den; tile bath; 12x28 kitchen that'll charm Mom; and, of course an attic fan and central heating. The 100x250 lot is covered with trees — we'd be glad to show when you're ready!
HINKLE
IF YOU'RE one of the many looking for a home on the northside of West Monroe near the new high school and Millsaps—here it is! And, it's only $8,950 with the following features: living room with dining area (shelves and cabinets); kitchen; 2 bedrooms; carport with storeroom; asphalt tile floors; attic fan; panel ray heating and an awfully nice yard. $650 plus closing costs is all it takes. We happen to have the key!
HAMILTON
IT'S ON A corner lot, it's only $8,500.00 and here's a little more about it: There's a 12x14 living room; separate dining room; kitchen with washer plumbing, broom closet, etc.; enclosed garage with overhead door; hardwood floors; attic fan; floor furnace and it's close to school! It only takes $925 (including everything) to buy it. We'd be glad to discuss this home further — why not call now.
JERSEY
The owner's being transferred and has to leave this three bedroom home in Sunshine Heights! It's on a 100x207 lot and only 3 years old and if you're still interested, here's some idea of what it has: one bedroom is pine paneled (could be den); living room with 8x9 dining area; gleaming hardwood floors; wood walls with wallpaper; automatic shutter fan and floor furnace. $1,650 plus closing costs on an FHA loan—call us now for an appointment.
LEE AVE.
IF YOU demand a "lot for your money"—you'd better look at this one today! It's selling for $9,989.00—and it has three big bedrooms (one has cedar closet); living room; separate dining room; 10x13 kitchen; 9x28 front screened porch; 8½-x14 breakfast room; 8x28 enclosed back porch and single detached garage; hardwood floors; attic fan and it's only 1½ blocks to school! Down payment? Just $1,539 (plus closing costs). Got an hour to spare?
SOUTH 2ND
THE APPRAISAL on this is $9,500 but, . . . but, it's selling for $8,600!! Here's a little info about it: 13x17 living room; separate dining room; nice kitchen; 2 big bedrooms; breakfast room; front screened porch; detached garage; attic fan and floor furnace; and . . . it's got a fenced in back yard with trees! Just $1,225 (including "all") will handle it. We've got the key in case you're interested!
BELMONT
YOU'LL SAY "yes" to that impulse to get yourself a home outside of the city limits when you see this buff brick (3 months) home crammed full of wonderful livable features such as: big living room with wall-to-wall carpeting and false fireplace; the kitchen boasts a built-in oven and range; three bedrooms 2 bathrooms (complete) and 12x14 pine paneled den. There's also . . . double enclosed garage; attic fan and central heating. The lot (1½ acres) is covered with trees. Will gladly show.
SOUTH 8TH

Health Officials Urging Nation To Support Salk Vaccinations In Winter

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 —UP— Government health officials warned Saturday against any slowdown in polio vaccinations during the late fall and winter months.

They expressed concern that vaccinations may drop off now that the pollo season is waning, only to be followed by a big rush for vaccine next spring when a new season starts.

If that happens, they said, some of the precious vaccine now becoming available may be wasted. The Salk shots can be stored for only six months after they are produced.

One official said there already are signs that use of the vaccine is not keeping pace with production.

This concern prompted Health, Education, and Welfare Secretary Marion B. Folsom to urge parents, doctors, local health officials and druggists to cooperate in getting eligible children vaccinated "as rapidly as supplies become available."

"We should not wait until the poliomyelitis season is imminent and try to crowd too many vaccinations into too short a time," he said.

Folsom made his plea for prompt vaccinations in announcing broader age priorities on vaccine supplies. States now can set their own priorities for children up to 15 years old and also make vaccine available for pregnant women.

However, Folsom recommended that the states add no more than five additional years at present to the previous five through nine years priority group.

The government now has released enough of the Salk vaccine to give two injections each to about 12 million children. By the end of this year, it expects to clear enough vaccine for another 4 million shots.

So far more than 7 million children have received inoculations.

A spokesman for Folsom's department said there is "no reason to delay" vaccinations. Children inoculated this fall and winter will have protection when the polio season starts in the spring, he said.

LSU Frog Study May Aid Survival After Accidents

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 15 (AP) — A man with his leg crushed in an accident may benefit from study by Louisiana State researchers on the blood vessels and kidneys of the spotted "leopard" frog.

Kidney sufferers, excessive worriers and many others also may be helped by the research directed by Dr. Henry J. Werner, LSU associate professor of zoology.

He has studied the effects of drugs and poisons on the blood systems of more than 1,200 frogs in the last three years by means of a new X-ray diffraction unit. His research is aided by a U.S. national health institution grant.

Dr. Werner seeks to establish a technique to record the effect of drugs on the vascular system.

They will know more about unexplained reactions known to doctors as the "crush syndrome," which takes place in a man's body after a leg or arm has been crushed in an accident.

Blood flows faster, and for some reason, blood supply to the victim's good leg may also be hindered. Kidney failures often follow, sometimes resulting in death in a few days.

Micro-angiography, the technical name for Dr. Werner's studies, may also answer why the amount of sugar in human blood increases when a man is worried, frightened or anxious.

But the LSU team counts on research with lower animals, such as the frogs, tp provide basic information on the blood system.

In the LSU laboratory, a frog is injected with a test solution, then given a shot of a radio-opague substance so he can be X-ray photographed.

X-ray pictures are taken as the drug takes effect.

If the X-rays show clearly the action of the drug, Dr. Werner quickly removes the frog's kidney and freezes it to preserve it for closer observation.

He enlarges his final photographs 500 to 1,000 times and compares the effect of the drug on each tiny artery and vein of the frog's kidney, a tedious, difficult job.

"Our aim," says Dr. Werner, "is to develop a fool-proof method of producing X-ray photographs at microscopic levels which will invariably demonstrate the effects of a particular drug."

He said many experiments have shown the same effects but "we still get variations."

Silage juices leaking out of silos can reduce food values of the fodder by 10 per cent.

Mrs. Zeke E. Tettleton was before her marriage Saturday, October 8, Miss Betty Jo Giles. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bass of Farmerville. Her marriage to Mr. Tettleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Tettleton, also of Farmerville, was solemnized in the First Baptist Church of that city.

Above—Among the newcomers to Monroe in July were Mrs. J. Ralph Simpson and daughter, Carol Jo, who joined Dr. Simpson. They purchased a new home at 3804 Spurgeon Drive, following their move from Rochester, Minn. Mrs. Simpson is originally from New Orleans and Dr. Simpson is a native of Bastrop.

Left—Mrs. Lawson Loniel Myrick's wedding was an outstanding event of Sunday, October 9, at the First Baptist Church of this city. She is the former Miss Rosemary Colligan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vores Joseph Colligan.

Below—Mrs. Bill West and her young daughter, Sydney, who became residents of this city in early summer are shown in their attractive new home at 2123 Valencia. Before moving to Monroe, the Wests were stationed in Germany, during which time Dr. West served with the army.

Fall Festival Theme For Garden Club

The October meeting of the Monroe Garden Club, appropriately called fall festival, was held at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club and featured beautiful and exotic arrangements using dried materials and fall flowers made by Mrs. Fred Amman, Mrs. Corbin Turpin, Mrs. John Mullens, Mrs. D. V. Loflin, Jr., Mrs. H. B. Hargrove, Mrs. H. C. Menuet, Mrs. Richard Kellogg and Mrs. Darwin Nichols.

Mrs. H. B. Hargrove, president, presented the guest speaker, Mrs. U. B. Evans, past president of Louisiana Garden Clubs, who lectured on "Bulbs—Old and New," illustrated by colored slides of these flowers growing in the beautiful setting of her home, Haphazard Plantation, in Ferriday. Mrs. Evans gave a most interesting and informative talk on the planting and care of bulbs and showed how this plant could be used for almost continuous bloom.

The tea table featured a pale green ceramic cornucopia overflowing with red apples and pine.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. H. K. Touchstone Jr., Mrs. Durwod Griffin, Mrs. Delmas Jackson, Mrs. Pete Godwin, Mrs. Norman Jardine, Mrs. Vincent Marsala, Mrs. Paul Neal and Mrs Robert Wood.

HEALTHY WORKER

The Junior Charity League Meet For October Luncheon

The October luncheon meeting of the Junior Charity League was held at a local restaurant with Mrs. H. B. Hargrove, president, presiding. Mrs. Jamar Adcock and Mrs. J. V. Gates were in charge of the flower arrangements.

Reports from board members were given, including a report by Mrs. Joe Dixon on the number of service hours each member had fulfilled. Mrs. Hargrove asked members to aid in the annual clothes drive.

Mrs. J. B. Thornhill, life member of the league, was welcomed by the president. Mrs. Thornhill gave an informative talk on the local mental guidance center. Mrs. W. T. Allen reported on the silver tea to be given by the league at an early date.

Members attending were Mrs. H. B. Hargrove, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. Joe Dixon, Mrs. Paul Ransom, Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mrs. Ben Marshall, Mrs. Allen C. Jones, Mrs. John Savage, Mrs. Fred Huenefeld, Jr., Miss Sara Terzia, Mrs. Edmund Brown, Mrs. Harry Frazer, Jr., Mrs .Tom Fortenberry.

And Mrs. William Durrett, Mrs. James Larkin, Mrs. Larry Fox, Mrs. Fred Westrom, Mrs. Rabun P. Smith, Mrs. W. T. Allen, Mrs. Grant Boardman, Mrs. Bruce Gregg, Mrs. M. S. Dixon, Jr., Mrs. Jamar Adcock, Mrs. Armand McHenry, Jr., Mrs. J. Mullens, Mrs. Doyle Hamilton, Mrs. Bill Riley, Mrs. Tommy Sandridge, Mrs. Pascal Norris, Mrs. Benton Wakefield, Mrs. Theo Terzia, Mrs. George Wright, Jr., Mrs. Jack Ratcliff, Mrs. L. A. Fluesmeier, Mrs. E. Mitchell, Mrs. Jack Neal, Mrs. Robert Easterling, Mrs. Roy Meek, Mrs. D. V. Loflin, Mrs. John Allin and Mrs. Charles Amman.

Supper Party Honors Husbands

Dr. and Mrs. James D. Kelly recently entertained the Monroe Literary Club with a supper party in honor of the husbands of the members. This was held in the Kelly's "Playhouse" on the banks of Bayou DeSiard. The Halloween color scheme was used in the table settings and favors in a most attractive manner.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the Kellys on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Womack, Mrs. Jack Howard, Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Boaz, Mrs. J. E. Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Kite, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Van Odom, Mrs. A. B. Colmer, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Guy DuPriest, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvian Masur and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koch.

Lady Sign Painters Know Their Scaffolds

DETROIT — A couple of Detroit women with a talent for brushwork have invaded a field thought to be the exclusive domain of men.

Miss Mildred Matyn, 49, and Miss Jerry Chapman, 40, are in constant demand for their work as outdoor signpainters. Both are as much at home on a swingstage, wielding heavy brushes, as their male counterparts.

Miss Maytn the artistic type, likes to listen to music, read books and paint portraits. But she discovered some time ago that there's money in outdoor sign painting.

MISS ELEANOR EIKEL, of New Orleans, will become the bride of Lucius Graham Hughes, Jr., in a ceremony to be performed here on Nov. 12. She is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Gaston Eikel, former Monroe residents. Two parties were given in her honor yesterday.

Miss Eikel, Bride-Elect Is Feted During Monroe Visit

Yesterday, she was the inspiration of a beautiful fall tea given in the Glenmar home of Mrs. William Thomas Davis with Mrs. Kennedy Abington, Mrs. William Edmund Leigh and Mrs. T. Fitzhugh Wilson, hostesses.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Leigh and Mrs. Abington. The commode in the entrance hall held a silver bowl filled with white Fugi chrysanthemums. Receiving in the living room with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Wilson was the honoree, who wore a hunters green frock of peau de soie, featuring a rounded neckline trimmed with loops of material, run with matching ribbons.

Arrangements of polished magnolia leaves and fall roses were used in decorating.

Welcoming the guests in the den, made bright with fall flowers and fruit, were Mrs. Thomas Leigh, Mrs. Charles Garretson and Mrs. Warren Taylor.

Mrs. George M. Snellings, Jr., invited the guests to the dining room. An epergne of silver, filled with tuberoses and gardenias, and white candles burning in silver holders, were used on the buffet. The bride's table was covered with standards of tuberoses and white rosebuds, and softly lighted by candlelight. A miniature bride and groom stood in front of the altar.

Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Nelson Abell, Jr., Mrs. George W. Trousdale, Miss Genevra Washburn and Mrs. Dorothy Hornbeak. Others assisting were Mrs. Clifton Flinn, Mrs. Gene Demmary, Mrs. H. G. McDonald and Miss Marjorie Leigh of Ruston.

Luncheon

At noon the same day, Miss Genevra Washburn and Mrs. Dorothy Hornbeak entertained at luncheon in the Washburn home on Pine street. The luncheon table was covered with a white cloth and centered with all white flowers.

Attending with Miss Eikel, her mother, Mrs. Gaston Eikel and Mrs. Lucius Hughes were, Mrs. Nelson Abell, Mrs. Clifton Flinn, Mrs. H. M. Butler, Miss Lela Bess Kite, Miss Jo Marie Ellett and Mrs. D. W. Rhodes.

Country Club To Be Scene Of Dance

CROSSETT — Friday evening, October 28, the regular monthly meeting time of the Friday Night Dance Club, will also mark the opening of the new facilities at the Prairie Country Club.

The dance will be a semi-formal affair and will be sponsored by Friday Night Dance Club members, Mr. and Mrs. James Town and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Copeland. All Hamburg and Crossett members of the club are urged to attend to see the new lounge room at the club as well as other new facilities.

For the past few months the Prairie Country Club has been undergoing a remodeling program under the direction of the club's board of directors. Mr. W. C. McMinn of the McMinn Construction Company has served as contractor for the new facilities.

Purely Personal

Dr. and Mrs. N. G. Gaston left earlier in the week for San Francisco, Calif., visiting friends in St. Louis and Denver en route. They were joined by Dr. and Mrs. Claude Earnest where they will attend the American Dental Assoc. meeting there this week. Following the convention Dr. and Mrs. Earnest will visit in Seattle and Chicago before returning to Monroe.

Miss Carey Stewart, of Vicksburg and her fiance, Harry Swanson, of Keesler Field, are guests today of Mrs. A. L. Harrington on Riverside. Mrs. Harrington is entertaining at luncheon today in their honor. Jack McLean of Shreveport is also a guest of Mrs. Harrington's for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Turner have as their guest this week end, Mr. Turner's sister, Mrs. Cecilia Settle, of Oklahoma City, Okla. The Turners have invited friends in this afternoon to meet Mrs. Settle.

Mrs. H. G. McDonald returned yesterday from a several weeks visit in New York and the New England states. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Marie Wasserman of New Orleans.

Miss Mary Wilton McHenry, who is doing graduate work this winter at S. M. U., is spending the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl McHenry on Fairview Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazer are leaving Wednesday to attend the Rice Festival in Crowley. They will be accompanied by their daughter, Elstner, who will be a princess in the festival. While there, they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Broadhurst.

Among those recently moving to this city from Baton Rouge were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyd Grayson and young daughter, Deborah. The Graysons are making their home at 1012 Park Avenue. Mrs. Grayson is the former Miss Marion Oliver of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Busby, Jr., and young son, Kirkland Lee, of Fort Worth, Texas, arrived yesterday for a week's visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Busby and Mrs. Effie Burgess.

Samuel P. Lewis who is stationed with the Marine Corps in Memphis, Tenn., is enjoying a weekend visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Walter and Mr. and Mrs. Don Guinn and daughters, of Exline, Iowa, will arrive early this week for a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Walter.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newcomer and son, Robbie, returned home yesterday after a few day's visit in Houston, Tex.

Capt. James F. Marshall arrived Friday from Fort Sam Houston to spend two weeks with his family, Mrs. Marshall and son, Jim.

Among those from Monroe attending Tulane Unversity and pledging Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity this week were Allen Coon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Coon, Craig Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Morgan and Tommy McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. McDonald.

Dr. and Mrs. N. Klam return home today from a week in Chicago where they attended a pathologist convention.

R. M. Troy, Jr., arrived this week from Schenectady, N. Y., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Troy, on the Loop Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gaines of Baton Rouge are the week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hubert Trichel are visiting in Minneapolis and Chicago. While in Minneapolis they will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Campbell. Joey Trichel is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Alfred Broussard, in Lake Charles, while his parents are away.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Banks of West Monroe were Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe and two daughters from Santiago, Chile, Mrs. Gladys Cobb of Houston, Tex., and Bill Monroe of Wallis, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Higgison of Macon, Miss., and Lt. Jerry Trigg, on leave from the Navy, having just returned from duty in Japan, were guests of Mrs. Higgison's brother, Mr. C. W. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace, for several days this week.

Girl Scout News

The camp committee read in the paper that public schools will be closed on Friday, November 4, for the teachers to participate in the business - education day program. A holiday like that is an unexpected windfall that the committee felt shouldn't go to waste, so how about a day at Pine Wood on that date?

Each fall for several years we've had a work-and-play day, which was lots of fun and resulted in camp improvement. Friday might be a better day, too, for mothers to furnish transportation and for leaders to arrange to be away from home.

It will be left to each troop, of course, to decide whether to take part or not. Each troop will arrange for its own transportation, will send out its own permission blanks, and plan to carry out some project of its own during the day. The girls may plan to take nosebag lunches, or the troop may plan a cookout. Girl Scouts have all learned to bring drinking cups with their names on them.

The plan generally followed is to start with a flag ceremony at 10:00, after which each troop selects a job to do for camp improvement. They work at it for an hour or a bit more and by then are hungry and ready to eat. Lunch time is a good time for troops to get acquainted with other groups as they sit around in the sunshnie or around the fire, as the case may be. After lunch, games, hikes, singing, whatever the leaders and girls would like to do together, will take up the time until about 2:00, when the group will again assemble around the flagpole for a goodnight circle. These hours are really the nicest to be out of doors this time of year.

Girls should wear jeans, have a sweater or jacket or both, according to the weather, a scarf or something for their heads, boots or galoshes if it has rained the day before. It doesn't really get too cold for this kind of outing, if the girls will dress properly. If the day is cold there will be a fire in the fireplace and one or two outside to warm by. Girls usually get up enough steam to keep warm.

The newest Brownies and the more experienced campers can find fun and worthwhile work on such a day as has been planned. Inexperienced leaders will find it easier to join in with these plans for their first day at Pine Wood than to make and carry out all of their own plans.

Let's have at least 200 girls and adults at Pine Wood on November 4. One or two leaders from Rayville have asked to come and join in the work and play.

New Blanket Fiber Boosted By Specialist

LINCOLN, Neb.—A new manmade fiber, called acrilan, being used in the manufacture of blankets, is highly regarded by Clara Leopold, extension home management specialist at the University of Nebraska.

Mrs. Leopold said acrilan blankets are quick-drying, moth-proof, shrink-resistant, and retain the nap through repeated washings. And they have a moderate price tag.

Farmerville Couple Wed In Beautiful Church Ceremony

Claiming much interest in North Louisiana was the marriage of Miss Betty Jo Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bass, to Zeke E. Tettleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Tettleton, at 5 o'clock Saturday, October 8, in the First Baptist Church of Farmerville.

The bride's uncle, the Rev. H. R. Nabors of Chidester, Ark., performed the impressive double ring ceremony. He was assisted by the Rev. Luther B. Hall of Farmerville.

Tall floor standards of white mums and gladioli were featured at the altar which was banked with greenery and illuminated by a myriad of white cathedral tapers in branched wrought iron candelabra entwined in ivy. The couple knelt on a white satin prie-dieu.

Mrs. Frank Yelton, presented nuptial music at the organ and accompanied Mrs. C. R. Rainwater who sang "I Love You Truly" and "One Alone."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Mr. Sam Bass, was wearing an exquisite white taffeta and chantilly lace gown fashioned with lace inserts outlined with seed pearls and sequins. It featured a sculptured bodice with a round neck accentuated by seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt formed a cathedral length train. A Juliet cap of pearls and sequins held her finger-tip veil of silk illusion. She carried a white orchid surrounded by lilies of the valley atop a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. P. C. Whitehead, of Memphis, Tenn., an aunt of the bride, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a waltz-length aqua taffeta and nylon net with a bouffant skirt styled with tiers of net and a fitted bodice. Her bandeau was of aqua velvet and matching flowers. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of pink nylon net and tiny pink rose buds.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Mary King, of Chidester, Ark., a cousin of the bride, Miss Jane Bradock and Miss Wanda Coleman, both of Memphis, Tenn. Their gowns, headdresses and bouquets were identical to the honor attendant's.

Candlelighters were Misses Jo Mary Tettleton, a sister of the bridegroom and Phebe Allen. They were dressed in mauve pink nylon creations with tight bodices and bouffant patio-length skirts. They wore matching stoles with pink rose buds in their hair and wrist corsages.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert L. Tettleton of Monroe, served as best man. Groomsmen were Hoyt Tettleton, uncle of the bridegroom, Portland Whitehead and Jerry Whitehead of Memphis, Tenn. Ushers were Burnie D. Bass of Liberty, Tex., Charles Francis Phelps and Sammy Joe Rainwater of Columbia Military Academy.

Mrs. Tettleton, the bridegroom's mother, was becomingly attired in a mauve lace complemented by charcoal accessories and a mauve velvet hat. Her corsage was also a white orchid.

Wedding Reception

Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Olivia Barr. The bridal couple, their parents and members of the wedding party stood in the receiving line.

Mrs. Ronald Davis of Shreveport presided at the guest book.

Mass arrangements of white and pastel blossoms were placed at points of interest throughout the reception rooms.

The bride's table, overlaid in white net over white satin, was decorated with a low silver bowl of white rose buds and white tapers in silver candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake embossed in tiny white and pale pink rosebuds centered the table. Mrs. Houston Williams of Nacogdoches, Texas, poured punch and Mrs. N. B. James served the wedding cake.

Others assisting with the courtesies were Mrs. Richard Bass, Miss Diane Green, Miss Peggy Wade, Miss Bettye White and Mrs. H. R. Nabors of Chidester, Ark.

For a wedding trip to Yellowstone National Park and other points in the west, the bride changed to a light weight mauve suit trimmed in rhinestones and pearls, with a matching velvet hat and brown accessories. She wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet. Upon return the couple will make their home in Farmerville.

Mrs. Tettleton is a graduate of Farmerville High School and Louisiana Tech. Her husband also graduated from Farmerville High School, Louisiana Tech and received his masters degree from Louisiana State University.

Among the out - of - town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Whitehead of Memphis, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Houston Williams and son of Nacogdoches, Tex., Cadet Sammy Joe Rainwater of Columbia, Tenn., Mrs. Elmer Williams of Mauriceville, Tex., Mrs. Sidney Wynn of Rayville, Miss Jane Braddock, Miss Wanda Lee Coleman, Jerry and Portland Whitehead, all of Memphis, Matt Partee of Camden, Ark., Mrs. Mary King and son, the Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Nabors of Chidester, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bass, Jr., and son of Liberty, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Tebbetts of Ruston, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Turner, all of Shreveport, Miss Loyce Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anthony, George Bass, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bass, Jr., Mrs. H. E. Shirley, W. T. Jerry, all of El Dorado, Ark.

Also, Mrs. M. N. Chandler, Mrs. Sallie Newby, Miss May Read, Miss Mary Sue Pulant, B. D. Barter and Robert L. Tettleton, all of Monroe.

Couple Are Wed In Afternoon

TALLULAH — Miss Katherine Louise Lann, daughter of the late Mr. T. J. Lann and Mrs. Minnie Lou Lann of Ruston and Robert Dale Cagnolatti, son of Mr. T. A. Cagnolatti and the late Mrs. Cagnolatti, were married at St. Edward's Catholic Church here Friday afternoon at 5:45. The Rev. Bernard Maguire officiated.

The attendants were Bill Colligan and Miss Dorothy Whittington and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Keith Post.

The bride was dressed in a white brocade taffeta suit with pink feather hat and pink and black accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Miss Whittington wore an ice blue suit with navy hat and Mrs. Post a brown suit with matching accessories. Both had corsages of pink chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Cagnolatti left for a short trip and on their return will reside in an apartment on Arkansas street.

The bride is a graduate of Louisiana Polytechnic Institute where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is a member of the Tallulah High School faculty. Mr. Cagnolatti attended Northeast Junior College in Monroe and is a graduate of Southwestern College in Hammond where he was a member of Alpha Omega fraternity. He is employed at the Tallulah State Bank and Trust Co., here.

Mrs. W. Stephens To Hold Meeting Here October 27

Mrs. Waldo Stephens, a representative of the Freedom Agenda committee of the Carrie Chapman Catt Memorial Fund, will be in Monroe October 27, to hold an important meeting with representatives of civic and educational groups in the city.

The meeting will be held in the Cameo Room of the Virginia hotel. There will be two sessions: The morning session will be from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and the afternoon session from 2 to 4 p.m.

Organizations cooperating in this community wide effort, whose representatives have been selected are: American Association for University Women, Jewish Sisterhood, United Church Women, Quota club, Women of the First Christian Church, and the Woman's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church, and the League of Women Voters of Monroe. Other organizations cooperating will be listed later.

The Freedom Agenda Program is under the sponsorship of the Carrie Chapman Catt Memorial fund, a research and educational organization created by the League of Women Voters of the United States. Mrs. Stephens will come to Monroe to assist community groups by furnishing advice on organization of the Freedom Agenda projects.

The Freedom Agenda program rests upon the belief that a greater understanding of the principles of individual liberty will ultimately increase the respect and reverence of all Americans for those principles and for constitutional democracy.

The League of Women Voters of Monroe is sponsoring the meeting here. Mrs. R. M. Troy is president and Mrs. Dewitt Henry is chairman of this committee.

All interested citizens are cordially invited to attend all or part of the day's meeting.

Mother And Twins Hitchhiking Well

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. — A South Haven woman has some advice for any pregnant woman who's stranded by a car breakdown and can't get to the hospital.

Hitchhike — says Mrs. John Stubbs 25, mother of twins born by a rule of thumb.

Mrs. Stubbs, now mother of five, gave birth to the twins under harrowing circumstances. When her husband John's car wouldn't start, she thumbed a ride. When that car broke down, she flagged down a third motorist, who got her to the hospital, 20 miles away from the Stubb's home.

Miss Rosemary Colligan Is Bride Of Lawson L. Myrick

Miss Rosemary Colligan and Lawson Loniel Myrick of Shreveport were married Sunday afternoon, October 9, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church with Dr. James T. Horton performing the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vores Joseph Colligan of this city. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Irene Myrick of Castor.

Fern trees, southern smilax and white gladioli decorated the sanctuary of the church. White cathedral tapers, burning in tall branched candelabras, illuminated the setting. Family pews were marked by white standards, entwined with smilax, which held white tapers.

Mrs. B. D. Allbritton presented nuptial music at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Wilbur W. Bullock, Jr. who sang "Through the Years," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a traditional white wedding gown. The fitted bodice of chantilly lace centered to a point in front. Self-covered buttons were featured down the back. Her sleeves came to petal points over the wrists with inside self-covered buttons. The high neck was styled with a Peter Pan collar edged in imported French lace. The lace and tulle - over - taffeta train bridal gown had a bouffant skirt. Her petal cap of iridescent sequins with tear drop pearls across the front held the finger tip length veil. She wore pearl ear rings, and a strand of pearls which was a gift of the groom and carried a white Bible with a bouquet of split white carnations with tulle and white satin ribbon centered with a white, purple-throated orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Betty Lou Alpha. Her gown was of flame taffeta with a pleated yoke. It was styled with torso lines and a long full skirt which fell into soft pleats. Her headdress was of matching taffeta leaves and tulle. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations with matching tulle and streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ella Pearl Sutton and Miss Marion Simmons. Their full length dresses were identical to the honor attendants'. Their bouquets were yellow carnations with matching tulle.

Miss Brenda Jo Colligan, niece of the bride, and Miss Diane Dare, niece of the groom, were the flower girls. Their dresses were fashioned to match the other attendants. Their bouquets were also replicas of the attendants.

Lighting the candles and ushering at the wedding were brothers of the groom, Roger Myrick, of Shreveport; Harold Myrick and Albert Myrick of Castor.

Mrs. Colligan chose a mauve lace model for her daughter's wedding. Her hat was navy with iridescent sequins. Her accessories were navy and white. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Myrick, was attired in powder blue with black accessories and white gloves. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church social room.

Mrs. M. Dare, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's table which was covered in silk overlaid with white organdy and a full gathered skirt. A miniature bride and groom topped the four-tiered wedding cake which was placed on a large reflector. The cake was beautifully embossed in calla lilies and white roses.

Miss Blanche Langston and Mrs. Maurice Saale presided at the crystal punch bowls which were placed at each end of a table which matched the bride's table. The central decor was an attractive oval arrangement of white gladiola, feverfew and yellow carnations.

Miss Kay Gillum presided at the bride's book.

Assisting with the courtesies were Mrs. W. F. Grafton, Mrs. Ruth Hundley, Mrs. A. D. Foreman III, Mrs. H. K. Litton and Mr. E. M. Henderson.

Out - of - town gusts for the wedding included: Mrs. Myrtis Dare and Diane Dare, Delaware; Mrs. Irene Myrick, Laura Ann Myrick, Bobby Jean Myrick, James C. Myrick, Roger M. Myrick, Juston Harold Myrick, Albert Myrick, all of Castor; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Saale, Lake Charles; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McCoy, Mrs. W. C. Cruis, both of Meridian, Miss.; Mrs. C. H. McCoy, Jackson, Miss.; Mrs. Laurence Breaux, Rayne; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Collgan, Port Sulphur; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Colligan and Brenda Joe, Port Sulphur; Mr. Bill Colligan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, all of Tallulah.

Also, Miss Kay Gillum, Mr. Joseph J. Harris, Mr. Buddy Davidson, Mr. R. E. Spence, Mrs. Salie Underwood, James W. Watson, Tony Watson, Betty C. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, Michel Moore, Roseann Moore, Bobby Sue Moore, Mr. Charles Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Princehouse, all of Shreveport; Mr. Charey Wiley, Delhi; Miss Ruth Wells, Mr. Raborn D. Rains, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sperry, Miss Ann Cumberlad, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Black, Sr., Charles Black, Jr., Bernard Black, also of Shreveport.

SMILING IN ANTICIPATION of the wiener roast given recently by the Louisiana Club at the Stephens College lake in Columbia, Mo., are (left, standing), Miss Eleanor Williamson, president of the club, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Williamson, of Winnsboro, Miss Catherine Barfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barfield, of Lake Providence, Miss Elizabeth Faust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Faust, of Rayville, and (kneeling), Miss Kathie Fleishman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey J. Fleischman, of Start. Bridal Parties Compliment Marilyn Wilson

LAKE PROVIDENCE — Miss Marilyn Wilson, bride elect of the Rev. Tommy Lewis Wilborn of Port Lavaca, Tex., has been the inspiration for several beautifully planned informal parties. First was a miscellaneous shower on Friday, Oct. 7, with Mrs. W. P. Key and Mrs. H. A. West, hostesses entertaining at the Key home from 3:30 to 5 in the afternoon.

Miss Alice Hammack presided at the punch bowl at one end of the refreshment table, which was covered with a Maderia cut work cloth, miniature bride and groom.

On Saturday afternoon, the ladies of the congregation of the Monticello Assembly of God complimented Miss Wilson with a miscellaneous shower, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Billy Kirksey, in the Monticello community from three to five.

Mrs. Pete Key was hostess for the party.

On Tuesday morning, Mrs. Kiley Mangum and Mrs. C. R. Brown complimented the bride-elect with a coffee hour and kitchen shower. Mrs. Mangum had a most attractive and unique bridal umbrella centering the gift table. It was festoomed with gold ribs latticed in white ribbon and adorned with scattered nosegays of variegated flowers. At the base was a lacy spray of native greenery and early fall flowers.

There were many attractive and useful kitchen gifts brought by Mesdames Brown, W. P. Key, G. C. Kirksey, J. E. Peeler, F. P. Regenold, Maude Van Fossen, L. E. Walters and Ernest Wilson.

Miss Wilson wearing a fall two piece model of gold jersey blouse with bandings of black and black woolen skirt, and shoulder corsage of orchid mums, gift of the hostesses, happily opened and displayed her gifts.

News From The Public Library

Again we save a large number of new titles received at the Ouachita Parish Public Library during the past week. There are books to appeal to every type of reader. Surely there is something here you want to read. Among the new fiction titles there are several books by authors with established reputations. These we know will be popular. There are others by newer authors who still have their reputation to make. Francis Van Wyck Mason is a prolific writer of historical novels as well as mystery stories. His new book is called "Silver Leopard" and is a novel of the first Crusade. This is an interesting story of high purpose and of the motives that drove men to a crusade. It is a colorful and exciting picture of life in the eleventh century and is one that makes more vivid that stirring age. Noel Gerson has written a number of stories about the Colonial period in this country. His latest is "The Highwayman." It is an exciting adventure of the French and Indian war period. The beautiful heroine, Mercy Pepperrell, has all sorts of thrilling experiences before the story is brought to a successful close. "Winter Harvest" by Norah Lofts is a departure from her usual English locale. This is the story of the Donner party and their terrible hardships on the trip west in 1846. It does not make pleasant reading, but it illuminates a period of our history about which too little has been written.

Max Ehrlich is an expert on the story of suspense and his latest is called "First Train to Babylon." This is the story of a wife who had reason to distrust her husband after a very happy marriage of twenty - five years. It is a story within a story and is written with excitement and suspense. You will not want to miss it. "Green Pond" by Evan Brandon is the sweeping, intense drama of a Carolina town through the quickening years from the Civil war to the present. The cast of characters is fascinating and it promises to be a very popular book.

"Nearer to Heaven" by Frank Baker has an English setting. It is the story of a vicar of a poor country parish, who has been told that he has less than a year to live. It is the story of how he set his house in order. It is a sweet and gentle story, but one with much profound thought in it. "Episode in the Transvaal" was written by Harry Bloom and portrays tensions in African society. It has much of the feeling that one finds in the novels of Alan Paton. It is Mr. Bloom's first novel, but he writes from experience as he was born in Africa and has lived there all his life.

In the field of non - fiction, there are books for every reader. "Stillmeadow Daybook" by Gladys Taber is another of the delightful accounts of her rural life. Followers of her books will eagerly accept it. A very interesting travel book is "The African Giant" by Stuart Cloete. It is a story of a journey which he made through the continent and is very well done.

There are a number of beautiful and useful books "Fruit and Vegetable Arrangements" by Emma H. Cyphers is a lovely and practical book in which numerous arrangements of fruit and vegetables are explained and illustrated. "Portrait Painting for Beginners" by John W. Pratten gives wonderfully clear directions for painting portraits. It should be widely used by artists. "Japanese Flower Arrangement" by Seido Iwata is largely a book of illustrations in the most exquisite colors of this unusual and beautiful field of arrangement.

A book which will meet a long felt need at the library is "Blueprint Reading for the Home Builders" by U. Ralph Dalzell. It is a most practical book on this subject. Business men should be interested in a book called "Modern Marketing." It is a book that any man in the merchandising business should find useful. Another practical book is "How To File and Index" by Bertha M. Weeks. We borrowed this book from the State library three times this summer and I decided it was time that we owned a copy. "Body Mind and Sugar" by E. M. Abrahamson is a popular type book of medicine and while making interesting reading, should not be followed except at the direction of your physician.

Thompson Wood Lee Auxiliary Honors Member

For their October meeting the members of Thompson Wood Lee Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, honored Mrs. Stella Courtney, a charter member and past president, now a shut-in, and other members whose birthdays were of recent date, when they met in the home of Mrs. A. D. Bernhardt, Mrs. Courtney's daughter, on October 12, Mrs. Courtney's birthday.

Hosetsses for the occasion, along with Mrs. Bernhardt, were Mrs. Otis Davis and Mrs. Dell Robinson.

Mrs. Aline Hunt, the president, welcomed the members and extended birthday greetings.

Mrs. Bernhardt carried out the auxiliary colors of red, yellow and white in floral arrangements in the living room of red roses and yellow lantana. The serving table in he dining room was covered with handmade lace cover and had arrangements of red and yellow hibiscus flanked by white candles. The crystal punch bowl with yellow punch was at one end of the table and the birthday cake was at the other end. Dainty sandiwches and iced petit - fours on silver trays added to the table arrangement.

During the social hour a word making contest resulted in Mrs. Otis Davis winning the prize. Mrs. Courtney was then presented with gifts from the auxiliary and members, following which all assembled in the dining room. Mrs. O. M. Arnette poured the punch and Mrs. Evie Johnson, whose birthday was also of recent date, served the cake.

Mrs. Bernhardt was assisted by Mrs. J. W. Fretwell in the courtesies of the afternoon.

Members present were: Mrs. Aline Hunt, Mrs. Lena Morrow, Mrs. Alma McKee, Mrs. Stella Ross, Mrs. Eula Morgan, Mrs. Evie Johnson, Mrs. O. M. Arnette, Mrs. Otis Davis, Mrs. Dell Robinson, Mrs. Mary Hood, Mrs. Annie Trousdale, Mrs. Mary Bowles, Mrs Minnie Mangham.

Make Others Held With Fall Picnics

CHICAGO — All picnics can be easier on Mom if she enlists the aid of the rest of the family in the picnic preparations and activities.

One suggestion that will save the picnic preparations and acis to take along sandwich makings in vacuum packed jars and let members of the family make their own sandwiches at the picnic site.

You can take along the bread and butter or margarine separately. Then all the leftovers can be taken back home in shape to be used agan.

If you use a lid-flipper on the jars, the top can be put back on tightly enough to prevent spilling or spoiling.

You can even have a fresh-tasting tossed salad by cutting up the green vegetables ahead of time and taking them along in a plastic bag. Then just add the salad dressing when it's time to eat.

United Nations Topic Of Panel Discussion

The Pierian Club met at Oak Ridge Community Hall Tuesday afternoon, October 11, to hear a panel discussion on the United Nations. Mrs. J. W. Barham and Mrs. W. N. McDuffie participated with Mrs. E. M. Barham, the moderator.

Mrs. C. N. McDuffie talked on national defense. International projects adopted by the club included German Youth Assistance, through which sewing materials will be sent to German girls. The club will be active in the community wide clothing collection during the first few days of November.

In community work the purchase of a quality flag for use in Community Hall was approved in conjunction with the Caddoan Club.

Beginning with March the care of the grounds around the Hall will rotate among the organizations using the building.

Mrs. Edwin Conger, president, gave instructions to her chairmen in regard to reporting the many activities of the club. Mrs. C. G. Rolfe led the collect and Mrs. M.T. Limerick the Pledge of allegiance to the flag.

The hostesses, Mrs. C. E. Shepard and Mrs. Elmer McLendon served refreshments during the social hour which followed the meeting. Other members present were: Mrs. T. L. Smith, Mrs. James Rolfe, Mrs. C. G. Rolfe, Mrs. W. N. McDuffie, Mrs. C. N McDuffie, Mrs B. E. Barham, Mrs. M. T. Limerick, Mrs. Edwin Conger, Miss Queeine McDuffie, Mrs. A. B. Conger, Mrs. J. S Carter, Mrs. T. E. Barham, Mrs. J. W. Barham and Mrs. T. E Barham Mrs. Clarence Wasson of Washington, D. C. was a guest of the club.

Some Tips For Sneezing Season

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Your child will catch six colds this winter, predicts Dr. H. J. Brannon, scientific director of Grove Laboratories here, who says:

"Cold outbreaks in the United States traditionally come in three waves, with the first occuring usually sometime in October, the second between mid - January and mid - February and the third in late March or early April."

Women get more colds than men, says Dr. Bannon — almost twice as many. And children have twice as many colds as adults.

Mothers can help prevent some of these colds by observing certain precautions. Her are some of his suggestions:

1. Keep children properly dressed — not too warm and not too cold.
2. Don't keep rooms overly hot and dry. Many doctors believe sudden change in temperature and humidity can trigger a lurking cold.
3. Help maintain high body resistance in the child through proper diet and vitamins which your doctor prescribes.
4. In bad weather, if your child seems run down don't hesitate to keep him home from school.
5. By all means keep him home if he gets a cold. It is thoughtless to let him infect the rest of the children in his class.
6. When the sniffles start, put your child to bed, give him plenty of fruit juices and see that he gets lots of rest.

Club Project Promotes Civic Pride

A project of the Rayville Art and Civic Club is receiving widespread interest. To promote civic pride in the beauty of the city, the club is choosing, each month, a home designated, "Home of the Month."

The October selection was the residence of Mrs. Roy Williams, where a beautiful array of fall flowers are in bloom.

Mrs. T. J. Coenen, Jr. is chairman of the project and has announced that each monthly selection will be made by a different committee, with homes chosen on the basis of (1) type and location of home; (2) neatness in appearance to the eye; (3) plants in proportion to the size of the house.

Homes of all residents within the city limits will be considered, it is not limited to homes of club members.

Next time potato salad's on the menu, try packing it in a ring mold. Chill, and before serving, turn it out on a place or platter. Garnish with greens, and "frost" the ring with mayonnaise.

Powell-Lay

TALLULAH — Mr. William F. Powell and Mrs. Jackie Lay of Vicksburg were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Louise Ostrosky on Jackson street in Vicksburg on Saturday Oct. 1. The Rev. W. F. Mansell of the Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony.

TROUT TIP

CONCORD, N. H. — Don't bother fishing for trout when the water temperature gets over 75 degrees. Conservation officers in this state's lush fishing regions say the trout become dormant in water so warm.

BOARD MEMBERS OF THE TWIN CITY SYMPHONY, also meeting with Miss Biedenharn, are Dr. Harry Lemert, musical director, Joe Barry Mullins, who represented the orchestra, and, seated left, Mrs. David Agnew and Mrs. H. C. Mayo. The first concert of the season is being planned for the night of October 27.

Bright Colors For Kids Aid In Safety

MADISON, Wis.—Bright colors can be a safety factor, as well as a way to brighten children's back-to-school wardrobes, according to a clothing expert at the University of Wisconsin.

Hazel Paschall said red, kelly green, yellow, and royal blue are easy for motorists to see, particularly in storms and early dusk. Scarves, mittens, and hats in gay colors can make youngsters stand out even if dark colors are used in coats and snow suits.

Cold Method Jam Saves On Gas, Tempers

MADISON, Wis. — Making jam by the new cold method saves both gas and the housewife's disposition, according to Maxine Hart, food specialist at the University of Wisconson.

It's quick and easy to do, too. Liquid or powdered pectin is mixed with crushed fruit. The mixture is put in jars, sealed and placed in the freezer or refrigerator.

Jam made by this method will keep for several months, if stored in a cold place.

If powdered pectin is used, it must be boiled before being added to the fruit. Liquid pectin can be used without heating.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL

After 32 Years' Marriage, Wife Wonders Whether To Leave Her Unloving Husband

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I can't decide whether to insist upon separation from my husband—whose attitude is "You are stuck with me and you'll stay that way." Once when I said, "Our marriage is a failure," he replied: "I don't see that; our home is paid for and we have money in the bank." And he would say nothing further.

We have been married 32 years and have raised a daughter and twin sons. In recent years the children have given me spontaneous unsolicited advice (several times) to separate from dad . . .

We had been married three years and had our first child when I first admitted to myself and to Ray that I didn't love him. I had wanted a home and children and he was a "good" man who wanted me, so I had persuaded myself I loved him, when actually I was in love with the idea of marriage. When I told him the truth he said not a word about it, then or since; and in fact seems unable to discuss anything pertaining to human relations . .

I suggested separation and offered to support myself and the child, but he said I couldn't take her from the home he provided; that he would fight me through every court in the land if need be. I couldn't dessert her, so decided to make the best of a bad situation. He seemed not to care that I was unhappy. His first wife left him—he had been much in love with her, he once told me.

Has No Friends; Can't Keep Any

I believe he was looking for a mother and housekeeper when he married me. He has always called me Mom and refers to me as "the wife." He once said: "All there is to marriage is, you keep house for me and I work for you." There has been no intimacy between us for years. He has said if I pass away first, he will advertise for a wife He has no friends and can't keep any . . .

Is it dependency and financial considerations that hold us together? He would object to dividing property or income, because we can live more economically together than apart . . . It all comes down to this: if two people are unhappy together, and one doesn't want a separation, is the other justified in demanding it? I don't want to take a step which would cause me guilt feelings later . . . I will appreciate your comment.—E B.

Suitable Case For Psychiatry

DEAR E.B.: This is a depressing picture of masculine meanness in double harness. Obviously your husband has callously, even mockingly, evoked and enforced an atmosphere of hateful stress. You say the "frustrating, irritating" married situation is upsetting your health; your digestion is always disturbed and doctors claim the cause is emotional. So the wonderment is, why have you stayed on, perennially, feeling as you do?

Studying the story, it seems to me the only positive (or good) reason for remaining with Ray, all things considered, would be out of compassionate concern for his welfare—because he does feel helpless need of a woman's care, even though he spitefully uses the opposite sex. His manifest resentment of womankind includes his own daughter, whom he always belittled, you say—and who hates his bad manners and cordially dislikes him, in consequence.

In all the years you've been living (if one can call it living) with Ray, he has been a suitable candidate for psychiatric help. As you've sensed, he hasn't wanted a bonafide marriage partner—only a Mom-type housekeeper, who was to be punished insidiously, as a symbol of the sex who "done him wrong" in his cradle days. Presumably he exercised the same compulsion in relation to his first wife, who properly refused to put up with it and left him.

Man Has Cheated Himself And Wife

Very likely your disposition towards him was hopefully fond at the start of your marriage. But he, running true to form, made it impossible for ardent affection to flourish—so that eventually you decided you never had loved him. He cheated himself of your love, and colossally cheated your nature as well—then slyly let you plead guilty of shortchanging him.

As to whether to separate or not, that is a question which you must decide. Others can't serve you as prophet or conscience in the matter. To reach a constructive decision, you first must achieve some real insight into the nature of your attachment to Ray. "Know the truth, and the truth shall make you free"—the ancients said. Free, that is, to do the right thing. My advice is to explore the story firsthand with a specialist in human relations. M H.

NO INTERRUPTION

WARREN, Conn. — It took more than a little thing like a $4,000 fire to stop 81 - year - old Mrs. Martin A. White from knocking out her daily 1,000 - word stint on what is said to be the longest continuous seriel story in history. Assured that the firemen were en route, Mrs. King simply moved her typewriter into another part of the house and continued pecking out "Revelations of a Wife," a story which has been running 40 years, under her pen name Adele Garrison.

Miss Stratford Becomes Bride Of Wayburne Farrar

Miss Elizabeth Anne Stratford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Stratford, became the bride of Wayburne Kelly Farrar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farrar of Farmerville, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 9, in the Southside Methodist Church.

Miss Elaine Hesketh was organist and accompanied Mrs. Richard Fred Moore who sang "My Own True Love," "Because" and "Bless This House."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a blush satin and tulle wedding gown with a moulded bodice featuring a boat neckline accented by a deep fold of satin. Self covered buttons fastened the lily tapered sleeves. The full skirt was styled with clusters of tiny pearls and irridescents which extended into a cathedral length train. Her fingertip veil of blush illusion fell from a band of encrusted pearls and irridescents. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations centered with a white orchid. She wore a single strand of pearls at the reck.

Robert Dawkins served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Charles R. Stratford and Donald Stewart. Billy Grey McCough and Joe Slavant were ushers.

The bride's table was overlaid in white lace over pale pink. It was centered with pink carnations and white chrysanthemums illuminated by white tapers. A tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom centered the table.

Mrs. Irene Sullivan served the wedding cake and Mrs. Evelyn Futch presided at the punch service. Assisting with the courtesies were Miss Vera Smith, Miss Lynn Womack, Mrs. Wynnelle McGough, Mrs. E. C. Vanderwerker and Mrs. L. D. Stark.

For a wedding trip to Galveston and Houston, Tex., the bride changed to a black velveteen suit with matching accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet. Upon return they will make their home at 500 Erin.

The bride is a graduate of Neville High School and Louisiana Business College. The bridegroom graduated from Farmerville High School.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Stratford, Mrs. Irene Sullivan, all of Helena, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. George Bacilla, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeFatta, all of Shreveport, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farrar, the Rev. L. B. Hall, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Dawkins, Robert Dawkins, Mrs. Raymond Meeks, Mrs. Will R. Farrar and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Farrar, all of Farmerville.

B' Nai Israel To Have Men's Club Meeting Tuesday

The Men's Club's first meeting of the 1955-56 season will be held at the annex of Temple B'nai Israel, Tuesday, October 18, 8 p.m.

The speaker will be Rabbi Jacob Lantz of Congregation B'nai Israel. He will speak of his studies in Israel, show his movies of Israel, and will answer all questions on Israel.

Dr. Mortimer Raphael, president of the Men's Club, and his program committee, headed by Dr. Bert Heinberg, cordially invite all members and friends to come and hear the speaker of the evening and stay for the refreshment and fellowship hour which will follow.

Kickoff Set Monday For Boy Scout Drive

Kickoff meeting of the Keystone division of the Boy Scouts of America has been set for the J. S. Clark school Monday at 7:15 p.m. H. H. Marbles states that there will be talks of inspirational nature that will highlight the meeting.

Members of the executive staff and others will give talks and urge funds for the Boy Scout program for colored boys. Camp Britton is one of places where there is held a summer camp for these Boy Scouts and there is great need of support.

B. D. Robinson is general chairman of the drive and the public is cordially invited to attend the Monday night meeting.

The W. A. Calloways Will Be Hosts

The recipient of the Louisiana Home Demonstration Council's third International Fellowship will visit Ouachita Parish November 1 to November 15th, according to news just received by the agent. This international fellowship guest is Miss Suzanna Gertrude Maria Rottink from Delden the Netherlands. Miss Rottink will live in the W. A. Calloway home in Logtown Community during her visit with us. She will see an American farm family in action—the purpose of the fellowship.

Ouachita Parish Home Demonstration Council has contributed to the fellowship fund and Miss Rottink is the third woman from another country to visit, and live in Louisiana rural homes. The other two visitors were from Germany and France.

Other Important Dates on Home Demonstration Club Calendar

The Food and Nutrition Leader of each Home Demonstration Club is reminded to be at the Agricultural Building October 21st at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Irene Turner, nutrition specialist of L. S. U. Extension Service, will be with us to give instructions on value of sweets in the diet and to demonstrate making suitable holiday sweets, candies and cookies. Thanksgiving and Christmas are only a few days away making this timely information. If it's impossible for you to be here, get some club member to come. This is an opportunity for you so if you can't take advantage of it, let someone else have it.

Score Sheet Meeting

On Friday, Oct. 28th, each club president will put her club's score on the parish score sheet. The 1955 Best Club will be determined by these scores. Bring also your club history (scrapbook) containing information listed at the bottom of your score sheet.

Better Planning for Housing

Houses can be oriented and designed to exclude the sun from entering during the hottest months of the summer, and yet allow the sun to enter the house during the winter when the heat from the sun is desirable.

From the standpoint of summer comfort, the major walls and glass areas should be on the south where they can be protected from the sun or on the north where the effects of the sun are negligible. The walls and glass areas should be kept at a minimum on the east and on west since these walls are more difficult to protect due to the low angle of the sun in the early morning and late afternoon.

In developing a house plan, take care not to put a paved terrace, driveway or other similar surface directly in front of south or west facing glass areas. The reflection of heat rays can counteract the effect of controls.

While sun controls are primarily designed to keep the sun's rays away from glass, which transmits heat readily, they also shield exterior walls effectively. If not protected from the sun, outside wall surface temperatures may reach as high as 135 degrees F.; when protected, the temperatures are only slightly higher than those of the surrounding air. Shade trees are valuable in reducing temperature on outside. Without shade from trees or buildings, the temperature on the exterior roof surfaces may reach 140 degrees even though the outdoor temperature is below 100 degrees F.

Club Member Bring Landscape Bulletins

Club members are urged to bring the landscape bulletin to the club meeting in October and November when agent is to be with you. She will give the second demonstration on landscaping at this time and you will need this bulletin. If you expect her to give you help on your landscape problems bring your scaled plan as instructed last month. It will not be possible for her to give individual help at your home this season.

Servants Are Not Always A Pleasure

MILWAUKEE — Most women would welcome having servants do the housework, cooking and other chores around the house, but not Mrs. Harry G. French.

Mrs. French, wife of the American vice-consul at Istanbul, Turkey, recently returned to her parents' home for a three-month visit and she said, "I can hardly wait to get into the kitchen and start doing things for myself again."

She said she enjoyed living in foreign countries, but there were many drawbacks.

"Over there, I had to give my home over to others, to having someone else take care of the house, do the cooking and watch over the children," Mrs. French said.

"Everything is done by servants. They do the best they can, but their standards are not the same as ours. They're so limited in what they can do. It's so much easier over here for one person to keep just as big a house with modern appliances than over there with a houseful of servants."

Tip For Inept Needle-Threader

EAST LANSING, Mich. — If you have trouble threading a needle, you might try the new monocord nylon thread which is sold in all colors at most stores.

Florence Rann, extension specialist in clothing at Michigan State University, says this is a permanently bonded thread which doesn't ravel or untwist and is easy to thread.

Miss Rann found monocord nylon thread much easier to use than the regular nylon thread since it doesn't seem to have as much static electricity as the other synthetic threads. Another feature of this particular thread is the fact that it is translucent and picks up the color of the fabric you are using.

Because of the similarity in elasticity and strength, Miss Rann says use a synethetic thread on a synthetic fabric. For example, use nylon thread for a nylon fabric.

Miss Rann says never use a synthetic sewing thread on cotton or any fabric which will be ironed later with a rather hot temperature. She says synthetic fibers are very sensitive to heat and will melt.

OTTO E. PASSMAN

Passman Blasts 'Illogical' GOP Farm Policies

Unless members of Congress "who are primarily interested in the agricultural problem can successfully circumvent in some ways the Republican administration's illogical farm policies, the average southern cotton farmer appears doomed to destruction," Fifth District Congressman Otto E. Passman declared late Saturday.

His office here was "swamped," he said, with calls and callers, beginning early Saturday, protesting Secretary of Agriculture Benson's proposed 1956 cotton - acreage cut of four per cent below this year. The current cotton allotment of 18,113,208 acres is already the smallest planting of the south's basic crop in more than 75 years.

The farmers from throughout this area who contacted the Congressman Saturday also expressed themselves as "fearful" that the price support rate would drop "ruinously" in 1956 to from 75 to 85 per cent of parity, under the administration's new flexible support program.

Secretary Benson's proposed national cotton - planting allotment for next year was set at the smallest acreage permitted by law. It was said to be designed to produce 10 million bales, at the average per - acre yield of the past five years.

Representative Passman reassured farmers who were in touch with him Saturday that, with other farm - state Congressman, he would "continue to exert myself to the utmost" to bring about restoration of minimum 90 per cent of parity price supports — already approved in this year's Congressional session by the House of Representatives, but not acted upon by the Senate.

He said, too, that he would work for other "protective measures, even if they are only of a stopgap nature, to aid our cotton farmers in their efforts for survival." In this connection, he said he would continue, with others, to press for "reducing our cotton surpluses with a realistic program of reentering the export markets competitively."

Recognizing that the "critical farm situation presents unparallel problems of such magnitude that no one has a ready solution," Representative Passman said, however that "this fact does not nullify the further fact that the current farm policies of the administration have been illogical from the start.

"Our government cannot take big business, big industry and big labor to its bosom and ignore the farmer without endangering the health and security of the entire economy. And that's what the administration has been, and is, doing," Passman said.

He continued, in a statement to the Morning World:

"Farm income has dropped around 30 per cent since 1953, and obviously will go lower if the administration's farm program continues as it is now, while other segments of the economy prosper beyond precedent. While the secretary of agriculture has been applying his 'economy' program to agriculture, his administration colleagues have been freely stimulating and subsidizing big business and big industry on every turn."

UN Food And Agriculture Organization Celebrates 10th Anniversary Mon.

ROME, Oct. 15 (AP)—Seventy per cent of the world's population will go to bed undernourished tonight.

Huge surpluses glut warehouses in a lucky few countries while the world's dinner pail scrapes close to the bottom in vast areas. Millions are hungry.

What is being done about it?

A lot—through an outfit called the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. FAO is 10 years old tomorrow and this year it will spend just under 3 cents of each American's money, plus money from scores of other countries to help fill the world's breadbasket.

This is the story of FAO — of the progress made in the 10 years since men united to declare war on hunger, man's most ancient and persistent enemy.

The idea originated — appropriately enough — over a luncheon table during the grave days of World War II. Australian food economist Dr. Frank McDougall got to talking about a plan for a world food planning organization.

His hostess, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, was impressed.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt was. He called a 45-nation conference at Hot Springs, Va., in 1943 to draw the plans.

Two years later, at Quebec, 20 nations signed the Oct. 16, 1945, agreement establishing FAO. Twenty-two other nations joined within a few weeks.

Now 71 flags fly in front of the two great marble buildings in Rome which Italy turned over to FAO as a world headquarters for a token annual rental of $1 each.

After 10 years, hunger still is in the field, menacing as ever. But FAO reports many beachheads have been won, particularly in lands where want is greatest.

World food production has increased by 25 per cent in less than 10 years. Generally, it has increated faster than world population growth.

But production is uneven—there is glut in one area and famine in another. And last year there was a danger sign: in 1954 the world failed to increase its annual food production for the first time since World War II.

Sovie Russia has been hinting that after a decade of abstinence she may join FAO. Her membership would be a powerful aid in world food planning, for Russia is among the big food producers.

Also, atomic energy has added a mighty new weapon to the farmer's arsenal by showing the way to greater yields, in animal and plant growth. Experimenters believe that man of the future may dine off synthetic foods produced by the energy of the sun acting on inorganic matter.

Modern science has opened vast new possibilities of foods from the great plankton pastures of the sea. Plankton usually are minute organisms, but some forms grow large. Jellyfish are plankton but fish are not.

FAO has two sides. There is the headquarters here in Rome, which is sometimes criticized for being bureaucratic and out-size. The striking arm is elsewhere — 1,100 technicians in some 50 countries teaching farmers and fishermen how to produce more food.

A sun-tanned Welsh fisherman shows fishermen in Ceylon how to use outboard motors instead of oars to reach the fields, thus giving them more hours fishing and greatly increasing the fishing harvest.

Or an Iowa farmer in the wilds of Afghanistan shows turbaned Afghans how to use the scythe instead of the hand knife for cutting wheat, or a sturdy Australian demonstrates modern sheep-breeding techniques to Libyans. This is the heart of FAO's work.

Thirty per cent of this year's commercial fish catch in Haiti's inland waters was of species introduced there by Fao since 1951.

In 1947, FAO began introducing North American hybrid corn maize into Europe. Five years later, with only 5 per cent of Europe's maize acreage planted in the new hybrid, the yield increase was worth 25 million dollars a year. Cost for the change in seeding was $40,000. A similar changeover with hybrid rice is now under way in Asia.

In parts of South America where wheat is scarce, buns for school lunches were made expermentally with low-cost flour manufactured from fish. The children liked the buns and ate well at prices there parents could pay.

The dread "kwashierkor," or red baby disease, is gradually being brought under control in South America, Africa, India and Asia by making up protein deficiency with skim milk products.

FAO's roadscale program is:

1. To keep the world's food production ahead of its skyrocketing rise in population, which increases by almost 100,000 daily.

2. To dstribute the world's food output so that surpluses reach the regions of underproduction.

Martin Luther Film Will Be Shown 3 Days

The First Presbyterian church will show the famous film, "Martin Luther," for three Sundays, October 16, 23, and 30. This film will be shown in the Fellowship Hall of the church twice each Sunday, once at 3:00 p.m. and again at 7,30 p.m.

The producer of this film, Louis de Rochemont, used the greatest care in the production of "Martin Luther" in order that the research, scripting, and characters would have stature both as an historical document and as religious drama. It is the story of a man and his efforts for reform and much of the dialogue was culled from historic documents.

Millions have already seen this film in leading theatres across the nation but its presentation by the First Presbyterian Church will be the first time that the people of Monroe have had an opportunity of viewing it.

Rev. Arthur Betz Attending Church Meet In Mobile

The Rev. Arthur Betz, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Monroe, will attend the Southern District convention of the Lutheran church Missouri Synod at Mobile, Alabama, this week.

Sessions of this church gathering will open with a Holy Communion worship - service on Monday, Oct. 17, 7:30 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church, Mobile, Ala., the Rev. W. H. Hafner, pastor.

Business sessions will begin at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 18, in the Old Battle House Hotel where the delegates, coming from Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, will be quartered. The convention will be assembled until noon on Thursday, Oct. 20.

The Rev. Paul Streufert, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran Church, New Orleans, La., and president of the Southern District of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, will preside at the sessions.

The Rev. Prof. Paul M. Bretscher, Ph.D., Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., will be the essayist.

William Hochstetler will accompany Pastor Betz and serve as delegate of the local Lutheran church.

Auditorium In W. Monroe Church To Be Dedicated

The throwing open of the magnificent new auditorium of the First Baptist church in West Monroe will take place on Sunday Oct. 23. Completed at a cost of $500,000 it is the most expensive and elaborate edifice used for a church auditorium in this section of the state and perhaps is the most elaborate in the south.

The formal dedication of this building will be attended by many church people of all denominations.

The old corner stone of the first building at this church will also be opened. It took place February 28, 1928.

The documents that were placed in the stone will be read with interest.

The First Christian Church School of Missions will hold their third meeting Sunday night, October 16. An increasing number of people are turning out for these interesting and spiritual meetings, and this Sunday marks the midway in the series of five Sunday night services. The program is prepared for all age level groups and they are studying "The Indian American."

Sunday, beginning at 6 p.m., the service will get under way with a fellowship period and refreshments will be served by Group 3 of the Christian Women's Fellowship. This will be followed by a brief worship period, and then the entire group will break up into age level classes. After approximately 30 minute class study periods, the entire group will again meet in a general assemblage program. This week the speaker will be the First Christian Church's own Rev. R. T. Watson, who will give a short talk on "Church and Minority Groups." His speech will cover not only the Indian, but all minority groups. The meeting will be concluded with a short worship service, led by Mrs. S. W. Raby.

Mrs. S. W. Raby, who is church school of mission librarian, will have on display many books regarding "The Indian American," and a broad display of Indian curios. These are most interesting, and are being viewed by large groups attending the Sunday services.

The general public is invited to attend and worship with the congregation of the First Christian Church in these educational services. A nursery, under reliable supervision, is open for infants, and the service will be concluded at 8 p.m.

REV. C. R. JOHNSON

Central Baptists Will Observe Its 25th Anniversary

Central Baptist Church of Monroe will observe its twenty-fifth anniversary with special services next Sunday.

During the quarter of a century in the history of the church, there has been only three pastors. Rev. Roger M. Baxter, now serving under the home mission board in Utah, was the founder and organizer of Central church. He served as pastor from 1920-1935. Rev. D. D. Cantrell, now pastor of the Hosston Baptist church near Shreveport, succeeded Rev. Baxter and served as pastor from 1935-1944. Rev. C. Roger Johnson, present pastor of the church, has served as pastor since 1944.

The Central church had its beginning in a meeting at the Gordon Avenue Methodist Church. Later, revival services were conducted in the old Grand Street theatre building located at Grand and Forest Ave. As a result of this meeting, under the leadership of Rev. Baxter, and with the help of the First Baptist Church of Monroe, the Central Baptist Church was organized.

At present the property value of Central Baptist Church including the parsonage is approximately $140,000.00. Total church membership is 759 with 606 enrolled in Sunday School, 244 in Training Union, 27 in Brotherhood and 115 in W. M. U.

On Sunday, October 23, Rev. Baxter and Rev. Cantrell will be present to celebrate the occasion and both will speak at the morning service. Dinner will be served on the church grounds.

Int'l Laymen Of Methodism Observe Today

The Methodist Churches throughout Arkansas and Louisiana will join in the first international observance of Laymen's Sunday, Oct. 16, according to Bishop Paul E. Martin, Little Rock, head of the two - state area.

More than 100,000 men in Protestant churches in the United States and Canada will participate in the observance by conducting the entire Sunday morning worship service — from ushering to preaching the sermon. The goal for the day is to fill every pulpit with a lay speaker.

Laymen's Day is sponsored jointly in the United States by the United Church Men, laymen's wing of the National Council of Churches; and the Laymen's Movement for a Christian World. The United Church in Canada sponsors the event in that country.

Laymen's Day has been observed annually for several years in the United States, but this is the first time another country has joined in the observance.

Lay leaders of the three Methodist conferences in the Arkansas-Louisiana area are: North Arkansas conference, Charles Stuck, Jonesboro; Little Rock Conference Roland M. Shelton, Little Rock; and the Louisiana Conference, Robert P. Lay, Gilliam.

MY ANSWER by Billy Graham

QUESTION: America has often been called a Christian nation. I have found many who are not Christians and some who are atheists. I have always thought of this country as Christian, but this puzzles me. Can you explain this?

ANSWER: The early settlers in America were nominally Christian. They came with a commission from King James to bear the Gospel to this country. The first religious gatherings were Christian, and when the time came to write the Constitution, the writers were influenced by a strong Christian tradition. Although all religions are tolerated, and have equal rights, we have generally had a majority who would claim Christianity as their religion. Our ethical and moral standards have been influenced largely by the Church.

At the same time that such influence is felt throughout the country, it is by no means true that one is a Christian because he is an American. The terms are not synonymous. No amount of external influence or Christian tradition makes a person Christian. Each one must personally repent of his own sins and himself take Jesus as Savior to be a Christian. The Christian Gospel is propagated by preaching, teaching and persuading men, but never by legislation. Therefore, no country can be technically called Christian.

Bible Words for Today

ROMANS 8:9—"If any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his."

* * *

Once I heard a minister say: "Had Jesus returned a slap, there would never have been a Gospel."

I wonder what I would have done in His power. Had they slapped me, mocked and slandered me, what would I have done? His spirit is so different from our worldly spirit which creates the world's troubles.

Once, when two of His disciples, James and John, were trying to arrange a lodging in a Samaritan village for Him, they found the people hostile and every door closed against Him. Angrily they rushed back to Him, saying: "Let us call down fire upon them and burn them up." Jesus looked them in the eyes and said: "You do not know what spirit you are of."

The spirit of Christ is honesty, brotherliness, helpfulness, and optimism. It is the spirit of the martyr Stephan who prayed forgiveness for his enemies. I saw that spirit in a colored man who had been in prison fourteen years on a murder charge. Then they found he was innocent and freed him.

"Don't you feel any revenge in your heart against those who put you in prison?" he was asked.

"No, I don't think so," he answered.

He had found Christ there.

Let's pray for the spirit of Christ which would turn our world from darkness to light; from hatred to love; from death to light.

Today's YOUR GUIDING STAR Messages:

0. Philem 1:14. I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own free will.
2. James 1:22. Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourself.
3. John 14:27. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
4. I Cor. 14:40. All things should be done decently and in order.

Roadside Litter Is La. Eye Sore

Lovely Louisiana is classified as having some of the dirtiest roadsides in the nation. The Louisiana Associated Clubs for Roadside Development has a number of long-range objectives, but the first step is to create a public awareness of the litter and its bad effects. This organization will be of an educational nature, working through all state and federal agencies, clubs, civic organizations and individuals interested to promote this movement for better roadsides. The cooperation and advice of the Louisiana Department of Highways will be sought at all times.

Mrs. Aline Banister is our district director. Now — how can you help? Become litter conscious, talk about it, help arouse the public interest, discuss it at your meetings, clubs, in the school room, to girls and boys groups. Maybe you'd like to take this as a club project for the year. For more information call or write Mrs. Aline Banister.

Mrs. Elvie S. Grant writes that she'd like to see the wild sunflower streets around Sterlington Road and on Loop Road developed into beauty spots. "When the weeds are cut the sunflowers go before we ever see them bloom. Out west the wild flowers are protected," writes Mrs. Grant.

Mrs. Marion Philips of Fairbanks invites you to see her chrysanthemums in bloom between November 1 and 15. She writes, "I have one hundred varieties and fourteen hundred plants. I have several varieties in bloom. now. You can come out in groups or one at a time."

Around the Home

Had you ever noticed how warm and friendly an entrance to a home can be? Whether the house be traditional or modern, the style doesn't matter. You just want the entrance to say "Welcome." Such an interesting welcome entrance is that of the Wesley Shaftos, 1005 North Third street, Monroe.

Surely enormous, overgrown shrubs, parctically hiding the door from view doesn't say "Come in my friend." Rather it creates a dismal air. Drive by your own house. See if it seems to have the welcome mat out.

When you are riding around the hills of West Monroe you'll see the French mulberry with it's hundreds of purple berries in clusters on a long drooping branch. Make a note to buy a few plants this winter or ask one of your friends to let you dig a plant or two from their woods area.

As soon as we have some rains, transplant your daisies, all varieties. That is — if they need dividing. Your blooms are larger if you will transplant this perennial every other year.

I know your hands are itching to get the spade and transplant some shrubs that have worried you all summer. Please wait til the weather is cooler and we have had some good rains. December, January. and February are our transplanting months. It is not time to prune or fertilize your trees or shrubs. Late winter is the best time for those two jobs. We'll have lots of jobs to do when we have had some rains and frost.

Jes' Talkin'

Have you ever tried adding a pinch of sugar to the water when cooking onions? Acts as a deodorizer. The objectionable odor and raw flavor of the vegetable is reduced when this is done.

Three tablespoons of baking soda in one quart of warm water makes a good cleaning and deodorizing solution to wash the defrosted refrigerator or freezer and to clean bread and lunch boxes.

Crumbs may cause a short circuit if allowed to accumulate in the electric toaster.

Say — you carry a handy measuring device with you wherever you go. With your fingers spread, measure the tip of your little finger to the tip of your thumb. Remember the number of inches. Then you're set to measure anything in an emergency.

Food News

Along with plentiful pork, potatoes and rice, winter peas are featured as top plentifuls this week. This fall's cranberry crop is the second largest in history. There are plenty of grapes from the big Californja crop, as well as raisins. These two items fit the holiday picture.

The turkey crop this year is somewhat smaller than last year's huge crop. The drop is chiefly in small birds. Even with this decrease there will be plenty of turkey for Thanksgiving platters the country over.

Chicken can be the choice this month, broilers and fryers. Markets will have good supplies of beef where the lean beef from grass-fed cattle will be coming to market seasonally.

Other foods on the good buy list for this month are: cheese, ice cream, evaporated milk, dry skim milk, lard and vegetable fats and oils and canned tuna.

Announcements

Your "Open House" TV shows for this week are as follows: Hazel Fusilier, home agent from Rayville will give you "Selection of Small Equipment," Tuesday, Irene Turner, Food Specialist from Louisiana State University Extension will bring you some fine food preparation, and to spark up the day we'll see some beautiful sport clothes. Wednesday, Mary Margaret will be here with the blue ribbon flower arrangements, and Mr. Wright from Louisiana Tech will give you the second in a series of lessons in flower arrangement; Thursday, Irene Turner will bring you more food preparation and Friday is marketing day.

See you next Sunday.

SOUTHERN GARDENER—

By William Lanier Hunt

Tulip Planting Time Is Here

Tulip planting time is here again, and, in spite of the fact that some of them may get eaten by "moles or mice," we cannot resist their spectacular color and everybody will be planting them. "Hardware cloth," the name they are calling galvanized mesh wire these days, will protect tulips if you have to protect them from the varmints in your garden. Some gardeners think it worth the trouble to make shallow baskets of this wire mesh and plant their tulips in them and then take up the baskets each June. However, deep planting down to eight inches deep has proven very successfuly for the bulbs and, apparently, against the varmints, too.

We are just at the beginning of a whole new era in tulips. Several years ago, the breeders began to use the wild forms again to create new kinds. This is good news for the south, because the wild tulips now being bred back into the old kinds come from parts of the world where the soil is hot in summer and dry — much like our conditions here in the Southern states. If you can keep the pests from destroying your tulips and will plant them deeply in somewhat gritty and reasonably rich soil, they will stay with you and increase from year to year. These new ones will be more permanent than the old Darwins and Breeders.

For some time, we have been able to buy the "botanical" tulips. Most of these have proved to be easy to grow in the south. They are small flowers, and if you have found them too small, you will like the new named varieties that came from them. The first of these was named Red Emperor. It blooms very early and makes a big splash of color with the daffodils. There is another variety much like it this year but with longer stems and said to be longer flowering. This one is called Flaming Youth. Both of these came from Tulipa Fosteriana, a wild one. Another wild tulip we have been growing is the so-called water - lily tulip. By crossing several of these wild species, the breeders have now produced a race they call the Peacock tulips, and they have appeared in catalogues for this season. They run the whole gamut of colors, but all have interesting interior markings and spots. Of course, all of these tulips are early like their parents.

The little short double tulips we plant to come with and after the daffodils are quaint. Catalouges are now listing a group of late flowering doubles with longer stems. The English seem to like these varieties very much. On their longer stems, the late doubles are up where the eye can take them in, in the garden. They resemble peonies in shape and garden effect.

More different kinds of tulips are in the offing for us. There are some one hundred and fifty wild tulips in the world — possibly more. As these are crossed with each other and developed, we can expect a great many new types and shapes and colors as well as a longer season of bloom.

OUTSTANDING ARRANGEMENTS by fifth district flower show judges were displayed at their meeting in this city Wednesday. Among those shown, left, is a brown wine bottle featuring dried cecropia leaves and sea pod of wild honey locust tree in shades ranging from dark brown to almost white. Mrs. John P. Lewis made the arrangement. Center, another of Mrs. Lewis' arrangements placed on a bamboo mat was of dried cecropia leaves and sea pod of wild honey locus trees. It was in tints and tones of brown and featured undeveloped pomegranites and love apples. Right is an arrangement by Mrs. R. L. Vining of Ruston entitled "Good Morning." It is made of crotalaria, daylilies and dahlias in yellow tints, designed in a triangular pattern.

October 30 Is Deadline For Flower Pictures

The October 12 meeting of the Fifth District Judges Council was highlighted with arrangements to be entered in an arrangement book which is to be published early next year by the Louisiana Garden Club Federation. The book will be on display and for sale at the state meeting in March of 1956. Any member of a federated garden club who has won a blue ribbon is urged to send a picture or pictures of arrangements to Mrs. John P. Lewis by October 30. These pictures should be not less than 4½ by 5⅝ on a glossy black and white print. Good photography counts most. Mrs. Lewis's address is 610 Mill st., West Monroe, La.

If you do not have a suitable arrangement picture on hand, have one made or take it yourself and send it in now. Also a suggestion for a name for the book would be helpful. All members are anxious for the undertaking to be highly successful and your help is earnestly solicited.

The Fifth District Judges council is composed of nationally accredited amateur flower show judges residing in the Fifth District. The meetings are held monthly at which time flower arrangements are exhibited and points scored by the group.

Tallulah Garden Club Has Exhibit At Center

A delightful flower show was presented by the Tallulah Home Gardeners at the Garden Center this week. The exhibits were point scored by an accredited judge. In the horticulture section Mrs. J. W. Huckabay was awarded a blue ribbon for a beautiful specimen of Kay Francis Dahlia. This is the semi-cactus type, lemon yellow and very large and showy. Mrs. John Carpenter was awarded blue ribbon for dark red dahlias and also a ribbon for cerise dahlias.

Mrs. Lloyd Shelton was awarded first place in the arrangement section. For a container Mrs. Shelton chose a rectangular bowl of soft green in whch she designed a triangular mass arrangement, using green canna leaves n the background. Maroon canna seed pods were skillfully placed in the foreground and the focal point was a cluster of maroon coleus leaves. Mrs. John Carpenter was awarded second place. Brillant orange marigolds were used to create a right-angle triangular design. The container was copper and the arrangement set on a black base. Very pleasing in color and design. Third place was awarded to Mrs. Earl Johnson for a most unusual fall arrangement combining fresh and dried plant material. The container was a decoy duck. A colorful mass arrangement was made with brown pencil cat - tails, wheat, bronze daisy type chrysanthemums, and small yellow, orange and red zinnias. Bright colored fall leaves were used low in the arrangement unifying the container and arrangement.

The yearbook of the East Carroll Garden Club, Lake Providence has just arrived. It's lovely. A pale pink cover with a hand painted design of two-tone purple iris. The newly federated Sprig and Twig Garden Club of Ruston have a most interesting yearbook. The cover is black and the printing gold. The design is a map of Louisiana outlined in gold with a gold dot indicating Ruston. We have received for our library, four more books: They are "Christmas Facts and Fancies" by Alfred C. Hottes, "Gardening in the Shade" by H. K. Morse, "Flower Arrangements for All Occasions" by Marie Johnson Fort and "Growing Plants under Artificial Light" by Peggie Schultz. Dates to remember: The Delta Fair in Tallulah, October 17, 18, 19 and 20. The flower show in connection opens on Tuesday, October 18. There has been some confusion about the date for Flower Show School III, so we will repeat —November 2, 3, and 4 in Ruston in the agriculture building on the Tech campus. Registration starts at 8:00 a. m. November 2. The special flower arrangement lecture by Mrs. Talbert (in addition to the school) is on Tuesday, November 1, at 2 p. m. in the Tech Little Theatre. The public is cordially invited.

John Wright Speaks To Garden Club

Mrs. Ben M. Lee, program chairman for the October meeting of the Farmerville Garden Club, introduced John A. Wright, associate professor of horticulture at Louisiana Tech, who spoke to the club on the subject of "Selecting and Planting Bulbs."

Mr. Wright told about the different varieties to be chosen from the narcissus, tulips, lilies and daffodils. He said that soil should be spaded to a depth of twelve inches and fertilized well before planting with 2-4 pounds bone meal and 2-4 pounds of 8-8-8 or 5-10-5 to every 100 square feet of space. Tulips take cold weather better and can be planted later, he said. Tulip bulbs and Easter lily bulbs should be refrigerated two or three weeks before being planted, the speaker explained.

Mrs. P. L. Rad, president, had prepared mimeographed instructions of garden duties for month of October which members received.

Since Mr. Fred Preaus, is the only candidate for state office and due to the club's respect for him and his integrity the club voted unanimously to endorse his candidacy.

Gardens selected for the outstanding care and beauty for last month were Mrs. N. B. James' large yard, and Mrs. Grayson Odom's small yard, and Sam and Laura Jones in the colored quarters.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. W. O. Roberts, Mrs. Hughey Ham, Mrs. Marilyn Hallman and Mrs. Earl Taylor.

The bidding:

North, 1 club; East, pass; South, 1 heart; West, 2 diams.

North, 3 hearts; East, 4 diamonds; South, pass; West, pass.

North, 4 hearts; East, pass; South, pass; West, pass.

Opening lead: King of diamonds.

Sound defense without optimism is a contradiction in terms. When an opposing contract is apparently in the bag, the time is ripe for wishful thinking. Sometimes the defeat of the contract cannot be achieved unless partner holds one or two or even more of the pivotal cards outstanding, and in such cases one should proceed on the theory that partner has them, however, remote such a contingency may be.

Today's final contract was four hearts. Note South's proper pass of four diamonds. Had East passed South would have bid four hearts, but after the four diamond bid, it was good form to afford North the courtesy of the next chance. If by any chance North wishes to double the call he should not be deprived of the opportunity to do so.

West opened the king of diamonds and when partner followed with the deuce, he promptly shifted to the ten of clubs. Declarer won and just as promptly drove out the ace of trumps. A spade trick was subsequently given up and the contract was fulfilled.

West's defense was not very enterprising. True enough the appearance of the dummy made the outlook anything but cheerful for the defenders, but if East has the queen of spades and the ace of hearts the contract can be defeated by obtaining a spade ruff. The proper play to trick two was the king of spades. And this gesture called for no great fortitude on the part of West, for his king was trapped in any event.

The king would be won in dummy and a low heart led. East must lose no time in stepping forward with the ace to cash the queen of spades and permit partner to ruff the third round of the suit.

"When you played the deuce of diamonds on the first trick, I though you were calling for a club shift, partner," was West's comment. That's the sort of thing one runs into constantly and demonstrates the danger of a little learning. East's play of the deuce of diamonds had no relationship to the suit preference convention. He simply didn't want any more diamonds led at that time.

Winnsboro Senior State 4-H Winner To Go To Chicago

WINNSBORO, Oct. 15 (Special)—Miss Bertha Nan Scott, Winnsboro High School senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Scott of Winnsboro, is the winner of the state farm and home electric 4-H records contest.

According to Miss Irene Fallin, Franklin parish assistant home demonstration agent, the award for this honor will be a trip for Bertha Nan to the National 4-H Club congress at Chicago in November.

Miss Scott has given farm and home electric demonstrations for Junior 4-H clubs, neighborhood 4-H meeting., colored adult achievement day, for a television program and for a farm and home electric clinic here. She has also appeared before newly organized home demonstration clubs.

Bertha Nan is president of the Franklin parish 4-H council, secretary of the Winnsboro Senior 4-H Club and is also a junior leader.

ED J. SULLIVAN

Ed Sullivan To Run For Assessor

WINNSBORO, Oct. 15 (Special)—Ed J. Sullivan, 40, Franklin parish ward three, farmer and cattleman, has announced his candidacy for election to the office of Franklin parish assessor, subject to the action of voters in the January 17, 1956 democratic primary.

In his opening announcement Sullivan stated:

"I intend for my race for the Franklin parish assessor's office to be a clean one and I will not be engaged in any other candidate's cause.

"If elected assessor, I firmly believe that I will be qualified to serve you courteously, capably and honestly. Your vote and support will be sincerely appreciated."

The candidate has been a resident of Franklin parish since 1919. He is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and was employed by the post office department of Winnsboro from 1942 to 1950 as a substitute rural letter carrier and clerk. In 1950 he entered the service of Louisiana department of highways as a right-of-way agent and recently was employed by the Agriculture Stabilization Conservation office in Winnsboro.

Sullivan is married to the former Miss Victoria Emerson and is the father of five children: J. C., 19, now attending Louisiana Tech; John, 17; Dorthy, 12; Jerry, seven; and Rita Faye, four.

Battle Looms In Richland Parish Sheriff's Race

RAYVILLE, Oct. 15 (Special)—A hard battle is expected to be staged by two candidates schooled in law enforcement, between J. Foster Jones, former Richland parish sheriff and Earl E. Hill, incumbent, for the sheriff's office, if past history is taken into account.

The contest between the two candidates for the same office four years ago was one of the closest ever waged in Richland parish and a repeat performance is in the offing.

Both of the candidates have had successful terms in office and are active in civic affairs.

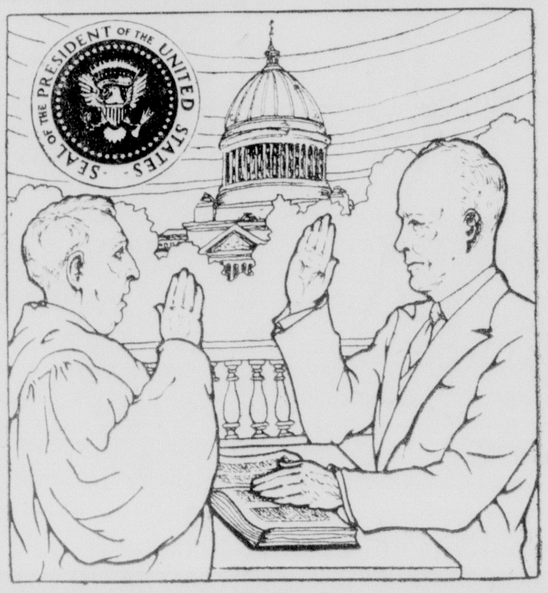
TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS



MEET YOUR PRESIDENT—6

The Inauguration

Even while Gen. Eisenhower was in Europe commanding NATO, lots of people wanted him to run for President.

On June 1, 1952, he returned to this country and took off his uniform. Three days later, in a rain and windstorm that swept Abilene, Kan., he made his first political speech. The following month at the Republican convention, he won the nomination on the first ballot.

Always a hard worker, Ike then tackled the presidential campaign in the same energetic manner he used in his military campaigns. He made 228 speeches and traveled 50,000 miles. He won the election in a "landslide"; that is, he won it with many votes to spare.

GAIL K. GAY

Gail Gay Seeks 29th District Senatorial Seat

OAK GROVE, Oct. 15 (Special)—Gail K. Gay, 49, of Oak Grove, has announced his candidacy for the 29th senatorial district comprising the parishes of West Carroll and Morehouse.

A successful businessman, Gay is a partner in the Catron - Gay Funeral Home of Oak Grove and secretary and general manager of their fraternal burial association. He is active in civic and other organizations holding membership in the Lions Club and the Woodmen of the World, both of which he is a local past - president; a Shriner, the West Carroll Farm Bureau, the Northeast Louisiana Delta Council and the West Carroll Produce Association, Inc.

"I shall work unceasingly in behalf of good governmental policies and practices," said Gay, "and equally as sincerely and vigorously in opposition to any official actions which are not undertaken in the public interest."

Born in Arkansas, the senatorial aspirant has resided in Louisiana for the past 14 years.

He pointed to his record as evidence of his qualifications saying, "I shall work untiringly to bring about agricultural - industrial-business development in our district."

FARMLAND LOSS

CHICAGO, — An estimated 2,000,000 acres of farmland each year is lost to suburban and industrial development, highway construction and the like. Soil losses through these causes amounts to several times that of soil erosion, according to the Chicago & North Western Railway's agricultural department.

Politicos Promise Raise In Pensions But Fail To Tell Source Of Money

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 15 (Special) — Promises for increased old age assistance being made in the current state political campaign could involve extra spending of $12.5 million to $61.8 million a year in state funds, the Public Affairs Research Council (PAR) said today.

Thus far, PAR said in its monthly News Analysis, "there have been no pledges to increase taxes to meet these promises."

"All proposals to increase welfare expenditures," PAR continued, "should be accompanied by realistic and practical plans for financing the increases, whether through reduction of the rolls, the imposition of additional taxes, or the diversion of state funds from other state services."

PAR said estimates of the Department of Public Welfare show the following added annual state costs to provide old age assistance at some of the levels being mentioned based on present rolls:

$75 per month grants, $26,137,596.

$100 per month grants, $61,803,280.

Any program which would grant payments to all persons 65 years of age and over would result in the state losing all federal funds for that program. The state now gets about $46.5 million a year in federal funds for old age assistance.

PAR suggested larger grants could be provided if there was a reduction in rolls to provide assistance "only to persons actually in need."

"The adoption of sound and equitable relative responsibility and lien and recovery laws, and realistic eligibility policies with regard to property ownership would certainly contribute to this objective," PAR asserted.

According to PAR, other states have been able to raise grants in old age assistance after adoption of laws requiring financially able relatives to take care of their needy kin and to permit recovery of funds from the estates of recipients.

PAR noted that legislative changes in the welfare program are implemented by the Board of Public Welfare.

Under the state constitution, board members serve staggered terms and a new governor would not be able normally to appoint a controlling majority of the board until December of 1958.

In presenting the cost estimates for various proposals, PAR cautioned that these are based on the present caseload in old age assistance. They do not include added administrative costs, and they do not take into consideration any increase in the rolls which might result from higher grants nor any increases in other programs which might be adopted to keep them more in line with old age assistance grants.

Voice Of Democracy Plans Completed

Plans for conduction of the annual Louisiana Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce have been completed. A suggested schedule is announced by D. E. Shipp, state VOD chairman. High schools cooperating in the contests should have their winner selected by Nov. 5. Local Jaycee chapters should conduct their contests by Nov. 20 and have their winner's tape mailed to the state chairman by Nov. 25.

The state contest will be held during the week of Dec. 5 in the studios of Radio Station KTBS, Shreveport. Judges for the state contest will be Mr. Joseph Gifford, head of the speech department at Centenary college and J. Murray Durham, president of the National Bank of Bossier, Bossier City.

The winner of the state contest will have his recorded script on the subject "I Speak for Democracy" entered in the national VOD contest. Local radio stations over the state are cooperating in recording scripts for Jaycee chapters.

OPEN HOUSE

Voter Registration Drops In Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 15 (Special) — Voting registration has dropped in Louisiana since the 1952 gubernatorial election, it was reported today by the Public Affairs Research Council.

But citizens may register through December 17 for participation in the first primary of the current state election.

According to PAR in its monthly News Analysis, there were 886,963 persons registered as of February 1. There were 981,441 registered for the first primary in the last state election.

Commenting on the fact that only 60.4 per cent of the voting age population in the state was registered in 1952, with only 77 per cent of the registered voters casting ballots, PAR said that election was decided by less than half of the people of voting age.

'The Tall Men' To Open Soon At The Paramount

Twentieth Century - Fox's spectacular epic of the West "The Tall Men," starring Clark Gable, Jane Russell, Robert Ryan and Cameron Mitchell, will have its local premiere next Sunday at the Paramount Theatre. The picture, based on a novel by Clay Fisher, chronicles the first great cattle drive over the historic Bozeman trail from Texas to Montana in 1867. These scenes, which include some of the most exciting stampedes ever shown on the screen, were filmed in Durango, Mexico, where Director Raoul Walsh assembled 145 actors and crewmen, 75 vaqueros (cowboys) 4,000 head of cattle and 1,000 horses in one of the biggest and most expensive locatoin operations ever undertaken by the company.

North Central Mexico was chosen as the site for the pulse-stirring cattle drive because of the specatcular scenery and because Mexican cattle more closely resemble the virtually extinct Texas Longhorns than any which could be found in the United States. And furthermore it was impossible to round up such a big herd of cows in this country. The herd is the largest ever shown on the screen, surpassing the herd of 1,500 used in "Red River," which held the record up to this time.

"The reason we needed so many was, of course, CinemaScope," Director Walsh explained. "We wanted to fill the screen with cattle to give an impression of brute force and power and, after tests, we couldn't do it with less."

Walsh's decision paid off in a surging maelstrom of wild cattle and wild men coming together in violent action which could not have been filmed anywhere else. After Mexico the Twentieth Century-Fox company moved into Sun Valley, Idaho, to film snow scenes which are equally as spectacular as the cattle episodes.

In telling this story of unprecedented adventure "The Tall Men" also unfolds a story of the conflict of human emotions of three men and a girl caught in the grip of passion, love, hatred and intrigue. Gable, as Black Ben Allison, ex-Quantrell raider, turned bad man is, of course, the "Tall Man" in Fisher's story, a fearless and authoritative trail boss. He and his brother, Clint, played by Cameron Mitchell, kidnap Nathan Stark, portrayed by Robert Ryan, and then enter into a strange compact that makes them partners in the big cattle drive. Things go smoothly until they meet Jane Russell as Nella Turner and then, amidst hardships, Indian ambushes and a battle with renegade "Jayhawkers," the adventure turns into a human struggle among the four of them. Gable's romance with Miss Russell turns into a turbulent one for both.

Sydney Boehm and Frank Nugent wrote the screen play for "The Tall Men" and William A. Bacher and William B. Hawks were the producers of the picture, which has been rated by Twentieth Century-Fox as the greatest CinemaSsope production since "The Robe."

WARM HANDS—The fire is warming, and so are Clark Gable's hands, as they work over a girl with cold feet —Jane Russell, if you can believe it—in this scene from "The Tall Men," CinemaScope western in color by De Luxe, which begins at the Paramount next Sunday. Robert Ryan and Cameron Mitchell also star in the film. A herd of more than 1,500 cattle was used in making the film. This is the biggest bunch of bull ever assembled in connection with a movie.

Little Theatre Curtain Call

By MARION KIRK FISHER

Although "The Happy Time" has enjoyed the first two nights of its' five-night run, we feel that it is not too late to say something special about the interesting art exhibit, in the coffee room of our playhouse . . . As usual we are indebted to Katharine Magruder for the showing of the works of these local artists. We can't overlook the fact that her husband, Ray, usually plays a very active part in assisting Kay, in the hammer and nails department, when it comes to the actual hanging of the various exhibits . . . A salute to the both of them.

We are indebted to the following artists, for their consideration in allowing their works to be exhibited . . . Robert Tettleton, head of the Art Department at N. E. State College, who is showing two abstracts. He is a graduate of La. Tech, has taught in Port Arthur, Texas, and received his Master's degree from L. S. U., where he studied art under Louis Guglielmi, and Ralph Wickiser. Darrel Brisbin, who is represented by an oil portrait of his wife. He is employed at a local electrical goods store, but paints as a hobby. He studied art at the N. O. Art School. Miss Alice Silmon, of Bastrop, is exhibiting a landscape. She is a graduate of Bastrop High School. Although she has had no special training in art, she has been painting for a couple of years, and she now does all of the art work for the Bastrop schools.

Billy Hargis has both a landscape and an abstract on exhibit. He is a graduate of Louisiana Tech where he majored in art. Although he is employed in the advertising department of a local firm, he also paints in his spare time.

Mrs. H. M. James is showing a landscape. She has been painting for a number of years, and is interested in modern and abstract painting. Listed in "Who's Who in Art in America," she studied at the School of Art, San Maras, Texas and at the Taos School of Art, Taos, N. M. Leita Mae King, has on exhibit, a male portrait in oils. She attended the Kansas City Art Institute, and is at present, a student at La. Tech. Her works have frequently been on exhibit in the Monroe area.

If you have not yet seen the current production at the Monroe Little Theatre, make your reservation by phoning 3-4263, between the hours of two and seven p.m. Enjoy the show, and see the art exhibit, in the coffee room during intermission.

For those who see one of the productions of "The Happy Time," we repeat, the production crew, which remains out of sight behind the scenes, is of vital importance to the success of each show. So we list the active members of this crew . . . Lou Lasuzzo, assistant to the director . . . Lloyd Stewart, stage manager . . . Ralph Bird, assistant stage manager . . . Lloyd Stewart, Russ Kettenring, Ted Landhy, lighting . . . Barbara Addison assisted by Ralph Bird, Lou Lasuzzo, and Virginia Redding, stage properties . . . Randy Rainwater and Aubrey McKeithen, sound effects . . . To these capable theatreites, goes full credit for the complex details which they carry out meticulously, and without whom the cast could not put on a production.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. True. Psychology is the scientific study of behavior — in both animals and men. Begin by studying the behavior of your dog or cat. Your pets become afraid, angry, playful, or cooperative in response to your approach. Then notice how your relatives and friends react to what you do or say. Don't get any foolish ideas about what they ought to do. After a week, you'll be surprised how silly anger and irritations are. Our booklet, "How To Persuade People," will be a wonderful help to understanding them and yourself. Nonprofit, 20 cents (coin only) and stamped self-addressed envelope.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. No. There are several kinds of leaders. (1) The executive — selected by his associates to carry out their plans and ideas. (2) Dynamic — originates new plans and ideas an dchanges things. Washington, Lincoln, Churchill, and Roosevelt represent this type. Some are constructive; some, destructive. (3) Creative — scientist, writer, philosopher, such as Shakespeare, Plato, Edison, Wright Brothers.

Getting married is not difficult. It's BUILDING YOUR MARRIAGE that is the problem, and the Public Affairs Committee nonprofit pamphlet of that name will help you. For a copy, send your name and address and 25 cents in coin to Public Affairs Committee, c-o your newspaper. Ask for "Building Your Marriage."

Answer to Question No. 3

3. It is immoral not to try to learn every possible skill that will preserve our lives and health and help observe others. Louis I. Dublin, statistician, shows that four out of five persons who are drowned swim poorly or can't swim at all. Since bathing suits are so scanty, it makes little difference whether you wear them or hang them on a hickory limb — but you should go not only near but into the water.

Louisiana Still Leads Nation In Personal Taxes

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 15 (Special) — Louisiana continued to lead the nation in the proportion of personal income paid out in state taxes, though dropping in rank in per capita state taxes.

The Public Affairs Research Council (PAR), reported today in its monthly News Analysis that Louisiana citizens in the fiscal year 1955 paid $8.09 in state taxes for every $100 of personal income reported for the calendar year 1954 —83 cents less than the peak level reached in 1951.

In fiscal 1955, Louisiana citizens paid per capita state taxes of $103.80 to rank fourth in the nation. Louisiana ranked third in 1954 and second in 1953. In the years 1949, 1950, and 1951 Louisiana ranked first in the nation in per capita state tax payments, jumping from 12th in 1948.

Since 1949, when Louisiana showed a sharp increase in tax collections, the state has advanced in tax collections at a much slower rate than most states.

During the past ten years, Louisiana's tax collections rose 167 per cent. Only 11 states showed a higher percentage increase. But Louisiana's rate of increase in collections (36 per cent) has been slower since 1949 than in all but seven states.

34 Are Charged By Area State Officers

Thirty - four persons, including four charged with drunken driving, were arrested by Louisiana State police of Troop F here during the past week, according to a report issued yesterday.

Those charged with drunken driving included James B. Gilmore, 35, Fort Necessity; Walter Dill, 48, Negro, Dodson; Lloyd A. Trawick, 52, Lake Providence; and Mixon N. Chandler, 46, 511 Splane Drive, West Monroe.

Other alleged offenses showed 15 arrested for rockless driving, five for speeding in autos, three for speeding in trucks, one for no driver's license, two for obstruction of highway, two for oversize load, and two for disturbing the peace.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

What has happened to the glorious dreams of your youth?

Must Apply Yourself To Realize Your Dreams

What has happened to the glorious dreams of your youth?

Remember when you pictured yourself as a famous actress, artist, lawyer, musician, writer or teacher? Think back to the time when you thought you would have made (or married) a fortune by the time you were 35. Think of all the traveling you were going to do and of how lively you were going to remain.

Yes, you had great goals—all youngsters do. But when you were dreaming of these heights, you were somehow supposed to be whisked away by some special kind of genius or luck.

Then came the struggle. With your eyes still on the goal ahead, you began to notice you weren't getting the immediate appreciation or promotion you had expected. You may not have noticed the change in your habits which were penalizing you but somehow the dream began to lose some of its brilliance.

With your eyes still on the peaks, you probably became disappointed in people, discouraged with slow progress, harassed by fatigue and worry and daily routine.

If you haven't learned by now to lower the goal or be content in the slow progress toward it, you will go right on missing some of the little things of which success and happiness and beauty are made.

You may have missed much of the joy in living because you failed to look with enthusiasm and appreciation at each day as it arrived. Perhaps you failed to see the opportunities for happiness and success which lay all about you.

There is opportunity for happiness in every person you meet. There is humor and beauty and stimulation in every single day you live if you will not allow your approach to it to become dull because of responsibilities, hecticness, and a constant, frustrating effort to attain your "great goal."

Remember there is satisfaction and promise in any job you do if you will bring energy, belief and intelligence to it. Somehow small jobs, well done, turn into bigger ones. We need to be so busy paying our way in life that we lavish our energies, hearts and minds in today's problems to reach tomorrow's fulfillment. We have no energy to spare in fretting about our failure to reach it yet.

The same thing is true of beauty, good looks and good health. There is no magic potion, no miraculous product, which will give you vibrant health or prolonged youthfulness. We must each day apply ourselves to the small essentials which build health and promote good looks. These are the materials out of which eventual beauty is made.

"THE QUALITY OF MERCY IS NOT STRAIN'D"—SHAKESPEARE — OH, YEAH? WELL, THE D. A. SEEMS TO HAVE STRETCHED IT A LITTLE TOO FAR!

"D. A. EDGAR BEAVER STATED HE LACKED SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE TO WIN A FIRST OR SECOND DEGREE CONVICTION—"

OH, BRU-THER!

"D. A. SAYS EVIDENCE PROVES MRS. NAN LEETS AND DAUGHTER, ANN, ATTACKED THE CONFUSED BOYS AND THEY WERE FORCED TO FIGHT FOR THEIR LIVES—"

I BELIEVE IT! I'VE ALWAYS SAID THERE WAS MORE TO THAT CASE THAN EVER CAME OUT BEFORE—

HEAR THAT? THEM JERKS REALLY FALL FOR THAT CRAZY LINE!

WHATSA MATTER WITH OUR POLITICIANS? NOW WE GOT OPEN SEASON FOR TEEN-AGE PUNKS TO MURDER, EH?

I SAY TAR AND FEATHERS IS TOO GOOD FOR BEAVER!

HE SHOULD GET FIRST DEGREE!

PLANS TO BE GOVERNOR, THEY SAY— HIM? AFTER THIS?

FIGGERS THIS WILL GET THE SOB VOTE— HIM AND HIS BIG HEART!

I KNOW! I AM RIGHT IN THIS CASE—THE PUBLIC WILL BEAR ME OUT— I SHALL ASK FOR A SUSPENDED SENTENCE FOR THESE POOR BOYS—

AND LET THEM GO FREE?

YES! THINK HOW THEY HAVE SUFFERED—THE FEAR— UNCERTAINTY—TRUE, THEY KILLED—BUT ONLY IN FRANTIC SELF-DEFENSE— THEY HAVE LEARNED THEIR LESSON!

I'LL SAY THEY HAVE, "EAGER"— AND SO HAS THE PUBLIC—

—says Mrs. John P. McDonald, Mound, Minn.

Now! Get Best Results with One Flour for All Your Baking!

What a treat! Raised doughnuts, plump and golden, with lightness that will amaze you! Serve them warm and sugary, fragrant-fresh—the tenderest, most delicious doughnuts it's possible to make!

The reason you can turn out so many wonderful foods with Robin Hood Flour is this: It's made from a variety of choice wheats, and they're blended with extra care and skill... blended to give you best results with one flour for all your baking.

So bake biscuits, bread, cakes, pies—bake everything with Robin Hood Flour. And treat your family to these wonderful Raised Doughnuts. Bake them this week for sure!

Try Rita Martin's ROBIN HOOD

Raised Doughnuts

¼ cup sugar
1 tsp. salt
4-4½ cups sifted ROBIN HOOD All-Purpose Flour
⅓ cup shortening
2 eggs
2 cakes compressed yeast or 2 pkgs. dry granular yeast*
½ cup lukewarm water*

POUR .....milk over sugar and salt in a bowl. Stir to dissolve.
BEAT IN.....1 cup of flour, shortening, eggs, yeast mixture.
ADD.....remaining flour to make soft dough.
KNEAD.....on lightly floured board until dough becomes smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl, grease top of dough, cover with waxed paper. Let rise in warm place (80-85°) until doubled (1 to 1½ hours).
ROLL OUT....dough ⅜" thick, cut with floured doughnut cutter. Let rise on board until light (30 to 40 minutes).
DROP.....into deep hot fat (385°), turn when doughnuts rise to surface. When browned sufficiently, turn again (3-4 minutes).
DRAIN.....on absorbent paper. While warm, dust each doughnut with granular or confectioners' sugar.
YIELD.....2 dozen.

Enriched Robin Hood Flour

STEVE CANYON

by MILTON CANIFF

CANYON, IS IT YOUR IDEA OF A GAG TO SHOW UP JUST AS SUMMER AND I ARE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED?

IT'S NO GAG, NETHERLAND OR ROLFMEISTER—OR WHATEVER YOUR NAME IS...

STEVE, I HAVEN'T HEARD FROM YOU FOR A YEAR! WHY DID YOU COME BACK NOW?

BELIEVE ME, SUMMER, I ARGUED THAT POINT WITH MYSELF...

THEN WENT TO A LOCAL CLERGYMAN FOR ADVICE—AND HE AGREED THAT I HAD TO DO IT...

WHY? WHY? WHY?

I LOVED YOU ONCE, BUT I LOVE JIM NOW! CAN'T I HAVE SOME KIND OF HAPPINESS?

NO ONE DESERVES IT MORE!

THEN WHY DID YOU COME? WHAT DO YOU THINK I'M MADE OF?

GOOD STEEL—OR I WOULDN'T HAVE LEFT THE ORIENT...

WHAT KIND OF CAT AND MOUSE TALK IS THAT? YOU'RE TEARING SUMMER TO PIECES—GET TO THE POINT—IF THERE IS ONE!

SUMMER, I DIDN'T KNOW UNTIL WE GOT HERE THAT YOU WERE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED...

UNTIL 'WE' GOT HERE—? WHO'S WITH YOU?
